7th Annual FCBA Foundation Golf Tournament on June 16

Its time to mark your calendars for the 7th Annual FCBA Foundation's Honorable Robert E. Lee Memorial Golf Tournament on Monday, June 16, 2003 (the day after Father's Day). The group will return to Bull Run Country Club in Haymarket, Virginia. Last year the event was oversubscribed, so be alert when registration opens. This will be the Foundation's second visit to the Bull Run track, so players are expected to invent new excuses: "I never played there before" no longer works. And, regardless of your finish, it is an enjoyable day for a good cause - raising over $25,000 for the FCBA Foundation's Scholarship Fund, which provides college funds for deserving District of Columbia high school graduates.

CLE Seminar on FCC Triennial Review Order Coming Soon!

A CLE seminar focusing on the much-anticipated FCC triennial review order is being planned by the FCBA's State and Local Practice Committee. This will be a follow-up to the highly informative and well-attended triennial review CLE that was held in November 2002. Industry experts and members of regulatory bodies, among several others, will be participating. Additional information will be released shortly. This will be available by teleconference for members out of the immediate DC area. If you have any questions, please contact Erick Soriano (202-955-9866, esoriano@kellydrye.com), J.G. Harrington, (202-776-2818, jharrington@dlalaw.com), or Brad Ramsay (202-898-2207, jramsay@naruc.org).

FCC Chairman Michael K. Powell

FCBA Luncheon with FCC Chairman Powell on June 25

The FCBA will be holding a luncheon in conjunction with its annual meeting on Wednesday, June 25, 2003. FCC Chairman, Michael K. Powell will be the keynote speaker. There will be a reception at Noon, and from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. there will be an announcement of the FCBA election results, the President's passing of the gavel, a presentation of awards, and lunch, followed by Chairman Powell's remarks.

The luncheon will be held at the J.W. Marriott Hotel's main ballroom, 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW. For registration information and prices, see page 14.

Mr. Powell was sworn in as a member of the Commission on November 3,

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

DEAR MEMBERS:

As my term as FCBA President draws to a close, I find myself reflecting on the events of the past year. Perhaps more than any other, our industry has experienced seismic shifts in this embattled economy. And still, the FCBA continues to do good work. We raised more than $50,000 for a charitable cause, increased overall membership numbers, and saw attendance up at virtually every major event.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you, the Association's members, for continuing to make this a special organization. I also want to recognize a few individuals and key groups. I had the good fortune of working side-by-side with Margaret Tobey last year and Sandy Wilson this year. They're both accomplished attorneys, outstanding FCBA leaders and good friends. My fellow officers, Executive Committee members and Chapter Co-Chairs worked tirelessly all year to plan numerous substantive programs and to help shape the policies of our Association.

We have nearly 110 committee co-chairs; this group of volunteers put together hundreds of FCBA activities during the last 12 months. From CLE dynamos Laura Phillips, Lauren Van Wazer and Mark Grannis to the energetic Young Lawyers Committee co-chairs Yaron Dori and Ryan Wallach, your co-chairs ensured that I accomplished two of my major goals—increasing both the number of programs and the level of participation in each of those events.

Of course none of this would have happened without the hard work and dedication of the FCBA staff: Stan Zenor, Heidi Kurtz and Wendy Parish. Their efforts week in and week out are critical to the Association's success. I appreciate their continuing professionalism, expertise and loyalty during my tenure.

I also want to thank my friends and colleagues at Wiley Rein & Fielding. I am fortunate to work with talented professionals, many of whom happen to be active FCBA members. I would like to give special thanks to Dick Wiley for his support and mentorship over the years and especially for his guidance as I balanced leadership of the FCBA with the demands of practicing law.

Finally, I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as your President. This has been an exceptionally rewarding year for me. I look forward to continuing to serve the FCBA and to working with many of you in different capacities.

FCBA Membership Renewal

The dues invoices for the FCBA's 2004 fiscal year (July 1, 2003 - June 30, 2004) are being mailed soon. Please note that the deadline is JULY 30, 2003. Remember to renew your membership as soon as possible, and save the Association the expense of mailing reminder notices. A donation to the FCBA Foundation while renewing your membership, is always appreciated.

Annual Seminar a Success

Three hundred FCBA members, family members, and guests did not let rain dampen their enthusiasm during the 2003 Annual Seminar at The Homestead from May 2nd through 5th. In spite of the damp, cool weather, everyone enjoyed the seminar speakers, various planned recreational activities, and the hospitality of the Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia.

Jeffrey Eisenach, Executive Vice Chairman of CapAnalysis, opened the seminar with a tutorial session on computer, software, communications and content convergence. Jeff explained why there still may be hope for your lack-luster technology investments. The presentation was followed an interview of Bob Johnson, Chairman and CEO of Black Entertainment Television, by Mike Senkowski, co-chair of the Annual Seminar Planning Committee and a partner at Wiley Rein & Fielding. Bob talked about his experiences in creating and building BET and the outlook for his new NBA franchise in Charlotte.

After the Friday Family Cookout, FCBA members enjoyed a variety of activities including bowling, a magic show for kids and adults alike, bingo, and games of darts in the sports bar. Special thanks to SBC for sponsoring the magician, who entertained the younger set during the dinner hour.

On Saturday, Marsha MacBride, Chief of Staff in the Office of the Chairman and Bryan Tramont, Senior Legal Advisor to the Chairman, shared a view from the Chairman's office to kick off the morning. Marsha and Bryan gave a comprehensive overview of the pressing issues facing the FCC, and offered some valuable perspective on how (and when) action on these issues may be taken. Later, Congressmen Rick Boucher and Bob Goodlatte discussed convergence challenges and congressional priorities for the next session of Congress and answered questions from the audience in a lively give and take forum moderated by FCBA President-Elect, Sandy Wilson.

FCC Commissioners Abernathy, Martin, and Adelstein closed the Saturday morning session with a lively open dialog moderated by Peter Shields. The Commissioners drew questions submitted anonymously by seminar participants in advance, which they could choose to answer or assign to another Commission after the question was revealed to the audience. The Commissioners were also allotted one "lifeline" (in the form of a legal advisor) for those questions they chose not to answer. This format allowed the Commissioners to demonstrate both their political savvy and their sense of humor.

Rain on Saturday afternoon forced the cancellation of the tennis tournament. Thanks to Cingular Wireless for almost sponsoring the tournament. The weather notwithstanding, the intrepid FCBA golfers took to the fairways for their annual tournament. Special thanks to Verizon for once again sponsoring the tournament. Even though Nancy Victory was forced to withdraw due to injury, her team of Mike Senkowski, Ace Werner and Laura Holloway captured the win and several coveted prizes provided by Verizon. Other seminar attendees spend the afternoon riding mountain bikes, hiking, swimming in The Homestead's indoor pool, shooting skeet, or enjoying a spa treatment.

On Saturday evening, seminar participants gathered for an early reception and dinner. Following dinner, the dance floor was open to seminar participants, guests, and children. Some of the youngest participants joined their parents on the dance floor and demonstrated their high level of energy, while several teenagers watched their parents from the back of the room amazed (or was it dismayed?) at the moves on the dance floor.

On Sunday morning, seminar participants enjoyed the Homestead's abundant Southern breakfast buffet in the main dining room to close out the seminar.

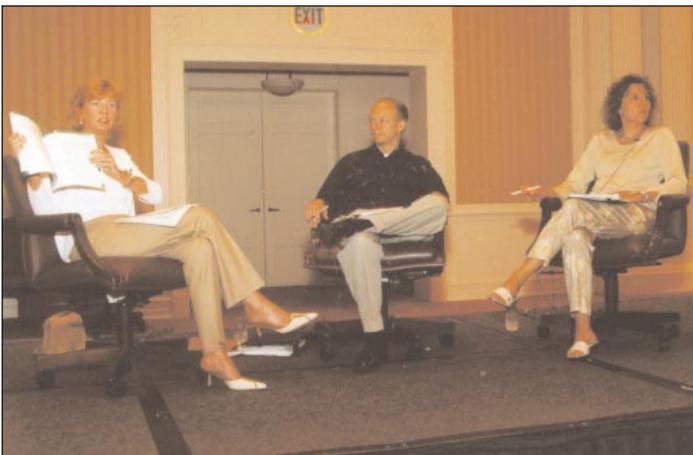

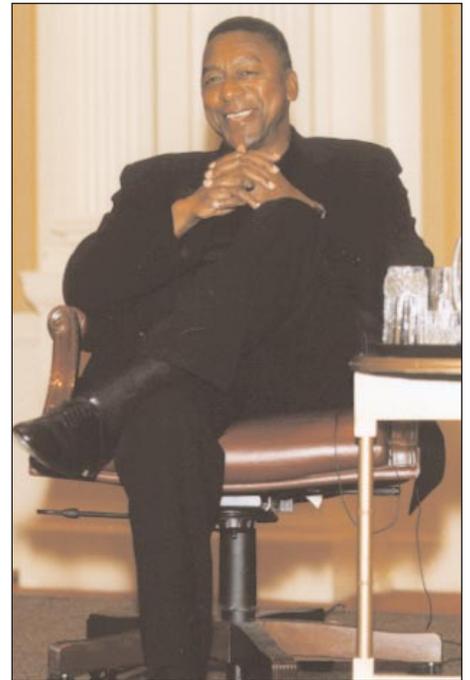

The FCBA extends special thanks to our seminar sponsors who are recognized and highlighted in this newsletter.

Special thanks to the Annual Seminar Committee Co-Chairs Celia Nogales, Mike Senkowski, and Kathy Zachem and to all the committee members who assisted in planning the 2003 Annual Seminar.

1997. He was designated Chairman by President Bush on January 22, 2001.

Mr. Powell, a Republican, was nominated by President William J. Clinton on July 31, 1997, and confirmed by the United States Senate on October 28, 1997.

In addition to his normal duties, Mr. Powell serves as the FCC's Defense Chairman and is responsible for overseeing all National Security Emergency Preparedness functions for the Commission. He also served as the FCC representative to the President's Council on Year 2000 Conversion which was established by President Clinton on February 4, 1998, to address the Year 2000 computer problem.

Mr. Powell previously served as the Chief of Staff of the Antitrust Division in the Department of Justice. In that capacity, he advised the Assistant Attorney General on substantive antitrust matters, including policy development, criminal and civil investigations and mergers. Prior to joining the Antitrust Division, Mr. Powell was an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of the law firm of O'Melveny & Myers LLP, where he focused on litigation and regulatory matters involving telecommunications, antitrust and employment law. Mr. Powell graduated from the Georgetown University Law Center following which he served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Harry T. Edwards, Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

The FCBA is honored to have the Chairman speak before our members again, and we hope you will plan on joining us on the 25th.

Diversity Committee Holds Congressional Practice Brown Bag

On Friday, May 16, 2003, the FCBA's Diversity Committee hosted a Congressional Practice brown bag luncheon featuring Bill Bailey, senior counsel to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science & Transportation; Jessica Wallace, majority counsel to the House Committee on Energy and Commerce; and Antoinette Cook Bush, Executive Vice President of Northpoint Technology, Ltd. The event was attended by approximately 20 FCBA members, including three student members. The event focused on the practice of communications law on the Hill and was held in a committee room in the Russell Senate Office Building. For further information about the Diversity Committee, you may contact Committee co-chairs Harry Wingo at (202) 418-1783 (hwingo@fcc.gov), Edgar Class III at (202) 639-6774 (eclass@velaw.com) or Monica Desai at (202) 418- 7419 (mdesai@fcc.gov).

New England Chapter

The New England Chapter of the FCBA has two member events in more final states:

Due to scheduling conflicts, the first event, a brown-bag lunch with the Commissioners and certain key staff of the Rhode Island Public Utility Commission, and the Connecticut Department of Public Utility Control looks like it will take place during the first week of June - a specific date will be made available to FCBA members once confirmed. FCBA members (and potential members) will be able to meet the staff and Commissioners in an intimate and informal setting, and staff and Commissioners will present information on a topic or two of their choice and likely to help those who may come before the commissions. As both Commissions have one new Commissioner each, it might be a good chance to meet them. The luncheon will be held in Providence, Rhode Island at the firm of Adler, Pollock, and Sheehan, which has graciously agreed to host. Snacks and beverages will be made available, but it is generally BYOL. If FCBA members are interested in attending, please contact Doug Denny-Brown at the email at the end of this article.

The second event, currently planned to take place one afternoon during the week of June 23rd, is a two-panel discussion reviewing the FCC's Triennial Order (hopefully released in its entirety sometime before) and implementation issues, involving FCC and PUC staff, and others, and a second panel will discuss the regulation and emergence of Voice Over Internet Protocol, including the implementation of access charges, CALEA compliance, and other issues. Again, key FCC and PUC staff and other industry players are being approached to attend. Already, several noteworthy speakers from PUCs and IXCs have confirmed, others look likely, and event interest in the Northeast legal/regulatory community appears high. The host site will be in Boston, with the specific date and location to be determined and made available to FCBA members (and those interested in being members) once

Auction Committee Accepting Applications from Local Charities

The 14th Annual Charity Auction, sponsored by the Charity Auction Committee, comprised of members of the Young Lawyers Committee and the FCBA Foundation Board of Trustees, will be held on Thursday, November 20, 2003, but it is not too soon to recommend a charity as the recipient of the Auction's proceeds. The 2002 Auction raised $50,000 for College Bound.

In order to be considered, the charity must meet the following criteria:

1. The charity fulfills the "core" needs of children.
2. The charity does not receive the majority of its funding from the government.
3. The charity does not discriminate.
4. The charity primarily serves those in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area.
5. Our donation will make a difference in the charity's budget - at least more than 1% but not more than 25%.
6. The charity has not been the recipient of the FCBA Auction in 2001 or 2002.

To be considered, the charity must respond in writing describing how the charity meets the above-referenced criteria and should include any other relevant information on the charity. Please send your response to Heidi Kurtz, FCBA Foundation, 1020 19th Street, NW, Suite 325, Washington, D.C. 20036, no later than Friday, June 13, 2003.

Doug has received help and offers of help in scheduling these events from FCBA members of the Northeast Chapter, and it has been sincerely appreciated. If any additional members would like to help or be involved, please email Doug Denny-Brown at Dougdb@rnktel.com.

Northern California Chapter to Host Reception During the August ABA Convention in San Francisco

The Northern California Chapter is in the midst of planning a reception in conjunction with the upcoming ABA Convention being held August 7-13 in San Francisco. More details will be coming soon!

Vint Cerf to Speak at an Online Communications Committee Brown Bag on June 12

The Online Communications Committee is pleased to announce that Vinton Cerf, widely known as one of the “Fathers of the Internet,” will speak on Internet policy issues, IP convergence and broadband regulation. Vint Cerf is currently the senior vice president of Architecture and Technology for MCI and the chairman of the board of ICANN. The brown bag will be held at the offices of Wiley Rein & Fielding. Please see info on page 6 to RSVP.

Vinton G. Cerf is senior vice president of Architecture and Technology for WorldCom. Cerf’s team of architects and engineers design advanced networking frameworks including Internet-based solutions for delivering a combination of data, information, voice and video services for business and consumer use.

Widely known as one of the “Fathers of the Internet,” Cerf is the co-designer of the TCP/IP protocols and the architecture of the Internet. In December 1997, President Clinton presented the U.S. National Medal of Technology to Cerf and his partner, Robert E. Kahn, for founding and developing the Internet.

Prior to rejoining MCI in 1994, Cerf was vice president of the Corporation for National Research Initiatives (CNRI). As vice president of MCI Digital Information Services from 1982-1986, he led the engineering of MCI Mail, the first commercial email service to be connected to the Internet.

During his tenure from 1976-1982 with the U.S. Department of Defense’s Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), Cerf played a key role leading the development of Internet and Internet-related data packet and security technologies.

In addition to his work on behalf of WorldCom and the Internet, Cerf has served as a technical advisor to production for “Gene Roddenberry’s Earth: Final Conflict.” He also made a special guest appearance in May 1998. Cerf has appeared on television programs NextWave with Leonard Nimoy and on World Business Review with Alexander Haig and Casper Weinberger. Cerf also holds an appointment as distinguished visiting scientist at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory where he is working on the design of an interplanetary Internet.

Cerf holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics from Stanford University and Master of Science and Ph.D. degrees in Computer Science from UCLA.

Join the FCBA/FCC Coed Ultimate Frisbee Team

The tradition continues as Seven Dirty Words returns to the ultimate playing field. Whether you have experience or haven’t picked up a frisbee since college, the FCBA’s coed ultimate frisbee team wants you to join us for another fun-filled summer.

The season starts in mid-June. There will be approximately eight games over eight weeks, not all on the same day of the week. Games are either weekdays at 6:30 or weekends and are played on the Mall or on nearby fields in D.C., Maryland, or Virginia. Visit <http://www.wafc.org> (Corporate League notes) for more details.

Summer associates, immediate family, and significant others of FCBA members are also welcome. Help make this the best summer ultimate season ever!

For more information or to sign up, please contact Doug Klein (DAKlein@hhlaw.com or (202) 637-3678) or Tony Lin (Tony.Lin@shawpittman.com or (202) 663-8452).

Foundation Seeks Mentors for Scholarship Recipients

The FCBA Foundation seeks mentors for students who have received scholarships and are attending their first year of college, (see related article below). This year the Foundation will award six scholarships to students from local public high schools who have demonstrated strong academic skills, community service, an interest in communications or technology, and the need for financial aid. Mentors provide support to these students, who are extraordinary people that have overcome adversity. The time commitment is very small, a few e-mails and phone calls throughout the semester, a couple of hours during the break. If you are interested in working with these amazing students, please contact Chris Wood at cwood@fw-law.com or 202-939-7903.

Foundation Announces 2003 High School Scholarship Recipients

The FCBA Foundation is pleased to announce the six students from District of Columbia public high schools that it has chosen to receive college scholarships over the next four years. David Lloyd of Spingarn Senior High School and Carolina Acevedo of Theodore Roosevelt Senior High School will each receive a scholarship of up to $20,000, paid over four years.

Thanh Phuc Tran of Francis L. Cardozo Senior High School will receive the first “Motorola Scholarship,” funded through the generosity of that company, in the amount of $12,000 over four years. Shanata Harvey and Ashley Williams of Spingarn, and Dawn Jennings of Roosevelt, will each receive an $8,000 four year scholarship.

In total, the Foundation committed up to $76,000 for new scholarships. In addition to Motorola, the Foundation gratefully acknowledges the support of the Verizon Foundation and SBC Foundation, as well as the support of individual members, for its scholarship efforts.

Foundation Announces Stipends For Law Student Interns

The FCBA Foundation is also pleased to announce this year’s recipients of stipends from the Chairman Robert E. Lee Scholarship Fund for law school interns in unpaid government positions over the summer. In 1993 the Foundation established this fund in memory of Mr. Lee, the former FCC Chairman and Commissioner who passed away after nearly thirty years of service at the Commission. This year's recipients are Sarah Kenney of American University's Washington College of Law, who will be interning at the Enforcement Bureau of the FCC; Michelle Kozlov of Boston College Law School, who will be interning at the Office of the Attorney General of Massachusetts, working on high tech and computer fraud issues; Jerry Brito of the George Mason University School of Law, who will be interning at the FCC's International Bureau; and Kara Wyrsh of the University of Maryland School of Law, who will be interning at the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. Each law student will receive a stipend in the amount of $2,500 for the summer to help defray his or her expenses.

In addition, the Foundation selected Ms. Kenney to receive this year's Max Paglin Award, representing an additional stipend of $600. Mr. Paglin was the former General Counsel and Executive Director of the FCC, and the founder of the Golden Jubilee Commission on Telecommunications, which compiled a definitive legislative history of the Communications Act. Upon its dissolution, that Commission graciously donated its remaining funds to the Foundation and made the Foundation the beneficiary of any future royalties from that legislative history.

FCBA Committees

As stated in the FCBA Bylaws, the President is charged with selecting committee co-chairs each new fiscal year. FCBA President-Elect, Alexandra Wilson, will begin the process in the next few months. If you are interested in submitting your name for consideration as a committee co-chair for FY. 2003-2004, beginning July 1, 2003, please send an email to Sandy at alexandra.wilson@cox.com. You should feel free to explain your committee choice, relevant experience as a committee member or chair, and alternative choices in the event your first choices are not available.

What's the Password?

Many of you have noticed that while trying to log into the FCBA's Online

Membership

Directory: http://www.fcba.org/directory_login.shtml, that a password is required. The password can be located every month on page two of the FCBA News, and will appear at the bottom of the masthead. The masthead is the box containing the list of the FCBA's Executive Committee members. The password changes on the 10th of every month.

The committee made some changes to this year's tournament in order to make it as fair as possible, and to maximize scholarship funds. The biggest change is that those golfers who are not a part of an Eagle or Foursome Friends team, will no longer be able to form their own foursome teams. Individual golfers can sign up and will be placed into foursomes by the committee. If you have any questions about this, please contact Alan Campbell or Heidi Kurtz.

CLE CREDIT: FCBA will be requesting accreditation from the State Bars of Virginia and California. If approved, forms for Virginia and California will be available at the Seminar Registration Desk. Please note that FCBA does not obtain CLE credit for other states. The FCBA will, however, assist with applications to other states, but attorneys must apply individually for credit courses and submit any forms and payments necessary directly to the state bar. The number of credits corresponds with the number of hours of course time, i.e., a two-hour seminar equals 2.0 hours of credit.
