23rd Annual Chairman’s Dinner on December 10

The 23rd Annual FCC Chairman’s Dinner will be held Thursday, December 10, 2009 at the Washington Hilton, 1919 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. The evening will begin with a reception at 6:00 p.m. The dinner will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the International Ballroom and will be followed by remarks from FCC Chairman Julius Genachowski. There is still time to purchase tables and individual tickets for the dinner. Please use the registration form on page 33 to order tables or individual tickets. Sponsor’s tickets include a $350.00 tax deductible donation to the FCBA Foundation.

Pursuant to the Office of Government Ethics regulation on widely-attended gatherings (5 C.F.R. 2635.204(g)(2)), the Chairman’s Dinner appears to qualify as a widely attended gathering. The value of an individual ticket to the dinner is $205.00. Most employees of the Federal Communications Commission and the Commerce Department may be directly invited to attend the dinner as guests of individuals and organizations purchasing tables or tickets. In most cases, individuals and organizations may issue invitations to the Chairman’s Dinner without the involvement of the FCBA. Some agencies and branches of the Federal Government, however, apply additional stipulations above the regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics.

20th Annual Charity Auction a Huge Success!

On Thursday, November 12, 2009, the Young Lawyers Committee and the FCBA Foundation hosted the 20th Annual FCBA Charity Auction. The Auction raised more than $86,500 and will benefit the complementary educational outreach activities of Bright Beginnings and the FCBA Foundation. Founded in 1991, Bright Beginnings (http://www.brightbeginningsinc.org) is a DC-based non-profit organization that provides free, full-day, year-round developmental care to infants, toddlers, and preschoolers whose families

DEAR MEMBERS:

I hope you’ve made plans to attend the 23rd Annual FCC Chairman’s Dinner on December 10 at the Washington Hilton. It promises to be a great event – and, of course, it will also help raise funds to support the FCBA Foundation’s scholarship and internship programs. (And, by the way, there’s still time to buy a sponsored table, which includes a $350 contribution to the Foundation.)

It was also great to see so many of you at this year’s Charity Auction – the 20th annual Charity Auction, in fact. Thanks again to Micah Caldwell and Cathy Hilke, co-chairs of the Young Lawyers Committee – and to their colleagues on the Charity Auction Committee, sponsoring companies and firms, the many who donated prizes for the Auction, and the literally hundreds of FCBA volunteers who make the evening such a success. After tallying the numbers, the auction raised more than $86,500 to benefit the FCBA Foundation and Bright Beginnings, a District-based non-profit that provides free, full-day, year-round developmental care to infants, toddlers, and preschoolers whose families live in shelters and transitional housing. We’re told that Bright Beginnings will use proceeds from the Auction to open a second center to serve homeless children and families.

Thanks, again, to Stan and Kerry for all their work in making these events such a success.

As you can tell from the newsletter, the coming weeks are full of programs, networking events and volunteer opportunities. I hope you will continue to take full advantage of these member benefits. Finally, I’m pleased to tell you that the 2010 membership directory is about ready to go to the printer. While we can’t control the exact timing, we’re hoping that it will be available within the next couple of months.

Diversity Committee Event on the FCC’s Diversity Agenda

On November 6, the Diversity Committee hosted an event at the offices of Davis Wright Tremaine entitled “The FCC’s Diversity Agenda.” A packed room of over thirty attendees listened as Mark Lloyd, FCC Deputy General Counsel and Chief Diversity Officer, and Thomas Reed, Director of the FCC’s Office of Communications and Business Opportunities, described their roles at the FCC and fielded questions about the agency’s plans to promote diversity within the field. Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Thomas were very engaging and the Committee received much positive feedback from attendees.

Midwest Chapter

The Midwest FCBA Chapter held a meeting at Motorola’s Chicago Offices, 233 North Michigan Avenue, 8th Floor, Chicago, IL 60601 at Noon on Friday, November 20. The speaker was Lawrence E. Strickling, Assistant Secretary for Communications and Information at the NTIA (National Telecommunications and Information Administration). Mr. Strickling is an appointee of President Obama and was confirmed on June 25, 2009 by the United States Senate as the Assistant Secretary for Communications and Information at the Department of Commerce. In this role, Mr. Strickling serves the NTIA and is principally responsible for advising the President and the White House on communications and information policies, managing the Federal use of electromagnetic spectrum, performing cutting-edge telecommunications research and engineering, formulating and advocating for U.S. positions on international communications and information technology policy matters, and administering infrastructure and public telecommunications facilities grants.

This was a lunch meeting and was sponsored by Hank Kelly of the Kelley Drye & Warren Law Firm. CLE Credit was available for the meeting.

New England Chapter

On November 10th, the New England Chapter hosted a “Meet the New Regulators” program at the Hartford, Connecticut offices of the law firm, Robinson & Cole LLP. Commissioner Anthony Palermo of the Connecticut Department of Public Utility Control served as moderator for the panel, which included Chairman Kevin DelGobbo and Commissioner Amalia Bzdyra of Connecticut, and Commissioner Geoffrey Why of the Massachusetts Department of Telecommunications and Cable. The three commissioners engaged in a wide-ranging discussion about their initial impressions, goals, and challenges they foresee as they embark on their new roles.

Each of the Commissioners stated how impressed they have been with the commitment and quality of their respective staffs. Commissioner Why observed that there are special challenges as the single commissioner in Massachusetts, which means that he engages in a regular dialogue with staff and particularly relies on their varying perspectives. Commissioner DelGobbo noted the personnel changes that have resulted from the Connecticut economy (e.g., early retirement incentive). Nevertheless, citing the quality of his staff, he believes they can do the job with the current staff level. He invited recommendations from those in attendance as to ways the agency can improve. In this regard, Commissioner Bzdyra offered that she has taken on the role of identifying ways to train staff on best practices (decision writing, interrogatories, etc.), and invited suggestions from those who practice before the agency.

The commissioners all agreed that enhanced competition for video and telephony services will play a critical role in the continued evolution of the communications landscape. Agility and regulatory openness are imperative. That said, they offered that the role of the states is evolving. They also agreed that the ability to converse with the various stakeholders will remain important. The commissioners cited favorably their discussions with company representatives from all sectors, as well as their counterparts from other states through the New England Conference of Public Utility Commissioners and NARUC.

The New England Chapter is grateful to the commissioners for their participation and to Robinson and Cole for its hospitality.
Broadband Committee

The Ad Hoc Broadband Committee, chaired by Barry Ohlson of Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, and Nancy Victory of Wiley Rein LLP, was formed this year to provide a special FCBA focus on broadband issues. Given this mandate, the Committee held a very successful CLE on Thursday, October 29, that was entitled Broadband: How the Pieces Fit Together. The event included keynotes by Blair Levin, Executive Director, Omnibus Broadband Initiative, FCC, and Tom Power, Chief of Staff, National Telecommunications and Information Administration. In three other panels a number of leading voices from government, industry, academia, and the non-profit community discussed the policy and legal issues raised by (1) the FCC’s National Broadband Plan; (2) FCC and NTIA broadband mapping and data collection efforts; and (3) the role of government funding in achieving broadband goals, particularly the BTOP and BIP programs. The Broadband Committee hopes to hold a second event in 2010 and already has begun to work with other FCBA committees on promoting broadband-related programs.

Please feel free to contact either of the co-chairs, Barry Ohlson (BOhlson@wbklaw.com) or Nancy Victory (nvictory@wileyrein.com) for more information or to suggest program topics.

Mass Media Committee

The Mass Media Committee kicked off fall 2009 with a series of luncheons. September focused on the Minority Media and Telecommunications Council’s Radio Rescue Petition for Rulemaking. In October through December, they partnered with the Video Programming and Distribution Committee. Bill Lake, Chief of the Media Bureau joined them for a lively and thoughtful discussion of pending radio, television and cable issues. In November, the Legal Advisors from all Commissioners offices lent their time and wisdom on the changing media landscape, the upcoming national broadband report and challenges and opportunities before the Commission. On December 17, their annual “Views from the 4th Estate” luncheon is back by popular demand.

Early next year the Committee is planning a half-day CLE on the First Amendment, as well as additional CLEs and brown bag events. The Committee’s events are scheduled to take place on the second Tuesday of the month. Keep an eye on the FCBA newsletter for monthly announcements on the these events. The Committee encourages all members to sign up for its activities. Please feel free to contact any of the co-chairs, Ann Bobeck (abobeck@nab.org), Bob Corn-Revere (bobcornrevere@dwt.com), Parul Desai (pdesai@mediaaccess.org), or Kathleen Kirby (kkirby@wileyrein.com) for more information or to suggest program topics.

Membership and Marketing Committee

The Membership and Marketing Committee is co-chaired by Jim Blitz of Sirius XM Radio, Bob Branson of Verizon Wireless, Roxanne McElvane of the FCC’s International Bureau, and Laura Phillips of Drinker Biddle & Reath. The committee’s mission is to propose and implement ideas and plans aimed at increasing and maintaining a robust and sustaining level of FCBA membership.

This year, the committee undertook several initiatives to contact and re-engage former members, increase FCBA membership and participation among government attorneys, and broaden FCBA membership to include practitioners in other fields that are increasingly affected by changes in communications law and policy. For example, the committee vetted a membership survey that was distributed this fall, redrafted for publication a revised brochure highlighting the many benefits of FCBA membership, made direct contact with many organizations and individuals who failed to timely renew memberships, as well as considered sponsorship of events that would highlight, particularly to government communications professionals, the benefits of FCBA membership. The committee leadership met with the Executive Committee to provide a snapshot report of efforts to date in October.

Look for e-mail announcements to find ways to get involved in the committee’s efforts. Given the current economic environment, membership recruitment and retention are more important than ever, and the committee urges current FCBA members both to stay active and to encourage others to join the FCBA and/or remain part of the fold. Membership and participation in the FCBA are an important part of what makes the FCBA a vital organization.

If you have any ideas about how the association might maintain or increase membership, please don’t hesitate to get in touch with any of the co-chairs. They would be happy to hear from you. Jim Blitz (jim.blitz@siriusxm.com); Bob Branson (robert.branson@verizonwireless.com); Roxanne McElvane (roxanne.mcelvane@fcc.gov) or Laura Phillips (laura.phillips@dbr.com).

New England Chapter

The New England Chapter expects another successful year promoting the activities of the FCBA and enhancing the professional lives of its members and friends.

The Chapter welcomes new co-Chair David W. Bogan of Robinson & Cole LLP, who joins current Co-Chairs Julie Laine of Time Warner Cable and Greg Kennan of Fagelbaum & Heller LLP. But, we regret that after many years of dynamic, selfless leadership, Michele Thomas has stepped down from her Co-Chair position. The Chapter would not be what it is today without her tireless effort. We are grateful for Michele’s service and glad that she will continue as an active member of our Chapter’s Steering Committee.

The Steering Committee continues its invaluable role in the work of the Chapter. Consisting of highly-regarded practitioners, government officials, and academics from most of the New England states, the Steering Committee meets monthly throughout the year in order to design events and enlist subcommittee volunteers, who have been key to our success in delivering thought-provoking and timely panels and networking events.

As a result of these efforts, the Chapter has had two well-received events in the past few months. On July 14th, a lunch program was held in Portland, Maine. Governor John Baldacci keynoted the program, discussing the role of a state executive in stimulating investment while balancing consumer interests. The Governor referenced his own efforts in connection with the Connect Maine program as well as other economic development initiatives which have assisted in his securing investment by international companies in the state of Maine. The Governor’s talk was followed by a panel of representatives from the state Public Utilities Commission, the Public Advocate’s office, the Connect ME program, and FairPoint Communications. The panelists discussed their respective interests, needs and concerns in relation to stimulus funds and disbursement priorities in the state and region.

In addition, the Chapter held a “Meet the New Regulators” program in Hartford, Connecticut on November 10th. Connecticut Commissioner Anthony Palermo moderated a lively discussion among Chairman Kevin DelGobbo and Commissioner Amalia Bzdyra of Connecticut and Commissioner Geoffrey Why of Massachusetts. The Commissioners spoke of their expectations and aspirations as new Commissioners, the challenges they face, and how they will address those challenges.

In addition to being interesting and informative, these two programs have helped the Chapter in its continuing efforts to be truly New England-wide in scope.

The Chapter currently is planning for a January 26, 2010 event co-sponsored with the Boston University College of Communication, to be held at Boston University; concerning developments in broadband regulation and policy, and, more specifically, what regulation will look like after the National Broadband Plan. We have every reason to think that this program will surpass our co-sponsored November 2008 post-election program. Please keep an eye on the FCBA website and newsletter for further details and the date approaches.

The Chapter welcomes all members who live, work, or have an interest in New England. Please join us as we strive to contribute to the FCBA and to our members’ professional development.

Chairman’s Dinner

Individuals who have signed the Administration’s Ethics pledge cannot accept invitations from most registered lobbying organizations or registered lobbyists. Invitations to Members of Congress, Congressional Staff, and employees of the Department of State must be issued by the FCBA. Contact the FCBA for additional information. While this event has been cleared by the Office of the General Counsel in previous years, each FCC employee is required to obtain individual ethics clearance based on matters they are working on within the Commission. Employees of the Commerce Department are required to obtain individual ethics clearance through the Department’s Office of General Counsel. Requests for invitations to be sent from the FCBA must be emailed to Stan Zenor (stan@fcba.org) and received by Monday, December 7, 2009. Contact the FCBA for additional information.
December 10-11, 2009: Annual Institute on Telecommunications Policy & Regulation

On December 10-11, at The Washington Hilton Hotel, the FCBA and the Practising Law Institute will co-sponsor their 27th Annual Institute on Telecommunications Policy and Regulation. The conference will be highlighted by the appearance of four FCC members: Commissioner Michael J. Copps – who will be introduced by FCC Chairman Julius Genachowski, Commissioner Mignon L. Clyburn and Commissioner Meredith Attwell Baker.

Jim Kohlenberger, Chief of Staff at the Office of Science and Technology Policy, Executive Office of the President, will close the first day of the conference. The second day of the conference will feature remarks by Lawrence E. Strickling, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Communications and Information, National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA), and Richard C. Beaird, Senior Deputy U.S. Coordinator for International Communications and Information Policy, Department of State.

Other highlights of the Institute include three substantive panels on developments in wireline telephony, wireless telecommunications, and the telecommunications future. In addition, a Congressional staff panel – featuring Jessica Rosenworcel (D) and Brian Hendricks (R) of the Senate Commerce Committee and Roger C. Sherman (D) and David L. Caviecle (R) of the House Commerce Committee, will discuss legislative developments. The Institute will also feature tutorials by key FCC Bureau Chiefs: Sharon E. Gillett, Wireline Competition Bureau, and Ruth Milkman, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. Moreover, Douglas C. Sicker, Associate Professor and Director of the Interdisciplinary Telecommunications Program Laboratory at the University of Colorado at Boulder, will provide a tutorial on the future of the Internet.

Once again, the program will include a debate – this year on “Broadband Internet Policy: Do We Need a Fifth Principle of Nondiscrimination,” with Scott C. Cleland of Precursor LLC facing off against Gigi B. Sohn of Public Knowledge, and with former FCC Chief of Staff and FCBA President-Elect, Bryan N. Tramont, as moderator.

FCBA President Robert L. Pettit will open the program, and Kathleen Abernathy, Mark Schneider and Thomas Navin, of the FCBA’s Conference Committee, will serve as Institute co-chairs. In addition, a number of FCBA members will moderate various program segments.

A registration form for the 1½ day seminar, which is always very well attended, is on page 34. As noted, a registration fee discount is available to FCBA members.

live in shelters and transitional housing. Bright Beginnings will use proceeds from the Charity Auction towards opening a second center east of the Anacostia River so it may serve more homeless children and families. The FCBA Foundation will use the Charity Auction’s proceeds to support its scholarship program.

The Auction was held at the Hamilton Crowne Plaza Hotel, Sphinx Ballroom at the Almas Temple, and drew a large and lively crowd. In addition to bidding at four silent auction tables, the evening included two live auctions, in which the bidding was facilitated by celebrity auctioneers: For Live Auction I, Joe Di Scipio and S. Jenell Trigg; and for Live Auction II, Rick Chessen and Erin Dozier. Special thanks thanks from the Charity Auction Committee to the auctioneers for their entertaining and effective persuasive efforts!

As always, FCBA members were generous in their prize donations and in their bidding at the Auction. Prizes attracting the highest bids and generating the most live auction competition were: a $1,500.00 gift certificate to Royal Caribbean International, courtesy of Lawler, Metzger, Keeney & Logan, LLC; a one-week vacation at a villa of the winner’s choice from among Interval International’s 2,200 locations throughout the world, courtesy of Lois and Larry Movshin; a one-week stay in a gorgeous hillside house in Kinsale, County Cork, Ireland, courtesy of Dermot and Maureen O’Connor; two tickets to the “American Idol” Season 9 Finale in 2010, courtesy of AT&T Services, Inc.; a one-week stay in one of the cabanas at Las Cabanas De Loreto in Loreto, Mexico, courtesy of Mark Van Bergh; dinner for four at the Inn at Little Washington, including transportation in a luxury limousine, courtesy of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP; four tickets to the NCAA® Men’s Final Four® in Indianapolis, IN

REFLECTIONS ON A CAREER in the Communications Bar
Combined Federal Campaign (CFC)

The FCBA Foundation is proud to participate in this year’s Combined Federal Campaign for the National Capital Area. Federal employees in the nation’s capital can now make regular tax-deductible contributions to the FCBA Foundation through the Combined Federal Campaign, providing funds to support and help expand the Foundation’s vital charitable work.

To make a pledge to the FCBA Foundation, donors should use the FCBA Foundation’s CFC code number (#31092) on their pledge cards. Pledge cards can be obtained from your agency’s CFC campaign staff. Pledge cards can also be completed and printed out online through the CFC website at www.cfcnca.org. On the website, click “Giving” and “About CFC-e” for more information.

Your donations will support the valuable work performed by the FCBA Foundation. Last year, the Foundation’s work included:
- Awarding 11 college scholarships to D.C. public high school students and stipends to eight law school students for unpaid legal communications-related summer internships totaling over $180,000
- Sponsoring numerous volunteer events for FCBA members, including making meals for the homeless at Martha’s Table and delivering meals to the homeless through McKenna’s Wagon each month
- Co-Sponsoring the 2009 Charity Auction for Bright Beginnings and the FCBA Foundation which raised over $86,500

Please contact Stacy Fuller, FCBA Foundation Chair, (sfuller@DIRECTV.com), if you have any questions.

Volunteer Outreach for Martha’s Table & McKenna’s Wagon December 27th

Many of us are stretched for time these days, but why not consider spending a few hours on a Sunday to help the FCBA Foundation’s partner charities? For several years now, the FCBA has been providing volunteers to Martha’s Table and McKenna’s Wagon. These organizations rely on the good work of our members each month, so grab a friend, colleague or family member and join our fellow FCBA volunteers! As we approach the holiday season, the need for volunteers to feed the homeless becomes even more pressing. This is especially true this month as many FCBA members will be traveling on December 27th.

Martha’s Table feeds hundreds of hungry, homeless adults and children on the streets of Washington daily, through its mobile soup kitchen. Children and friends are also welcome. We will begin at 10:00 a.m. and work until 1:00 p.m. Martha’s Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Volunteers are asked to bring food if possible, (e.g., cold cuts, bread, peanut butter, jelly, vegetables and potatoes) because the center often runs out of donated food.

The FCBA volunteers on the last Sunday of every month, so mark your calendars now. For more information, contact Howard Weiss at 703-812-0471 — Weiss@FHHLaw.com.

McKenna’s Wagon is a mobile soup and sandwich wagon that goes “on location” to deliver food to the needy. For those who have volunteered, it has been a wonderful experience and a great way to help the needy in the D.C. community. This is an especially good experience for the teens and pre-teens among us who do not have a full appreciation of the many privileges they enjoy. Community service credits are also available.

The Wagon is a white van that is loaded up with sandwiches, snacks and soup. We meet at Martha’s Table at 4:45 p.m. in comfortable clothes and shoes. Martha’s Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available.

Upon arrival we get assignments (some of us will distribute snacks and sandwiches, others will serve soup), and put on aprons before we depart in the van to 5th and New York Ave., NW (near the new Convention Center). We are driven by one of our experienced volunteers and the trip to distribution location takes about 10-15 minutes.

Young Lawyers Committee Fundraiser: FCBA Shirts for Sale!

The Young Lawyers Committee is selling FCBA polo shirts to benefit the FCBA Foundation. Perfect for summertime business casual! The shirts are navy blue and embroidered with the FCBA logo in white and amber. Available in women’s sizes S, M, and XL and men’s sizes M, L, and XL for $30 per shirt; available in men’s XXL for $32 per shirt. $16 of the purchase price is deductible as a donation to the FCBA Foundation. To place an order, visit www.fcba.org and submit the form to the FCBA by fax (202-293-4317) or mail (1020 19th Street, NW, Suite 325, Washington, DC 20036). For additional information, please contact Kerry Loughney (202-293-4000; kerry@fcba.org) or Cathy Hilke (202-719-7418; chilke@wileyrein.com).
We serve about 30-75 people per visit including a few mothers who come for food for their families. The area is well patrolled by police. The food distribution is conducted in an efficient, calm and orderly fashion and many of the people we serve are quite appreciative of our efforts. Once we serve all of the food, we do a clean up of the immediate area. Total time for the distribution takes about one hour and we usually return to Martha’s Table by or before 6:30 p.m.

We would love to have you join us on one of our upcoming food runs which are always on the 4th Sunday of the month. If you are able to volunteer on December 27th or for a future date, please contact Joanna Georgatsos at georgatsos@lojlaw.com or Tom VanWazer at tvanwazer@sidley.com.

FCBA Foundation Team Participates in the Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation Race for Research

Interested in Hosting an FCBA event?

The FCBA greatly appreciates the support of our members’ firms and companies who provide space for our brown bag lunches, committee meetings, and CLE Seminars throughout the year. We are, however, always looking for new locations that can host FCBA events. We will be experimenting with some new presentation technology in future CLE seminars, which require more technical support than we have needed in the past.

In general terms, we need conference rooms that can seat at least 30 (more if possible) people at tables for brown bag lunches and committee meetings and conference rooms that can seat a minimum of 60 for CLE seminars. Firms and companies hosting brown bag lunches provide beverages and desserts; firms and companies hosting CLE seminars provide beverages and snacks. CLE seminars are generally held from 6:00 – 8:30 p.m. Additionally, for CLE seminars we need facilities that can provide technology support for microphones for as many as six speakers on a panel, the ability to tie the house sound system into a teleconference bridge, video projection capabilities for PowerPoint presentations, and access to the internet for presentations by speakers. If your firm or company has the needed conference room facilities and capabilities and would be willing to host future FCBA activities, please email Stan Zenor, stan@fcba.org, or Kerry Loughney, kerry@fcba.org.

2009 FCBA Membership Directories

The FCBA 2009 Membership Directories were printed and mailed to members in late May. Please use the order form on page 37 to order additional copies for your office.
Katrina Renouf
1938-2009

Long-time communications lawyer Katrina Renouf died on September 4 at age 70 after a short illness. The founding partner of Renouf & Polivy, she specialized in broadcast litigation and regulatory affairs for over 40 years.

Katrina was proud to say she was born in New York City, despite the fact that at the age of one week the family moved to a 1,000 acre farm in Belchertown, MA. She was raised on a working dairy farm and attended a one-room school house. Leaving the farm for high school, she attended the Emma Willard School in Albany, NY, from which she graduated in 1956. She then attended Vassar College (B.A. 1960) followed by Harvard Law School (J.D. 1963).

At Harvard, Katrina became the first woman to reach the oral argument finals in the prestigious moot court competition. That competition also became Katrina's introduction to communications law and the Federal Communications Commission. The subject of the moot court competition was an FCC license renewal proceeding involving a South Carolina radio station, a case in which the FCC denied renewal of license because of the broadcast of off-color jokes by a station DJ. As in the real life case, Katrina's side lost (Hon. Byron White, presiding). Nevertheless, the experience led to an interest in broadcast regulation and a position at the FCC.

Katrina's career at the FCC started in 1964 at the Review Board, where she worked for four years before moving to the Litigation Division of the General Counsel's Office. There she represented the Commission in appellate litigation until 1971. During her tenure at the Litigation Division, Katrina started an index of all appellate decisions involving the FCC, a compilation she continued throughout her legal career and an invaluable tool to the lawyers of Renouf & Polivy.

Renouf & Polivy specialized in broadcast policy and licensing proceedings. Katrina was lead counsel on briefs representing, inter alia, the United Church of Christ, Office of Communications in the Jackson, Mississippi, proceeding, the National Association of Independent Television Producers and Distributors in the numerous Prime Time Access Rule proceedings and appeals, and Rainbow Broadcasting Company in the successful defense of the minority preference in comparative licensing proceedings in the United States Supreme Court (Metro Broadcasting v. FCC).

When she left the FCC in 1971, Katrina used her accumulated retirement money to buy a farm near Charlottesville, VA. It was there that she rekindled her love of animals and outdoor life. Despite suffering from rheumatoid arthritis for more than a decade, she remained a talented and avid gardener. Katrina is survived by her sister, Anne Renouf, and her long-time friend and law partner Margot Polivy.

Peter A. Rohrbach
1953-2009

Long-time communications attorney and FCBA member Peter Rohrbach died on October 25, 2009 in Baltimore, Maryland, at age 56 of complications from lymphoma.

Peter was born in Hartford, Connecticut, to a family descended from William Brewster, preacher on the Mayflower and the first religious leader of the Plymouth colony. He graduated from the Philips Exeter Academy and from Yale College, magna cum laude, in 1975. After a year working at the National Endowment for the Humanities, he attended Stanford Law School and was senior note editor of the Law Review.

Upon graduation from Stanford Law School in 1979, Peter began his long career in the Washington, D.C. office of Hogan & Hartson LLP. During his 30 years there, Peter was particularly recognized for his work in telecommunications, with an emphasis in the wireline industry, satellite communications, and information services. He was also recognized for his experience handling broadcast and new media matters.

Peter's many accomplishments included handling major telecommunications mergers and related regulatory approvals at the federal and state levels, as well as achieving successful results in numerous complex regulatory and litigation matters. He taught law school seminars and frequently spoke on telecommunications policy matters at industry events, including FCBA seminars.

Peter also was an important member of Hogan & Hartson's management team. He had been Co-Director of the firm's Communications Practice Group since 1998. He also served two terms on Hogan's Executive Committee, and had been named firm-wide Managing Partner-Practice Management shortly before being diagnosed with cancer.

According to Peter's colleagues, he will be remembered as a kind and generous man whose thoughtful, unpretentious manner belied the depth of his convictions and passions. He was devoted to his family, had a deep appreciation for culture, and loved travel and the outdoors. His experience climbing Mount Kilimanjaro with his son in 2007 served as an inspiration throughout his battle with cancer. He also drew great satisfaction from his work as a volunteer teacher with the outreach program of Thurgood Marshall Academy, a successful D.C. public charter school.

Survivors include his wife, Linda Rohrbach, and their sons James and Andrew.

Contributions in Peter's memory may be made to the Peter A. Rohrbach Endowment to benefit students of Thurgood Marshall Academy (c/o Robert Glass, Hogan & Hartson, 555 13th Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20004).

Pursuant to the Office of Government Ethics regulation on widely-attended gatherings (5 C.F.R. 2635.204(g)(2)), the Chairman’s Dinner appears to qualify as a widely attended gathering. The value of an individual ticket to the dinner is $205.00. Most employees of the Federal Communications Commission and the Commerce Department may be directly invited to attend the dinner as guests of individuals and organizations purchasing tables or tickets. In most cases, individuals and organizations may issue invitations to the Chairman’s Dinner without the involvement of the FCBA. Some agencies and branches of the Federal Government, however, apply additional stipulations above the regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics. Individuals who have signed the Administration’s Ethics pledge cannot accept invitations from most registered lobbying organizations or registered lobbyists. Invitations to Members of Congress, Congressional Staff, and employees of the Department of State must be issued by the FCBA. Contact the FCBA for additional information.

While this event has been cleared by the Office of the General Counsel in previous years, each FCC employee is required to obtain individual ethics clearance based on matters they are working on within the Commission. Employees of the Commerce Department are required to obtain individual ethics clearance through the Department’s Office of General Counsel.

This seminar focuses on new state and federal laws, guidelines, developments, and risks that will impact privacy and data security for media and communications companies in 2009 and beyond under the new Obama Administration. It covered issues related to mobile marketing, behavioral advertising, social networking, the CAN-SPAM Act, fax advertising, security breach notification laws, state encryption and security practices and policies for protecting SSNs and credit card data, and much more. This year a new session discussed contracting with third parties (including advertisers and your own affiliates), requirements for due diligence for service providers, mergers and acquisitions, and an overview of insurance policies and minimum coverage requirements for privacy and data security liability. It also provides implementation specifics for the FTCs new Red Flag Rules that apply to any entity that defers payment of services or goods; the FTCs enforcement effective date is May 1, 2009. A wealth of written materials is also included on the DVD.

SESSION I – PRIVACY AND DATA SECURITY ISSUES RELATED TO OPERATIONS AND EMPLOYEES
