

2010 Annual Seminar to be Held at The Homestead April 30 – May 2, 2010 – SAVE THE DATE

Start making plans for the 2010 FCBA Annual Seminar at the historic Homestead Resort, April 30 – May 2, 2010. We promise an exciting and informative weekend, including a thought-provoking seminar program and plenty of outdoor and indoor activities.

The program will include senior government leaders and financial analysts, who will address “Broadband and Beyond” – what follows in the wake of the National Broadband Plan and what “non-broadband” priorities lie ahead in 2011? The seminar kicks off on Friday afternoon with opening keynote remarks and presentations from the government officials. Following the sessions, everyone will enjoy our traditional

Nominations for “Excellence in Government Service” Award Due March 15

In 2008, the Federal Communications Bar Association established an award, to be provided annually, to recognize the contributions of federal government employees to the field of communications. The first recipient of the award was Daniel “Mack” Armstrong, and the second was Evan Kwerel. FCBA President Bob Pettit will appoint a selection committee, and the third recipient will be announced in Spring 2010.

All current federal government employees in communications-related positions (not limited to attorneys or FCBA members) are eligible nominees. The committee will consider an individual’s dedication to excellence and long-term commitment to federal government public service in selecting the individual to be honored. In addition, the committee will view favorably nominees who have mentored more junior government employees. Nominations (1,000 words or less) should include the following information:

- Full name, title, work address and contact information of the nominee.
- Summary of nominee’s outstanding service and/or achievements.
- A narrative explanation of the nominee’s service including the following information: how the nominee’s dedication to excellence and public service is outstanding, significant and “above and beyond the call of duty”; the length of the government service; and any other relevant information, such as a history of mentoring, that would assist the award committee in evaluating the nomination.

Please submit written nominations by email to kerry@fcba.org. Nominations are due no later than March 15, 2010.

PRESIDENT'S Message

DEAR MEMBERS:

We're planning a full slate of events and programs in the coming months. Let me just mention a few highlights.

In anticipation of the release of the National Broadband Plan, we are planning a variety of programs – both related to the release of the plan and the expected implementation initiatives. The issue obviously is of great importance to the membership, and we're working to get substantive and topical programs in place starting in March.

One early take on the Plan is a day-long CLE on February 24 that the FCBA is co-sponsoring with Catholic University entitled "Implementing the National Broadband Plan: Perspectives from Government, Industry, and Consumers." In addition to others, FCC Chief of Staff Edward Lazarus will be speaking. More information on the program is available on page 9.

In addition to the numerous committee and chapter events you'll see in the newsletter, let me highlight a few major programs coming up in the next few weeks:

On March 11, the Privacy and Data Security Committee, in conjunction with the ABA Forum on Communications Law, will present the Fifth Annual ABA/FCBA Privacy & Data Security Symposium covering new laws, guidelines, developments and risks in the coming years.

On March 31, the Mass Media Committee will present a half-day CLE on "Media Regulation and the First Amendment in the 21st Century." That program will also be co-sponsored by the ABA Forum Committee – and the Newseum. (The Mass Media Committee will also be sponsoring a political broadcasting update on the evening of March 16.)

And please mark your calendars for this year's Annual Seminar to be held at The Homestead on April 30 – May 2.

Details for all these events – and many others – can be found in this newsletter.

I'll also shortly be appointing a selection committee for the annual "Excellence in Government Service." Selection criteria for this award, which seeks to recognize the contributions of federal government employees, can be found on the first page of the newsletter, and I ask that you submit nominations to Kerry Loughney by March 15.

Finally, I'm pleased to announce that the 2010 Membership Directory is at the printer and should be in the mail in the coming days. The Membership and Marketing Committee has also revised and improved our membership brochure, and that should be available shortly as well.

Thursday, March 4, 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. Special Access – Historical Perspective and Current Issues

Presented by the Wireline Committee

The Wireline Committee is planning a CLE for Thursday, March 4, 2010, from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. on Special Access – Historical Perspective and Current Issues. There will be two panels. This CLE will be held at Sidley Austin LLP, 1501 K Street, NW, 6th Floor.

To register, go to the FCBA website – Calendar of Events or use the form on page 14.

Agenda

6:00 – 6:05 p.m.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

6:05 – 6:35 p.m.

INTRODUCTION TO SPECIAL ACCESS

Speakers: TBA

The pricing and availability of special access has generated significant controversy, with the Commission most recently inviting comment on the appropriate analytical framework for determining whether its current pricing flexibility and price cap rules are working. This panel will provide a brief introduction to special access and an overview of the Commission's current regulatory approach.

6:35 – 6:45 p.m.

BREAK

6:45 – 8:15 p.m.

THE CURRENT DEBATE: ANALYTICAL FRAMEWORK AND DATA COLLECTION

Speakers: TBA

Advocates on all sides of the special access debate will address the Commission's request for comments on how it should best construct an analytical framework to evaluate the current regulatory regime; specifically, whether the price cap rules are effective and whether the triggers that push an area to pricing flexibility are an accurate proxy for real competition that would constrain special access prices. The Commission has indicated it plans to gather market, cost, and price data, and to rely on data available through its Automated Reporting Management Information System (ARMIS), to conduct its evaluation of the special access market. This panel will discuss current controversies concerning information the FCC should gather and, importantly, whether and how the data gathered should be afforded confidentiality.

Thursday, March 11, 2:00 – 6:00 p.m. The 5th Annual ABA/FCBA Privacy & Data Security Symposium for Communications and Media Companies

Presented by the FCBA Privacy and Data Security Committee and the ABA Forum on Communications Law

Topic: "New Laws, Guidelines, Developments, and Risks in the Age of Obama"

Location: Arnold & Porter LLP, 555 12th Street, NW, Washington, DC

Cost:

$195.00 for ABA Communications Law Forum or FCBA Members

$100.00 for Government & Student Members of Either Organization

$350.00 for Non-Members

Overview: The new decade brings a host of new laws, increased government oversight, and class action lawsuit potential regarding the privacy and security of personally identifiable information for consumers, clients, and employees of communications and media companies.

Three substantive sessions will cover the government's role in privacy and data security and the effectiveness of regulatory enforcement mechanisms and self-regulatory regimes. The sessions will include an overview of U.S. state and federal laws, regulations, and guidelines that govern traditional telemarketing as well as mobile marketing, touching on topics such as targeted mobile advertising, text messages, bounceback messages, and wireless emails. Panelists will also discuss requisite contract clauses, due diligence requirements, and insurance coverage to help reduce liability for relationships with third party service providers, behavioral advertising and social networking websites/services, and e-commerce services. Invited Symposium speakers include representatives from state and federal agencies, including the FCC and FTC, as well as distinguished practitioners in this field.

Please contact Co-Chairs S. Jenell Trigg (STrigg@lrmansenter.com or 202-416-1090) or Maureen K. Ohlhausen (MOhlhausen@wbklaw.com or 202-783-4141) for more information.

Sponsored by Arnold & Porter LLP, Lerman Senter PLLC, Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP, Wiley Rein LLP, and Wilkinson Barker Knauer LLP.

Tuesday, March 16, 6:00 - 8:15 p.m. Political Broadcasting Rules Update 2010

Presented by the Mass Media Practice Committee

The Mass Media Committee is planning a CLE for Tuesday, March 16, 2010, from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. on Political Broadcasting Rules Update. The 2010 mid-term elections are shaping up to have competitive races across the country. The Supreme Court's Citizens United decision will allow corporations to run their own campaign ads. This CLE program will discuss the impact of the Supreme Court's decision, review the FCC's political broadcasting rules, consider new questions that will face stations, and look at how political time buyers view the political broadcast time process. Speakers will include Jack Goodman, WilmerHale; Robert Baker, FCC; Ann Bobeck, NAB; David Oxenford, Davis Wright Tremaine; Kyle Roberts, Smart Media Group; and others. This CLE will be held at Wiley Rein LLP, 1776 K Street, NW.

To register, go to the FCBA website – Calendar of Events or use the form on page 14.

ANNUAL SEMINAR

Saturday morning will feature additional presentations and closing keynote remarks from invited government speakers. Following the program Saturday afternoon will be the golf and tennis tournaments along with other special planned activities. On Saturday evening, our younger seminar participants will enjoy their own banquet and special activities while the adults enjoy their closing dinner followed by an evening of dancing and conversation. Sunday morning enjoy The Homestead's famous weekend brunch.

The Homestead is not only a terrific conference facility, but is also a premier resort destination and ideal for a weekend getaway. Founded 10 years before the American Revolution, it is located on 3,000 acres in the heart of the Allegheny Mountains in Hot Springs, Virginia. Though only 210 miles from Washington, DC, the Homestead's bucolic setting will make you feel as though you have stepped back to a very different time and place.

Play golf or tennis or enjoy one of the other planned activities with your colleagues. Take the time to enjoy your favorite activities and try your hand at a few new ones. You choose from dozens of activities to please a variety of tastes - from indoor pursuits such as bowling, billiards and movies, to outdoor adventures including horseback riding, mountain biking, shooting and fly fishing.

Annual Seminar Scholarships Available for Government Employees and Academics

To promote the goal of broad attendance and boost participation from public sector employees and academics, the FCBA is again offering Annual Seminar scholarships. Last year, the scholarship program was fully subscribed. An increase in attendance by the public sector and academics provides a unique networking opportunity and benefits all Annual Seminar attendees. The scholarship covers the registration fee (approximately $200), which includes meals, entertainment, and attendance at the seminar. Scholarship recipients will be responsible for the other costs of attending the Seminar, including travel and lodging expenses. A limited number of scholarships will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. We urge applicants to apply early. The scholarship application can be found on page 16 of this month's newsletter.

FCBA ANNUAL SEMINAR SCHOLARSHIPS

Information and Application Instructions:

1. Scholarships are available to all federal government employees and full-time professors.
2. To apply, please fax or email a completed registration form along with a copy of your ID card from your federal government agency or academic institution.
3. Applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. The cut-off date for applications is Wednesday, March 31, 2010.
4. Scholarships may be applied only toward the registration fee for the 2010 FCBA Annual Seminar. (Individuals receiving scholarships are responsible for the other costs of attending a seminar, including travel and lodging expenses).

Please fax or email the application found on page 16 to:

Interested in Hosting an FCBA event?

The FCBA greatly appreciates the support of our members' firms and companies who provide space for our brown bag lunches, committee meetings, and CLE Seminars throughout the year. We are, however, always looking for new locations that can host FCBA events. We will be experimenting with some new presentation technology in future CLE seminars, which require more technical support than we have needed in the past.

In general terms, we need conference rooms that can seat at least 30 (more if possible) people at tables for brown bag lunches and committee meetings and conference rooms that can seat a minimum of 60 for CLE seminars. Firms and companies hosting brown bag lunches provide beverages and desserts; firms and companies hosting CLE seminars provide beverages and snacks. CLE seminars are generally held from 6:00 – 8:30 p.m. Additionally, for CLE seminars we need facilities that can provide technology support for microphones for as many as six speakers on a panel, the ability to tie the house sound system into a teleconference bridge, video projection capabilities for PowerPoint presentations, and access to the internet for presentations by speakers. If your firm or company has the needed conference room facilities and capabilities and would be willing to host future FCBA activities, please email Stan Zenor, stan@fcba.org, or Kerry Loughney, kerry@fcba.org.

International Telecommunications Committee Luncheon on EU Electronic Communications Regulatory Developments

On Thursday, March 18, 2010 at 12:00 noon, the FCBA International Telecom Practice Committee will be sponsoring a presentation on recent revisions to the European Union's electronic communications regulatory framework, featuring Gerry Oberst and Winston Maxwell, partners in the Brussels and Paris offices of Hogan & Hartson LLP. In their presentations, Gerry and Winston will discuss recent changes affecting spectrum regulation, network neutrality, and data breach notification, as well as the creation of a new European regulatory body. Mindel De La Torre, Chief of the FCC's International Bureau, will also participate in event as a discussant. The event will be held in the Hogan & Hartson LLP, Fulbright Center, 13th Floor West, 555 Thirteenth Street, NW. Lunch will be provided and the event is free. Please RSVP to the FCBA website – Calendar of Events.

National Moot Court Competition Committee

The FCBA National Telecommunications Moot Court Competition Committee is pleased to announce that the 16th Annual National Telecommunications Moot Court Competition is taking place at the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law on February 5 and 6, 2010. Please join us for the final round at 4:00 p.m. on February 6, 2010 in the Slowinski Moot Court Room. A reception will follow at approximately 5:30 p.m.

Originally established by the Institute for Communications Law Studies and the FCBA, the National Telecommunications Moot Court Competition provides students the opportunity to argue before private and government practitioners in the communications field. This year's problem addresses difficult jurisdictional and statutory questions that may arise if policymakers seek to regulate how broadband providers design their service offerings.

This year's competition will feature a select group of elite schools, with teams hailing from, among other schools, the University of Wisconsin, Syracuse University, and the University of Colorado. In 2009, a Catholic University team won the competition.

FCBA members are invited to serve as judges for oral arguments occurring on February 5 and 6. Those interested in participating should contact Competition Vice Chancellor Rachael Bender at 28brownr@cardinalmail.cua.edu.

Wednesday, February 24 8:30 a.m. – 5:15 p.m. Catholic University, Columbus School of Law's 2010 Spring Symposium

"Implementing the National Broadband Plan: Perspectives from Government, Industry, and Consumers"

Sponsored by: The Institute for Communications Law Studies and CommLaw Conspectus: Journal of Communications Law & Policy at the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in association with the FCBA

Featuring a debate on the Preserving the Open Internet NPRM, moderated by Bryan Tramont, Managing Partner, Wilkinson Barker Knauer

The all-day symposium will feature four panel discussions:

PANEL I: WHAT SHOULD, AND WHAT WILL, BE IN THE BROADBAND PLAN?

Speakers will discuss, from the perspective of their industries, what should be in the National Broadband Plan, and what they forecast to be in the Broadband Plan.

PANEL II: INTERNATIONAL BROADBAND: HOW OTHERS CONNECT

Speakers will discuss how other countries have instituted national broadband plans, lessons learned from those plans, and what may work in the U.S. marketplace.

PANEL III: CONTENT REGULATION ON THE SECOND AND THIRD SCREENS

Speakers will discuss the possibility, need, and wisdom of regulating media content on the second (computer) and third (mobile device) screens, including whether the FCC has the statutory authority to do so.

PANEL IV: ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE NATIONAL BROADBAND PLAN

Speakers will discuss how different government agencies will have roles in implementing the National Broadband Plan, including their agencies' efforts to date in increasing broadband deployment and adoption.

The all-day symposium is free for government/academics/students, and costs $75.00 for private sector members. Application for Virginia CLE credits pending.

For more information, including the panel topics, go to <http://commlaw.cua.edu/symposia/symposia-index.cfm>.

Sunday, April 11, 2010 FCBA/ABA/NAB Co-Sponsor Las Vegas Seminar

Representing Your Local Broadcaster The Scramble for Content and Delivery: It's "Up in the Air"

Over the past several years, the annual Las Vegas seminar on Representing Your Local Broadcaster has become the preeminent broadcast law programs in the country. The reason is a consistent focus on the practical, daily issues facing stations and their lawyers.

For our 29th year, we will look at the major issues facing our industry in the era of sustained economic challenges, new leadership, a quadrennial ownership review, a National Broadband Plan and rapid technological advances. This is a must-attend event for any broadcast regulatory attorney.

Sessions will tackle the critical issues in a fast-paced, intense program, supplemented with extremely valuable background material. Featured this year – Advertising and Content Regulation in the New Era, Legislative and Regulatory Gymnastics to Preserve Ownership and Satellite Carriage, Guiding Journalists Through the New Covert Perils and Navigating the World of New Media and Broadband. And be sure to join us for a lively and timely lunch-time discussion of "It's Complicated" – the Spectrum Debate.

The day promises to be spirited, practical, penetrating and relevant — the makings of an excellent seminar program.

Discounted seminar registration is available to all FCBA, ABA and NAB members. Registration will be available shortly and can be completed online at: <http://www.abanet.org/forums/communication/home.html>.

NEW LOCATION – HOTEL INFO: Housing fills quickly for this event, which will be held on Sunday, April 11, at the Encore Hotel, 3121 Las Vegas Blvd. South, Las Vegas, NV 89109. NAB has arranged for a limited number of rooms at the Encore for ABA Forum program attendees. For reservations at the discounted NAB Show rate, you must make your reservations through NAB's housing office Expovision, at 1-888-622-8830 or 703-205-9114. You may also make your reservations online at <http://event.expobook.com/?eventid=161>.

NOTE: Reservations must be made by March 5, 2010. AVAILABILITY OF RESERVATIONS FOR SATURDAY ARRIVAL IS EXTREMELY LIMITED. Please be sure to identify yourself as attending the ABA Forum program.

Also, all attendees of the Seminar are automatically registered for a complimentary Exhibits Only pass to the NAB Show.

Video Programming and Distribution Committee

The Video Programming and Distribution Committee (formerly the Cable Practice Committee) started the Fall of 2009 with a series of joint events co-sponsored with the Mass Media Committee. In October, the two committees hosted Bill Lake, Chief of the Media Bureau, for a thoughtful brown bag lunch discussion of pending cable and broadcast issues. In November, the Legal Advisors for media issues from each Commissioner's office joined us to speak about the changing media landscape, the role of video in the upcoming national broadband plan report, and various regulatory matters pending before the Commission. In December, the committees co-sponsored a "Views from the 4th Estate" brown bag lunch featuring insights from journalists covering the media industry.

For Spring 2010, the Committee is planning a CLE on emerging issues in video, focusing on evolving business models for video distribution and the implications for programmers, distributors, consumer electronics manufacturers, and consumers. The Committee is also planning a "Views from Wall Street" brown bag lunch, featuring the perspectives of financial analysts on the video industries. The Committee's events are scheduled to take place on the fourth Monday of the month. Check the FCBA newsletter and website for announcements of future events. Please feel free to contact any of the co-chairs, Chris Fedeli (chrisfedeli@dwt.com), Brad Gillen (Brad.Gillen@fcc.gov), Rosemary Harold (Rosemary.Harold@fcc.gov), or Steven Morris (SMorris@NCTA.com) for additional information or to propose a topic.

New York Chapter

The New York Chapter of the FCBA has recently begun efforts to revitalize programs and membership for this chapter. FCBA leadership has enlisted two new co-chairs for the chapter — Michele K. Thomas, Senior Corporate Counsel for T-Mobile, and Jennifer L. Kostyu, an associate at Morrison Foerster LLP. Both Michele and Jennifer are based in the New York metropolitan area and bring valuable state and federal telecommunications legal/regulatory practice experience to the Chapter.

Michele and Jennifer have announced that they are in the process of establishing a New York Chapter Steering Committee to aid in the chapter's efforts for 2010 and beyond. Members of the Steering Committee will include other area practitioners, former and current regulators, government representatives, representatives from various segments of the industry, and academia. The Steering Committee will begin initial planning in the coming weeks for two chapter programs in 2010, one which will be located in Upstate New York and the other in Manhattan.

Former and current members, as well as anyone interested in being a new member of the New York Chapter of the FCBA, should contact either Michele Thomas at Michele.Thomas@T-Mobile.com or Jennifer Kostyu at Jkostyu@Mofo.com to advise of your interest in receiving information about programs or activities. Also, please be sure to check the FCBA website for updates.

The 4th Annual ABA/FCBA Privacy & Data Security for Communications and Media Companies CLE – March 19, 2009 – DVD Now Available

IF YOU MISSED THIS 4-HOUR SEMINAR, BUY IT NOW!

This seminar focuses on new state and federal laws, guidelines, developments, and risks that will impact privacy and data security for media and communications companies in 2009 and beyond under the new Obama Administration. It covered issues related to mobile marketing, behavioral advertising, social networking, the CAN-SPAM Act, fax advertising, security breach notification laws, state encryption and security practices and policies for protecting SSNs and credit card data, and much more. This year a new session discussed contracting with third parties (including advertisers and your own affiliates), requirements for due diligence for service providers, mergers and acquisitions, and an overview of insurance policies and minimum coverage requirements for privacy and data security liability. It also provides implementation specifics for the FTC's new Red Flag Rules that apply to any entity that defers payment of services or goods; the FTC's enforcement effective date is May 1, 2009. A wealth of written materials is also included on the DVD.

FCBA Foundation Now Accepting Applications for Funding of Unpaid Legal Internships

For the seventeenth consecutive year, the Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA) Foundation will award stipends to law students from its Chairman Robert E. Lee Scholarship and Internship Fund. In 2010, the Foundation will award at least five $5,000 stipends to law students employed as unpaid summer interns in positions with the FCC and other government agencies or entities with a connection to the communications industry (i.e., broadcasting, cable television, telephony, satellite, wireless, and information technology).

In addition, the Foundation will select one outstanding intern among those chosen to receive an additional stipend of $600 for the summer—the “Max Paglin Award.” Mr. Paglin was the former General Counsel and Executive Director of the FCC, and the founder of the Golden Jubilee Commission on Telecommunications, which compiled a definitive legislative history of the Communications Act.

Applicants will be selected on the basis of: (1) a demonstrated interest in the communications field, (2) having secured or having pending, an unpaid summer position (internship) for at least 8 weeks in communications with a government agency or entities with a connection to the communications industry, (3) dependence on financial assistance in order to accept the unpaid internship in a government agency or entity involved in communications; and, (4) community activities. To the extent a recipient receives unanticipated funding for the unpaid internship, the FCBA Foundation’s general policy is to reduce its scholarship awards by any amount that a recipient’s total funding (including all sources) for the internship would otherwise exceed $7,000.

Applications for a Lee Fund scholarship should be submitted to Kerry Loughney, FCBA Foundation, 1020 19th Street, N.W., Suite 325, Washington, D.C. 20036, by Friday, March 19, 2010. Applicants may be asked to interview with members of the Foundation Board; interviews may be conducted by telephone. Winners will be notified by Friday, April 16, 2010.

Please encourage eligible applicants to apply. The application for a Lee Fund scholarship is posted in the Foundation section of the FCBA Website - http://www.fcba.org/foundation/internship_stipends.shtml.

Combined Federal Campaign (CFC)

The FCBA Foundation is proud to participate in this year’s Combined Federal Campaign for the National Capital Area. Federal employees in the nation’s capital can now make regular tax-deductible contributions to the FCBA Foundation through the Combined Federal Campaign, providing funds to support and help expand the Foundation’s vital charitable work.

To make a pledge to the FCBA Foundation, donors should use the FCBA Foundation’s CFC code number (#31092) on their pledge cards. Pledge cards can be obtained from your agency’s CFC campaign staff. Pledge cards can also be completed and printed out online through the CFC website at www.cfcnca.org. On the website, click “Giving” and “About CFC-e” for more information.

Your donations will support the valuable work performed by the FCBA Foundation. Last year, the Foundation’s work included:

- Awarding 11 college scholarships to D.C. public high school students and stipends to eight law school students for unpaid legal communications-related summer internships totaling over $180,000

- Sponsoring numerous volunteer events for FCBA members, including making meals for the homeless at Martha’s Table and delivering meals to the homeless through McKenna’s Wagon each month
- Co-Sponsoring the 2009 Charity Auction for Bright Beginnings and the FCBA Foundation which raised over $86,500

Please contact Stacy Fuller, FCBA Foundation Chair, (sfuller@DIRECTV.com), if you have any questions.

Volunteer Outreach for Martha’s Table & McKenna’s Wagon February 28

Many of us are stretched for time these days, but why not consider spending a few hours on a Sunday to help the FCBA Foundation’s partner charities? For several years now, the FCBA has been providing volunteers to Martha’s Table and McKenna’s Wagon. These organizations rely on the good work of our members each month, so grab a friend, colleague or family member and join your fellow FCBA volunteers!

Martha’s Table feeds hundreds of hungry, homeless adults and children on the streets of Washington daily, through its mobile soup kitchen. Children and friends are also welcome. We will begin at 10:00 a.m. and work until 1:00 p.m. Martha’s Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Volunteers are asked to bring food if possible, (e.g., cold cuts, bread, peanut butter, jelly, vegetables and potatoes) because the center often runs out of donated food.

The FCBA volunteers on the last Sunday of every month, so mark your calendars now. For more information, contact Howard Weiss at 703-812-0471 — weiss@fhhlaw.com.

McKenna's Wagon is a mobile soup and sandwich wagon that goes "on location" to deliver food to the needy. For those who have volunteered, it has been a wonderful experience and a great way to help the needy in the D.C. community. This is an especially good experience for the teens and pre-teens among us who do not have a full appreciation of the many privileges they enjoy. Community service credits are also available.

The Wagon is a white van that is loaded up with sandwiches, snacks and soup.

We meet at Martha's Table at 4:45 p.m. in comfortable clothes and shoes. Martha's Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available.

Upon arrival we get assignments (some of us will distribute snacks and sandwiches, others will serve soup), and put on aprons before we depart in the van to 5th and New York Ave., NW (near the new Convention Center). We are driven by one of our experienced volunteers and the trip to distribution location takes about 10-15 minutes.

We serve about 30-75 people per visit including a few mothers who come for food for their families. The area is well patrolled by police. The food distribution is conducted in an efficient, calm and orderly fashion and many of the people we serve are quite appreciative of our efforts. Once we serve all of the food, we do a clean up of the immediate area. Total time for the distribution takes about one hour and we usually return to Martha's Table by or before 6:30 p.m.

We would love to have you join us on one of our upcoming food runs which are always on the 4th Sunday of the month. If you are able to volunteer on February 28, March 28, April 25, or May 23, please contact Joanna Georgatsos at georgatsos@lojlaw.com or Tom Van Wazer at tvanwazer@sidley.com.

In MEMORIAM

Ed Czarra 1928 – 2009

Edgar Frank Czarra, Jr., for many years a leading member of the broadcast bar and a longtime member of the FCBA, died November 30th at 81 in the Frederick, Maryland, Memorial Hospital. He was buried in a private ceremony at Boonsboro, Maryland, Cemetery on December 4, 2009.

Czarra practiced law with Covington & Burling from 1952 until his retirement in 1997. He was perhaps best-known among FCBA members for his unrelenting protection of free, over-the-air service by VHF and UHF television stations on behalf of the Association for Maximum Service Television (MST).

He was involved on behalf of the National Association of Broadcasters in what the late Chief Judge Bazelon of the D.C. Circuit once called the "legal tale" of John Banzhaf's successful attempt to impose fairness doctrine requirements on stations broadcasting ads for smoking tobacco.

As a practicing lawyer Czarra was noted for the far-sightedness of his legal strategies. He provided guidance to public television after the Carnegie Commission Report and the passage of the Public Broadcasting Act of 1967. He once filed for reconsideration of an FCC decision he'd won in order to enhance the likelihood of successfully defending it on appeal on a ground other than that on which the Commission had originally placed it.

Czarra was born in 1928 in eastern Pennsylvania, and he graduated from McKinley High School in Washington, D.C. He matriculated at Yale College, where he was among a small group of 17-year-old entering students pictured in Life magazine. He received his B.S. degree in 1949 and an LL.B. degree from Yale Law School in 1952. As an editor of the Yale Law Journal, his 1952 note addressed "Sunday Statutes in a Modern Community." Following law school he enlisted in the U.S. Navy, rising to Lieutenant J.G. before leaving the service in 1961.

For many years Czarra and his wife Dorie maintained a working farm near Adamstown in western Maryland, to which he devoted attention before and after his retirement. He became quite knowledgeable about bloodlines of cattle and served as the president of the Maryland Polled Hereford Association from 1971 through 1973. He later developed Little Antietam Farm in Rohrsersville, MD.

CHARITY AUCTION THANK YOU Reception

On January 20, the 2009 Charity Auction Committee held a thank you reception to thank all of the auction volunteers and present the check to this year's beneficiary, Bright Beginnings. The grand total came close to $87,000! $75,000 was raised for Bright Beginnings and close to $12,000 for the FCBA Foundation.
