The Federal Communications Bar Association’s New England Chapter and Boston University’s College of Communication Present

Recent Federal Law Changes and Their Impact on the States

Join communications providers and public agency/academic panels for a discussion on the significant recent federal changes and their impact on local competition and regulation, including net neutrality and interconnection, Lifeline, IP transition and copper replacement, public safety, and impact of regulatory and class action enforcement tools.

- Panel One - Industry Perspectives
  - Benjamin Aron, CTIA
  - Jennie Chandra, Windstream
  - Sharon Gillett, Microsoft Corporation
  - Rob Howley, Cox Communications, Inc.
  - Paul Vasington, Verizon
  - Moderator: Lindsay DeRoche, Massachusetts Department of Telecommunications and Cable

- Panel Two - Government and Academic Perspectives
  - Kalun Lee, Federal Communications Commission Enforcement Bureau
  - Professor Daniel Lyons, Boston College
  - Commissioner Karen Charles Peterson, Massachusetts Department of Telecommunications and Cable
  - Timothy Schneider, Maine Office of the Public Advocate
  - Mychii Snape, Massachusetts Attorney General’s Office Consumer Protection Division, invited
  - George Young, Vermont Public Service Board
  - Moderator: Timothy Tardiff, Advanced Analytical Consulting Group

When: October 1, 2015
2:00 - 6:00 PM

Where: Boston University Photonics Center
8 Saint Mary’s Street, 9th Floor
Boston, MA

A networking event will follow the program.

For further information, contact:
Rob Munnelly - 617.589.3822 or rmunnelly@davismalm.com
Greg Kennan - 508.318.5611 or gmk@fhllplaw.com
David Bogan - 860.541.7711 or david.bogan@lockelord.com

RSVP: Register here at Events tab.