FCBA Fall Reception to be held on September 24

The FCBA is pleased to announce that it will hold its Fall Reception on Thursday, September 24, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. The reception will be held at the Supreme Court of the United States, 1 First Street, NE, Washington, DC.

Sponsorships of the event are available for $650 and $350, and include registrations to the reception. Sponsors will receive recognition for their support, including being listed in the FCBA newsletter, on the website and other social media outlets, and in emails. Individual tickets to the reception may also be purchased. To register an individual, click here or go to the FCBA Website – Calendar of Events or use the form on page 19. See page 19 for sponsor registration.

There is limited capacity for this event, so please register early!

26th Annual FCBA Charity Auction to be held on November 5

The FCBA Young Lawyers Committee and the FCBA Foundation will hold their 26th Annual Charity Auction on Thursday, November 5, 2015, at the Sphinx Club at the Almas Temple, 1315 K Street, NW, Washington, DC, from approximately 6:30 – 10:00 p.m. Admission is free and the event is open to the public.

Proceeds from this year’s Auction will benefit two charitable organizations: The Fishing School and the FCBA Foundation. Founded in 1990 by retired Metropolitan police officer Tom Lewis, The Fishing School (TFS) prepares public school elementary and middle school students for success in high school and life by improving their academic performance and life skills; and engaging them and their parents in intensive, multi-year, and research-based out of school time and parent engagement programs and activities. Named after the adage, “If you give a man a fish, you will feed him for a day. Teach him how to fish, and he will feed himself for a lifetime,” TFS believes that children succeed in school when they are provided support in math and reading, develop sound life skills, and when their parents are engaged. TFS supports over 400 students from DC’s most underserved communities in Wards 6, 7, and 8, and engages them in activities.

multi-year program model designed to give them the academic and social tools to succeed in their academic and workplace careers. The FCBA Foundation will use proceeds from the Charity Auction to support its annual scholarship program.

The Charity Auction is one of Washington, DC’s premier “must-attend” events for the communications industry. The event features a live auction hosted by a professional auctioneer, silent auctions, online auction, and raffle drawings. Attendees should expect surprises and new and exciting prizes building on last year’s event (over $90,000 raised), including vacation packages; consumer electronics; tickets to Verizon Center events, concerts, theater shows, and various professional and collegiate sporting events; dinners, lunches; spa packages; and gift certificates from area businesses.

Over the past 25 years, the Charity Auction has raised more than $1.5 million for DC-based organizations, including the DC Children’s Advocacy Center, STEP/I Have a Dream, the Charitable Coalition for Children with Cancer, Kids Enjoy Exercise Now, Fair Chance, Kid Power-DC, Horton’s Kids, Bright Beginnings, Project Wait No Longer, Sitar Arts Center, THC – Housing Families, Transforming Lives, Horizons Greater Washington, and BUILDC Metro DC.

If you have any questions about the Charity Auction, please contact Rachael Bender (202-756-4166, rbender@mobilefuture.org) or Starsha Valentine (202-293-4000, starsha@fcba.org).

If you are interested in donating a prize, use the Auction Donation Form on page 20 of this newsletter. Contributions are tax deductible, to the extent permitted by law. If you are interested in volunteering for the Auction, please send an email to FCBAAuction@gmail.com.
2015-2016 FCBA Membership Renewals

It is time to renew your FCBA membership. Your current membership expired on June 30, 2015 and by renewing, your membership will be good through June 30, 2016.

Please note that the deadline was JULY 31, 2015. You will not be able to register for any future events at the member rate until you renew. You can avoid receiving future email reminders that your membership has expired by renewing today! Also note that all membership notifications and receipts are emailed to FCBA members only – we cannot send them to a member’s assistant or secretary.

Please note that you cannot change your membership type or your contact information online. If you need to make a membership type or contact information change, contact Megan Nazareth at megan@fcba.org BEFORE paying the invoice.

Every member must login to renew.

■ Click the Login link at www.fcba.org or go to https://netforum.avectra.com/eWeb/DynamicPage.aspx?Site=FCBA&WebCode=LoginRequired to log into your account.
■ If you do not know your password you must click on the “Forgot your Password?” link and follow the instructions to generate a new password. The system will then email you a link which you must activate to change the password. Note that the link that is emailed to you is only good for two hours from the time you request it and that it can be only used once. If more than two hours have passed or you already activated it you will have to go back and click on “Forgot your Password?” again.

TO RENEW ONLINE BY CREDIT CARD:

■ Once logged in, go to the My Transactions link. Here you can see a list of all your orders and invoices.
■ Click the View More link under the Invoice Details column on the right side, then when the page opens click on Print This Page on the upper right side to print out the order.
■ You must include the printed order with your check and mail to the address on the order.

TO MAKE A DONATION TO THE FCBA FOUNDATION:

Login to your FCBA account. Click the Online Store link, then enter Foundation into the Search For box. Click the Go button.

OR

Click here to download the Foundation donation form

We have been reminded that some firms/companies prefer to pay for a group of membership renewals at one time with one check. In order to do this, each individual member will need to print out his/her own order and submit it for payment through their internal channels. If we receive one check for multiple renewals, a copy of each individual invoice must be included. If you are paying for multiple renewals by credit card, you must pay each invoice individually online.

To view your information in the FCBA online directory, click on the Individual Directory link in the menu options after you have logged in. Search for your entry information. Note that this directory only displays your name, address, email, and primary phone and fax number. Our database can still house more info, such as alternate phone and cell phone numbers, but it will not be reflected in the online directory.

COMMITTEE SIGN-UP

If you would like to update the committee(s) you are on, download the form at http://www.fcba.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/06/FY16-Committee-Form.doc and send it back to us at FCBA, 1020 19th Street, NW, Suite 325, Washington, DC 20036, Fax: 202-293-4317, Email: megan@fcba.org.

Young Lawyers Committee 5th Annual Trivia Night

Over 75 FCBA members, interns, and friends participated in the YLC’s 5th Annual Trivia Night on July 21, 2015. Questions ranged from pop culture to communications law, with a few impromptu karaoke performances thrown in throughout the night. Congratulations to the winning team with Josh Heit, Marian James, Ilona Lindsey, Farhan Chughtai. Thank you to Erin Griffith and Rachel Sanford for organizing the event and Matt DelNero and Natalie Roisman for emceeing. Looking forward to seeing everyone next year!
Volunteer at Martha’s Table on August 30

On Sunday, August 30 from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m., the FCBA will be preparing and distributing food at the FCBA Foundation’s partner charity, Martha’s Table. The FCBA has been meeting monthly to volunteer at Martha’s Table for many years. Martha’s Table feeds hundreds of homeless adults and children on the streets of Washington daily, through its mobile soup kitchen. Martha’s Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Volunteers are asked to bring food if possible, (e.g., cold cuts, bread, peanut butter, jelly, vegetables and potatoes) because the center often runs out of donated food. Any food donated by volunteers might not be used the same day you volunteer; any food donations will be used at the discretion of Martha’s Table staff.

Please mark your calendars, bring your friends and children (they must be at least nine years old), and participate in this great volunteer effort. If you have questions or need more information, please contact Howard Weiss at h.weiss496@outlook.com.

The FCBA volunteers on the last Sunday of every month, so mark your calendars now!

In order to volunteer, go to http://fcba.marthastable.volunteerhub.com/. Please also notify Howard Weiss, h.weiss496@outlook.com.

Volunteer Cancellation Policy: Our ability to serve the community is based on the hard work of our volunteers and many supporters.

- If you schedule and DO NOT show up for your shift, we CAN NOT serve the community to the best of our ability.
- 24 hour canceling or rescheduling notice is required. In the event that you are unable to come in for your volunteer shift please contact the Volunteer Program Assistant so that Martha’s Table can make other arrangements.
- Because we depend so heavily on volunteers, we need to make sure we recruit RELIABLE volunteers. If you do not provide us with 24 hours’ notice, we will have to reconsider whether we can reschedule for a future volunteer date(s).

Save the Date of Thursday, November 5, 2015 for the 26th Annual FCBA Charity Auction

LOCATION:
The Sphinx Club at the Almas Temple

Get Involved in the FCBA by Volunteering for the Annual Charity Auction

The 26th Annual FCBA Charity Auction is just a few short months away – mark your calendars for Thursday, November 5, 2015. In order to make this one of the best auctions yet, the Auction Committee is looking for enthusiastic and energetic volunteers to help gather prize donations from businesses in and around the Beltway. Prize gathering is a wonderful way to get out in the community and network with other members of the bar, while also helping to guarantee the success of the Charity Auction! To volunteer or get more information, contact FCBAuction@gmail.com.

DC Bar Lawyer Assistance Program

The DC Bar offers a free, confidential program for lawyers and law students who are experiencing problems, such as addiction, mental health symptoms or stress, which interfere with their personal or professional lives. Telephone or face-to-face consultations with licensed counselors are available. The program also provides mentors. Here is a link to a more detailed description of the counseling opportunities that are offered: http://www.dcbar.org/for_lawyers/bar_services/counseling/about.cfm.

This Annual Report summarizes the activities of the Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA) Foundation during the recently completed 2014-2015 fiscal year.

OVERVIEW

The FCBA Foundation, celebrating 24 years, is a charitable organization working in furtherance of the goals set out in its Mission Statement:

■ To support worthwhile communications-related and educational projects, as well as other community service projects, particularly those directed towards children and students, through financial contributions and through volunteer services provided by Foundation members and others.

■ To foster greater public awareness and understanding of the development of communications technology, resources and law.

This year, the Foundation continued its longstanding support of the following programs:

■ Granting four-year college scholarships to Washington, DC high school students expressing an interest in communications-related fields of education, including engineering, technology, law, economics, and journalism;

■ Granting one-time scholarships to current law school students who demonstrate an interest in communications law, technology, and public service;

■ Granting summer work stipends to law school students serving as interns in communications-related public service jobs; and

■ Volunteering to help families in need in the Washington, DC community.

The Foundation’s success is a direct result of the generous financial support of individual FCBA members and their employers, as well as the time, talents, and energy that members bring to the Foundation’s activities.

GOVERNANCE

The Foundation is governed by a Board of Trustees, comprised of individuals elected by the FCBA membership to three-year terms.

This year’s Trustees were: Micah Caldwell, Rick Chessen, Russell Hanser, Mia Hayes (Treasurer), Cathy Hilk, Jennifer Holtz, Sara Leibman, Barry Ohlson (Chair and Assistant Treasurer), Glenn Reynolds (Assistant Secretary), Anita Wallgren (Secretary), Howard Weiss, and Krista Witanowski. Chris Wright served as the FCBA Executive Committee’s liaison to the Foundation Board of Trustees.

As of June 30, 2015, four Trustees will have completed their three-year terms on the Foundation Board: Micah Caldwell, Sara Leibman, Barry Ohlson, and Glenn Reynolds. Four new members have been elected to serve three-year terms as Trustees, effective July 1, 2015: Parul Desai, Kathleen Ham, Kathleen Kirby, and Adam Krinsky.

Many of the Foundation’s activities, including the scholarship program, community service activities, and critical fund-raising events, were jointly led by non-Trustees and Trustees. The Board of Trustees is grateful for the broad participation of FCBA members in Foundation programs, and especially for the leadership roles assumed by members beyond the elected board. That extra measure of time and dedication was invaluable to the success of our programs.

The FCBA’s Executive Director Kerry Loughney, Director of Programs and Special Projects Starsha Valentine, Bookkeeper Wendy Parish, and Member Services Administrator Megan Nazareth also provided invaluable administrative support to the Foundation.

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The college scholarship program is the Foundation’s most significant activity in terms of the funds awarded and the amount of time and effort required to effectively administer the program. The Foundation committed approximately $240,000 to this year’s class in scholarship funds. In addition, each student is receiving a laptop and an FCBA mentor.

Under the leadership of the Foundation’s college scholarship committee (Micah Caldwell, Mia Hayes, and Krista Witanowski), the Foundation reviewed applications from high school students of diverse backgrounds with an interest in communications-related fields, including media, journalism, technology, engineering, or law. Our applicants this year came from nine Washington, DC public or charter high schools: Bell, Eastern, H.D. Woodson, Phelps Architecture, Roosevelt, School Without Walls, Thurgood Marshall, Washington Latin Public Charter School, and Woodrow Wilson. Twenty-one of these high school student applicants were selected for interviews, and 17 of these students from eight schools will receive FCBA Foundation scholarship assistance funded over four years. All 21 of the applicants who attended interviews will be provided new laptop computers.

Software has been graciously donated by Microsoft Corporation. Additionally, all 21 students will be assigned FCBA mentors to help them advance academically and professionally.

Special thanks go to the following companies, law firms, and associations for endowing individual, named scholarships to high school students: The Karen Kincaid Scholarship sponsored by Wiley Rein and Karen’s Friends ($24,000); 21st Century Fox ($20,000); Comcast Corporation ($20,000); The Young Lawyers and Charity Auction Scholarship ($18,000); DIRECTV ($16,000); Google Inc. ($15,000); Verizon ($15,000); Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP ($13,250); AT&T Services, Inc. ($10,000); Cox Enterprises, Inc. ($10,000); Consumer Electronics Association ($10,000); CTIA – The Wireless Association ($10,000); NCTA ($10,000); National Association of Broadcasters ($10,000); and Sidley Austin and the Sidley Austin Foundation ($10,000). Funding for college scholarships that was not provided by the above donors was provided from the Foundation’s general funds.

Thanks also to CTIA – The Wireless Association for making offices available for the applicant interviews, to Mark Van Bergh for taking photographs of the recipients, and to Comcast Corporation for production of the Foundation video.

INTERNSHIP STIPEND PROGRAM

Under the leadership of the Foundation internship committee, (Rick Chessen, Glenn Reynolds, Kristine Fargotstein, and Anita Wallgren), the Foundation reviewed applications from students at law schools across the country. The Foundation awarded stipends ranging from $2,500 to $5,000 to 25 students who have accepted public service positions for the summer, totaling almost $80,000. One outstanding applicant to both the Stipend and Law School Scholarship program received the annual Max Paglin Award, representing an additional stipend of $600; another outstanding student received the David L. Snyder stipend of $5,000.

LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Foundation’s law school scholarship committee (Sara Leibman and Jennifer Holtz) led the efforts to review applications from current law school students at law schools across the country who could demonstrate current need and merit for scholarship awards, as well as an interest in communications law, technology, and public service. We received applications from students at more than 25 schools, and awarded 10 scholarships to law students ranging from $2,000 to $10,000. We also awarded four Amy Zoslov Scholarships ranging from $2,500 to $5,000 from the Amy Zoslov Fund to current law school students at Case Western Reserve School of Law. The Foundation collectively awarded $45,000 in law school scholarships.

Special thanks to Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP for endowing a $10,000 named law school scholarship.

MENTORING PROGRAM

FCBA Foundation Trustees, Catherine Hilke and Anita Wallgren, coordinated the mentoring program this year. FCBA mentors provide advice and encouragement to our college and law school scholarship winners and internship stipend recipients as they transition from high school to college and from academics to careers. They also provide a link back to the Foundation, allowing us to appreciate our students' progress, supported by our members' donations. Thanks to all of our mentors: Dennis Amari, Kara Azocar, Bob Beizer, Philip Berenbroick, Alyssia Bryant, Diane Burnstein, Arturo Chang, Tara Corvo, Drew Delaney, Susan Duarte, Brooke Ericson, Justin Faulb, Stacy Fuller, Ben Golant, Curtis Groves, Patrick Halley, Courtney Hikawa, Diane Holland, Jenn Holtz, Chuck Keller, Marc Korman, Gail Levine, Travis Litman, Jennifer Manner, Debbie Matties, Jackie McCarthy, Genny Morelli, Rob Morse, Brian Murray, Celia Nogales, Matthew Pearl, Jenny Prime, Charla Rath, Alex Reynolds, Kara Romagnino, Michelle Rosenthal, Rob Schill, Mike Senkowski, Justin Shore, Larry Spiwak, Elvis Stumbergs, Aaron Ting, Crystal Tully, Josh Turner, Michael Vasquez, Nancy Victory, Brenda Villanueva, and Amy Worlton.

2014 FCBA FOUNDATION CHARITY AUCTION

The FCBA Foundation Charity Auction is the largest single event under the auspices of the Foundation, and the most administratively intense. The sheer number of volunteers committed annually to the charity auction is a testament to the volunteer spirit of the FCBA and its Foundation. Moreover, it is also a reflection of the generosity of our members, who attend year after year, to help support the Charity Auction beneficiaries. This year's auction was held on November 6, 2014. Co-sponsored by the Foundation and the FCBA Charity Auction Committee, this year's auction raised over $90,000 for the beneficiaries — BUILD Metro DC and the FCBA Foundation.

BUILD Metro DC offers a four-year program that targets high school students in low-income communities who are not on-track academically and are at the highest risk of dropping out of school. Through entrepreneurship-based, experiential learning, BUILD equips these youth for high school, college, and career success. From their freshman through senior year of high school, BUILD guides participating students through every step of starting and running a licensed business, including writing a business plan, working in teams, pitching investors, budgeting, manufacturing, and selling products. “BUILDers” also receive extensive academic training, including classroom tutoring, free SAT and ACT prep courses, college application guidance, and financial aid support. BUILD’s efforts have had a demonstrable impact on the lives of these students, with 100 percent of BUILD Metro DC seniors having graduated high school and enrolled in a college or university.

The FCBA Foundation also applied $18,000 of this year's Charity Auction funds to a college scholarship.
The Charity Auction planning committee members were Rachael Bender, Jeremy Berkowitz, Neil Chilson, Christine Crowe, Carly Didden, Kristine Fargotstein, Ian Forbes, Russ Hanser, Jenn Holtz, Hadass Kogan, Jane Mago, Brian Regan, Alex Reynolds, Kevin Ryan, Davina Sashkin, Lindsey Tonsager (Chair), Joshua Turner, and Caroline Van Wie. The Foundation thanks the following generous sponsors of the 2014 Charity Auction: AT&T Services, Inc., Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP, Cooley LLP, Covington & Burling LLP, CTIA – The Wireless Association, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, DISH Network, Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP, Hogan Lovells US LLP, National Association of Broadcasters, T-Mobile US, Inc., Wiley Rein LLP, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, and Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP.

VOLUNTEERING & COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Foundation relies on volunteers for all of its programs. All of the charitable works described above require not only generous financial giving but also the contribution of substantial amounts of time and the prodigious talents of our FCBA members. In addition to the programs described above, the Foundation historically has had a special relationship with one charitable organization in particular, where FCBA members have come together in the spirit of community service.

The Foundation organizes each month a morning of service at Washington, DC-based Martha’s Table, welcoming FCBA members, families, and friends who prepare and package meals for the homeless. Howard Weiss organized this activity for the Foundation this year.

FCBA FOUNDATION VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Every year, the Foundation has the opportunity to specially acknowledge one of the many FCBA members who volunteer considerable time on the Foundation’s programs and embody the spirit of generosity the Foundation seeks to foster. This year, the Foundation recognized Kristine Fargotstein as Volunteer of the Year for her extraordinary commitment to volunteering and assisting the Foundation, in particular her work on the internship stipend committee. Exemplifying the impact of the Foundation’s programs, Kristine is a former internship stipend winner herself (from 2011).

FUNDRAISING

The Foundation could not provide its services without the annual financial support of FCBA members and the organizations where they work. Under the leadership of Barry Ohlson and Rick Chessen, the Foundation secured significant support for its programs this year, and improved its financial footing in several respects.

Thanks to many individual contributions, the Foundation exceeded the budget goals set by the Board, and increased both the total amount raised and the number of donors. As a result, the Foundation was able to expand its total scholarship and internship awards to just over $364,000. The donors for this fiscal year are listed at the end of this report.

In addition, on December 4, 2014, at the FCBA’s 28th Annual Chairman’s Dinner, honoring FCC Chairman Tom Wheeler, the Foundation raised over $45,000.

On June 2, 2015, the FCBA Foundation hosted its 19th Annual FCBA Foundation Robert E. Lee Memorial Golf Tournament, raising over $5,000 for the Foundation. Special thanks go to the planning committee chaired by Lee Petro and including: Robert Branson, Zenas Choi, Jonathan Cohen, Peter Corea, Joe Cramer, Tom Dombrowsky, Jr., Steve Goodman, Jesse Jachman, Larry Movshin, Joy Ragsdale, Glenn Reynolds, and Larry Walke.

ONLINE APPLICATION PORTAL AND REVISED INVESTMENT POLICY STATEMENT

This year, the Board also tackled a number of significant administrative initiatives including a thorough review of our financial planning policies and procedures through a revision of the Foundation’s Investment Policy Statement. This work was led by the Foundation’s Long-Term Financial Planning Committee (Karen Brinkmann, Mia Hayes, Barry Ohlson, Glenn Reynolds, and Mark Schneider).

In addition, the Foundation planned and executed a complete transition of its scholarship programs to an online application portal. The on-line initiative required a great deal of additional time and attention from almost of the Foundation Trustees and will serve to significantly improve the Foundation’s program management going forward.

CONCLUSION

I would like to thank this year’s Board for their dedication and commitment in support of the programs of the Foundation. I was humbled and inspired by the commitment and dedication of my fellow Trustees in enabling the Foundation to reach and exceed its goals.

Finally, let me close by reminding you that as a member of the FCBA, you are also a member of the FCBA Foundation. The programs we support and the lives we touch would not be possible without your significant donations of time and resources. Many thanks to all of you for your continued commitment to the Foundation so the FCBA can continue to have a positive impact on the community around us.

Thank you!

Barry Ohlson
Chair, 2014-2015

In MEMORIAM

James M. Weitzman (1947-2015)

James M. Weitzman died on June 25, 2015 at his home in Rockville, Maryland. Jim, as he was known by the communications bar and in the radio business, died following a short battle with Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS), also known as Lou Gehrig’s disease.

Jim was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and treasured his Midwestern roots. He earned his undergraduate degree from Columbia University, graduating in 1969. While at Columbia, he was a member of the staff of the college radio station, WKCR, and worked at other radio stations in New York. He then returned to Wisconsin and received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin School of Law in 1972.

Radio had long been Jim’s overarching interest and Jim’s first position after law school was with Heftel Broadcasting as an in-house attorney. In 1975 he moved to Washington and joined the law firm then known as Stambler & Shrinsky. In 1980 Jim became partner in a successor firm, Shrinsky, Weitzman & Eisen. In 1986, that firm merged into Kaye, Scholer, Fierman, Hays & Handler (now known as Kaye Scholer).

Jim’s love of radio led him to become a broadcaster. Along with Edwin Tornberg, a client who became his business partner, Jim formed New World Radio, which acquired Station WUST(AM) in Washington in 1992. His group acquired three more AM stations afterwards. In 2000, the growing demands of the radio business led Jim to decide to resign from Kaye Scholer and the practice of law so as to devote full-time to managing his group’s stations. He continued to manage the stations until his final days.

Jim was an avid, long-time amateur radio operator. He received his first ham radio license when he was 13. A 1983 Washington Post article about ham radio quoted Jim as saying: “I have friends all over the world.” The article relates that Jim had special permission to use restricted frequencies in order to connect with Navy personnel on ships and then patch them into telephone calls with their parents. He did the same when disasters struck throughout the world. Jim, who was fluent in Hebrew, had a deep connection with Israel and religious studies.

It is probably safe to say that Jim knew more about broadcast engineering than most other communications attorneys, and he could hold his own with the consulting engineers he worked with. While in private practice, Jim’s clients benefitted greatly from that knowledge and his dedication to their interests. As a station owner, Jim used that talent to improve the facilities of his own stations and to urge others, including the FCC, to give AM stations the ability to deal with a changed radio marketplace.

He remained an FCBA member and was an associate member of AFCCE.

Jim is survived by his wife Malka and their son Avi.

The FCLJ is Looking for Articles

The Federal Communications Law Journal (FCLJ) editorial team at The George Washington University Law School is now seeking and accepting article submissions for possible publication in the upcoming volume of the FCLJ. Members interested in submitting articles may contact Senior Articles Editor, Ryan Radia (fcjarticles@law.gwu.edu). Articles may also be submitted through ExpressO. 26th Annual Charity Auction – Prize Donations Needed!

The Auction Committee is looking for “priceless” prizes for this year’s 26th Annual FCBA Charity Auction, including (but not limited to) tickets to exclusive industry events, behind-the-scenes tours, historic memorabilia related to key communications laws or events, and other unique prizes that can’t be obtained anywhere else! Please consider whether you have any ideas or connections that would be helpful in procuring such items. “Priceless” prizes are always some of the most popular packages at the event.

The Auction Committee truly appreciates the tremendous support and enthusiasm shown by members of the bar with respect to the Charity Auction. Your generosity in the form of donations, volunteering, and participation in auction bidding is what makes this event so successful year after year. If you would like to make a donation, please use the Auction Donation Form on page 20 of this newsletter. Contributions are tax deductible, to the extent permitted by law.

The 26th Annual Charity Auction is on Thursday, November 5, 2015, at the Sphinx Club at the Almas Temple, 1315 K Street, NW, Washington, DC, from 6:30 – 10:00 p.m. If you have any questions about the Charity Auction, please contact Rachael Bender (202-756-4166, rbender@mobilefuture.org) or Starsha Valentine (202-293-4000, starsha@fcba.org).
