DEAR FCBA MEMBERS,

In this month’s newsletter, we highlight the tremendous accomplishments of the FCBA’s Diversity Pipeline Program (DPP). In just two years, the program has placed 49 diverse first-year law school students in telecom, media, and technology (TMT) internships in DC-based law firms and legal departments, and a total of 66 students have graduated from the TMT Law & Policy Certificate Program. This truly is a great accomplishment that the entire Tech Bar should be proud of.

Moreover, hundreds of FCBA members have been involved in various components of the Diversity Pipeline Program as: application reviewers; interviewers; certificate program faculty; or as employees of one of the almost thirty law firms, associations, and companies that hosted interns this summer and fall. Special thanks to the co-chairs of the Diversity Pipeline Program who have invested so much time and energy into ensuring the success of this incredibly worthwhile program. Together, we are raising our bar in the most direct way possible.

The impact of the Diversity Pipeline Program already can be seen in the exciting launch this fall of the Technology, Media, and Telecommunications Association (TMTA) at Howard University Law School (HUSL). The organization is led by HUSL DPP alumni Samuel Cadet, Charlene Bartels-Eshun, Aja Finger, Crystal Bush, Karaz Axam and Ania Trichet and fellow HUSL students Percy Manford, Ogechika Oselukwe. The TMTA already has held two panel sessions this fall – including FCBA members Rudy Brioché, Ari Fitzgerald, Diane Holland, and Jonathan Mark – focusing on why increased diversity is needed in the TMT sector and the different types of career opportunities offered in the industry. The FCBA could not be prouder of all of the HUSL students who are taking the time to learn more about the TMT industry and legal opportunities in our field.

Shifting gears, a key component of raising our bar is the opportunity for all of us to come back together in person with the return of two of the FCBA’s favorite events. So, please do make plans to attend the FCC and NTIA Bureau and Office Chiefs meet and greet reception on Wednesday, October 19; followed by the FCBA Charity Auction on Thursday, November 3. Looking forward to seeing many of you this fall!

From Translation to Technology: Keeping Up with Professional Responsibility

The FCBA Professional Responsibility Committee will sponsor an Ethics CLE on Thursday, October 13 from 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. ET entitled From Translation to Technology: Keeping Up with Professional Responsibility. This program will be held virtually via the Zoom platform.

This program will address some of the thorny legal ethics questions presented by recent developments in legal ethics and longstanding professional responsibility requirements. The first part of the program will address the ABA’s recent efforts to confront bias in the legal profession, including its most recent efforts to address language access requirements. The second part of the program will explore lawyers’ ethical obligations to understand and use technology in their legal practice.

The FCBA will apply for 2.0 hours of MCLE ETHICS credit from the VA Bar. This program has not yet been approved.

Big Challenges in Local Regulation of Small Wireless Facilities

The FCBA Pacific Northwest Chapter and the State and Local Committee will sponsor a CLE on Monday, November 7 from 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. ET entitled Big Challenges in Local Regulation of Small Wireless Facilities. This program will be held virtually via the Zoom platform.

In late 2018, the FCC issued its Third Report and Order to streamline deployment of next-generation small wireless facilities. Four years, one Ninth Circuit decision, and one global pandemic later, the pace of next-gen wireless deployment is increasing, the FCC’s Order has been largely upheld (with notable exceptions), but there remain significant local obstacles to deployment—including process issues, mis-alignment between local ordinances and federal rules, and even misinformation about RF emissions. Industry and local officials often struggle to reach a common understanding of what reasonable aesthetic standards and cost-based fees look like, address local concerns, and create practical, predictable processes for permit applications. Companies deploying SWF and local jurisdictions also frequently face challenges with respect to ROW fees, and aesthetic restrictions, and pole designs. Meanwhile, municipalities may be looking at ROW fees to address budget crunches, and customer demand for mobile broadband continues to increase, with no limits in sight. This virtual CLE will feature two moderated panels featuring panelists offering diverse perspectives on small wireless facility deployment, especially in the Pacific Northwest, and on how local regulations impact the deployment of next-generation wireless (and wireline) facilities in the ROW.

The FCBA will apply for 2.0 hours of MCLE credit from the VA Bar. This program has not yet been approved.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

12:05 – 12:55 p.m.
IMPACT OF THE 2018 SMALL CELL ORDER ON SMALL WIRELESS FACILITIES, 4 YEARS ON

This panel discussion will focus on assessing the impact of the Third Report and Order, and identifying and discussing ongoing challenges and open questions. Discussion will include potential for successful collaborations between industry and local government concerning process improvements, model codes, and best practices as regulations continue to evolve and new technology continues to be deployed to meet our demand for mobile communications.

Moderator:
Alan Galloway, Counsel, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP

Speakers:
Kim Allen, Senior Vice President, Land Use Entitlements and Strategic Planning, Wireless Policy Group LLC

A Decade of Wireless Emergency Alerts: Looking Back and Looking Ahead

The FCBA Homeland Security and Emergency Communications Committee will sponsor a CLE on Thursday, November 10 from 3:00 – 5:15 p.m. ET entitled A Decade of Wireless Emergency Alerts: Looking Back and Looking Ahead. This program will be held virtually via the Zoom platform.

This CLE will include speakers from the FCC, FEMA, wireless providers, and alert originators. The first panel will focus on the policies, partnerships and technical innovations that have enabled Wireless Emergency Alerts (WEA) to become one of the most effective emergency notification tools in the U.S. A second panel will consider the future of emergency alerting and the impact to standards, rules and policies.

The FCBA Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning, and Robotics Committee will sponsor a CLE on Monday, November 14 from 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. ET entitled What’s Here and What’s Next for the Regulation of Artificial Intelligence. This program will be held virtually via the Zoom platform.

This program will address some of the important legal questions surrounding the regulation of Artificial Intelligence (AI). The first part of the program will address the pending FTC ANPRM and the issues involving commercial surveillance and data security that were discussed in comments submitted in October. The second part of the program will explore the critical issues facing the future of the industry including whether the FTC has the authority to regulate AI.

The FCBA will apply for 2.0 hours of MCLE credit from the VA Bar. This program has not yet been approved.

WHAT’S HERE: FTC PROPOSED RULEMAKING ON COMMERCIAL SURVEILLANCE AND DATA SECURITY

The Federal Trade Commission has issued an Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking nominally addressing “Commercial Surveillance and Data Security” but which also raises significant questions about the use of artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML) systems known as automated decision-making tools, and the risks of potential algorithmic discrimination. This panel will discuss the implications of the pending ANPRM on the regulation of AI tools, systems and applications. Panelists will specifically examine the questions the FTC raises concerning automated decision-making systems, alleged algorithmic discrimination and the use of biometric information.

17th Annual FCBA/ABA Privacy and Data Security Symposium:
“Hot Topics in Federal Privacy Regulation and Enforcement”

The FCBA Privacy and Data Security Committee and the American Bar Association’s Forum on Communications Law will hold the 17th Annual Privacy & Data Security Symposium on Wednesday, November 16 from 2:00 – 6:00 p.m. ET. This program will be held virtually via the Zoom platform.

This year has seen major developments across the federal privacy landscape. At the agency level, in the continued absence of comprehensive federal privacy legislation, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recently launched a federal privacy rulemaking, which—if it results in federal privacy rules—will mark a sea-change in the U.S. approach to consumer privacy. There have been major developments in the courts as well, including the Supreme Court’s recent decisions that implicate personal privacy issues and agency rulemaking authority, as well as growing privacy litigation stemming from both state and federal privacy laws. This event will take a deeper dive into this evolving landscape, examining these and other developments at the federal level, and discussing how these developments relate to parallel activity at the international and state level.

If you are an ABA Forum on Communications Law member or have any issues with registration, please contact Elizabeth Hagerty at elizabeth@fcba.org.

Click here to sponsor. Sponsorship of the event is available for $1,000 and includes one complimentary registration for the symposium. Sponsors cannot register online.

The FCBA will apply for 3.5 hours of MCLE credit from the VA Bar. This program has not yet been approved.

Agenda

SESSION I: PRIVACY AT THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

“Whether they know it or not, most Americans today surrender their personal information to engage in the most basic aspects of modern life.” With these words, the FTC launched its much-anticipated rulemaking process on federal privacy regulation, or “Commercial Surveillance and Data Security.” What are the bounds of the FTC’s authority in this space? Should the FTC move forward with a rulemaking and if so, what will be included in the FTC’s privacy rules? What will the process look like and how will it be different from traditional APA rulemaking? And given the timing of the rulemaking, how will it affect (or be affected by) Congressional efforts at a new federal privacy framework? This panel will attempt to answer these questions and provide an overview of what may be in store for the future of U.S. privacy regulation.

SESSION II: PRIVACY AT THE SUPREME COURT

In one of the most controversial opinions of the term, Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization, the Court overturned Roe v. Wade, which held that abortion was part of a right to privacy. In his concurrence, Justice Thomas even questioned what he deemed the “facial absurdity” of Griswold v. Connecticut, which declared a right of privacy being implicit in the Constitution, leaving privacy advocates concerned about privacy-based precedent beyond Roe and Casey. Along with Dobbs, the powers of federal agencies to enact potential privacy-based regulation has been called into question this past term. In West Virginia v. EPA, the Court limited the Environmental Protection Agency’s authority to regulate gas emissions in the power sector. Applying the major questions doctrine, the Court required Congress to provide clear direction in its delegation of authority to agencies. Analysis suggest this decision may have ripple effects that may apply to any policymaking efforts, including privacy, by federal agencies. This session will examine the impacts that Dobbs and West Virginia will have on consumer and employee privacy issues, and explore where the Court may turn next.

SESSION III: PRIVACY TRENDS IN LITIGATION

The convergence of privacy rules in some areas and the divergence in others continue to reshape the privacy rights of action in the U.S. Federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act claims have shifted in 2022 since the Supreme Court’s Facebook, Inc. v. Duguid, and litigation has grown to test the bounds of state laws. As organizations seek to reframe their risk-based approach to privacy compliance, this panel will share valuable insight on the “standing” of many state laws that afford private rights of action, including the Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act, the California Consumer Privacy Act (and the looming effective date of its much-anticipated amendments), the fifty shades of data security and breach notification laws, and many flavors of state telemarketing laws.

Join the Charity Auction and Young Lawyers Committees for the pre-Auction Pep Rally on Saturday, October 15 from 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. ET. It will be held rain or shine at Dacha Beer Garden, 1600 7th Street, NW. All are welcome!

Proceeds from this year’s Charity Auction will benefit two great local charities—Inspired Child and the FCBA Foundation. If you are interested in donating a prize, the deadline is October 14! Click here or visit https://fcba.ejoinme.org/2022Donationform.

Contributions are tax deductible, to the extent permitted by law. The donated items must be delivered to the FCBA office no later than Thursday, October 27.

Inspired Child, founded in 1994 as the education program of Dumbarton Arts & Education, is a Washington, DC-based non-profit with a history of providing exceptional early childhood programming for children, teachers, and families in under-resourced communities in DC. Inspired Child’s mission is to improve the quality of early childhood education for children ages birth to five living in Washington, DC’s most economically disadvantaged communities through arts-based literacy programs. “We envision a world in which every child has access to high quality early childhood education,” said Dumbarton Arts & Education Executive Director Ingrid Zimmer.

Ms. Zimmer explained the importance of arts education to the children and communities Inspired Child serves. “Grounded in the pursuit of education equity, we offer arts-based programs in underserved communities because the arts have been shown by research to be powerful drivers of students’ success and social-emotional development, but they tend to be more widely available in wealthier communities and more restricted in low-income communities, which are disproportionately also communities of color. We see access to arts-based education as a social and racial justice issue.”

Thank you to Crown Castle for Sponsoring the 33rd Annual Charity Auction at the Platinum Level!

They will make a huge difference to this year’s beneficiaries - Inspired Child and the FCBA Foundation. We greatly appreciate their support!
Inspired Child fosters a love of books and learning through three core programs: (1) Classroom residencies (Dancing With Books for PreK3-4, Rainbowdance for toddlers, and Dancing With Babies for infant classrooms) that support children's cognitive, physical, and social-emotional development; (2) Naptime U., professional development workshops for early childhood teachers; and (3) Read With Me, a family literacy program. Each program is helping to create an environment that promotes school readiness for underserved children in our nation's capital. “Support from the FCBA would allow us to bring these vital, beloved programs to more children in underserved neighborhoods who need and deserve high-quality early childhood education experiences that promote their cognitive and social-emotional development, putting them on the path for success in Kindergarten and beyond,” said Ms. Zimmer. Funds raised through the FCBA Charity Auction will help Inspired Child expand its classroom residencies, purchase the books that all children in its programs receive, and also support the launch later this year of its Inspired Child Teaching Artist Fellowship, which will support early career artists of color with a background in education to train as teaching artists.

The FCBA Foundation will use proceeds from one another than support two great causes, including the FCBA Foundation,” said Erin Griffith and Avonne Bell, FCBA Foundation Co-Chairs. “We are looking forward to supporting the important work of Inspired Child and the FCBA Foundation.”

The Charity Auction is one of Washington, DC’s premier “must-attend” events for the technology, media, and telecommunications industry. The event features a live auction hosted by a professional auctioneer and a online auction. Attendees should expect surprises and new and exciting prizes building on last year’s event, including vacation packages; consumer electronics; tickets to concerts, theater shows, and various professional and collegiate sporting events; dinners; lunches; and gift certificates from area businesses.

If you have any questions about the Charity Auction, please contact Janeen Wynn (janeen@fcba.org).

New FCBA Officer Appointments

Under Article IV, Section 2, of the FCBA’s By-Laws, vacancies in the office of President-Elect, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and Delegate to the American Bar Association occurring during the term of office shall be filled by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee. As a result of a recent vacancy in the office of President-Elect, Barry Ohlson, as President, has notified the Executive Committee of his decision to appoint (current Secretary) Diane G. Holland of the Federal Communications Commission as President-Elect. The Executive Committee has approved that appointment consistent with the By-Laws. The By-Laws further provide that in the first year after appointment of an interim President-Elect to fill a vacancy in that office, candidates for President and President-Elect shall be nominated and stand for election and the President shall serve for a term of one year; thereafter, the President shall be succeeded by the President-Elect.

With Diane’s appointment, there is a vacancy in the office of the Secretary. Consequently, Barry Ohlson, as President, has notified the Executive Committee of his decision to appoint (current Assistant Secretary) Mia Guizzetti Hayes of Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP as Secretary. The Executive Committee has approved that appointment consistent with the By-Laws. As the term of the Secretary seat is scheduled to expire June 30, 2023, the same time that the next election results would take effect, there will be no need for a subsequent special election to fill the seat.

Finally, with Mia’s appointment, there is a vacancy in the office of the Assistant Secretary. Consequently, Barry Ohlson, as President, has notified the Executive Committee of his decision to appointment Erin Dozier of the National Association of Broadcasters as Assistant Secretary. The Executive Committee has approved that appointment consistent with the By-Laws. As the term of the Assistant Secretary seat is scheduled to expire June 30, 2023, the same time that the next election results would take effect, there will be no need for a subsequent special election to fill the seat.

The Executive Committee deeply thanks Diane, Mia, and Erin for their willingness to fill these officer roles for the remainder of the FCBA 2022-2023 year and truly appreciates the many contributions of Krista Witanowski to the FCBA and Executive Committee over the past several years.

INVITING GOVERNMENT GUESTS

Pursuant to the Office of Government Ethics regulation on widely attended gatherings (5 C.F.R. 2635.204(g)(2)), the FCBA Annual Dinner appears to qualify as a widely attended gathering. The value of an individual ticket to the dinner is $195.00. Most employees of the Federal Communications Commission may be directly invited to attend the dinner as guests of individuals and organizations without the involvement of the FCBA. However, individuals who have signed the Administration’s Ethics pledge cannot accept invitations from registered lobbying organizations or registered lobbyists. Some agencies, departments and branches of the Federal Government may apply additional stipulations above the regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics. While this event has qualified as a widely attended gathering in previous years, each FCC employee is required to obtain individual ethics clearance based on matters they are working on within the Commission. Employees of the Commerce Department are required to obtain individual ethics clearance through the Department’s Office of General Counsel. Invitations to Members of Congress, Congressional Staff, and employees of the Department of State must be issued by the FCBA. Contact the FCBA for additional information.

Requests for invitations to be sent from the FCBA must be emailed to kerry@fcba.org by Friday, November 18. Invitees will be placed at the discretion of the FCBA.

2023 FCBA Annual Seminar to be held at Kingsmill Resort
April 28-30~SAVE THE DATES!

Mark your calendars now and make plans to join your colleagues at Kingsmill Resort in Williamsburg, VA for the FCBA Annual Seminar on April 28-30, 2023. Watch for program details in the coming months.

Steeped in a tradition of gracious Southern hospitality, Kingsmill heralds a rich history dating back to Colonial America. The land located along the banks of the James River was considered a permanent base by the first Englishmen on May 12, 1607. They decided to settle at Jamestown the next day.

In 1969 Anheuser-Busch purchased 3,900 acres of James River land with plans to build a large brewery. As part of the land purchase agreement, Anheuser-Busch agreed to develop hundreds of those acres into what is now Kingsmill Resort. Kingsmill is situated on 2,900 protected acres along the James River, 150 miles from downtown Washington, DC. To learn more about Kingsmill and its many amenities and activities, go to: https://www.kingsmill.com/.

Williamsburg offers tons of adventures and activities. You can step back in time and relive the days of Colonial Virginia, go to Busch Gardens, or explore a variety of shops and boutiques.

We hope you’ll join us at the 2023 FCBA Annual Seminar!

Diversity Pipeline Program Update; FCBA to Hold Information Session for Summer 2023 on October 24

In two years, the FCBA Diversity Pipeline Program has helped jump start the technology, media, and telecom (TMT) careers of 66 diverse law students from 24 different law schools nationwide – and it’s now time to launch year three.

As the Tech Bar, the FCBA has a mission to foster meaningful diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal profession in the TMT sector. Advancing this mission, the FCBA’s Diversity Pipeline Program Committee created two groundbreaking programs in 2020: the Diversity Pipeline Internship Program and the TMT Law & Policy Certificate Program. The purpose of these two programs is to attract, develop, train, and support, first-year law students from historically underrepresented and disadvantaged groups interested in pursuing careers in TMT law and policy. A central goal is to create a pathway for diverse law students to become meaningful contributors to the Tech Bar and future leaders of the FCBA.

Following a tremendous first year, in 2022 the employers listed below and scores of FCBA volunteers and supporters teamed up with fabulous students to make the second year a great success. The Program interviewed 60 of almost 120 applicants and ultimately placed 30 students in summer internships with 27 different employers – an over 50% increase from year one.

From the beginning, the Committee has developed an academic curriculum component to prepare students for their internships and other endeavors through the TMT Law & Policy Certificate Program. In 2022, 38 students completed the intense academic and practical legal training skills development program with over 36 hours of substantive class time. Sessions were led by senior government officials and leading industry and firm attorneys and included remarks from FCC Commissioner Geoffrey Starks; U.S. District Judge Amit Mehta; Sanford Williams, special advisor to FCC Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel; Doha Mekki, Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Antitrust Division, DOJ; former FCC Chairman Ajit Pai; former FCC Commissioner Henry Rivera; and closing graduation remarks by FCC Commissioner Brendan Carr.

As we enter year three, we are positioning the Diversity Pipeline Program to benefit from more consistent administrative support to ensure a high-quality experience for both employers and students. The Committee has developed a formal budget to support growing administrative, operational, and programming needs for the 2022-2023 year. We thank employers and other entities that have committed to sponsor the program financially for the coming year and recognize those organizations that have supported the Program in other ways.

The co-chairs want to express their deep appreciation to the FCBA and many volunteers who continue to make the Diversity Pipeline Program a success. Together, we are working to Raise our Bar by building a pipeline for diverse students in the Tech Bar, a bar that is like no other. Of course, our work continues, and we invite prospective employer participants, student applicants, and others who are interested in learning more about the program for summer 2023 to join us for an informational webinar on Monday, October 24 from 5:30 – 6:45 p.m. ET. Please click here to register.

FCBA Unplugged

FCBA UNPLUGGED is a podcast series for and about our beloved FCBA community. FCBA Unplugged features a series of fun, informal conversations between host Kelly Donohue, a Public Policy Manager at Facebook and co-chair of the FCBA's Membership and Marketing Committee, and you, our FCBA members! While it's certainly no proxy for in-person events, it's a fun opportunity to collectively check in with our FCBA friends and family while we are all working from home in our pajama bottoms, and maybe discover a few hidden talents along the way.

HOW CAN I LISTEN AND SUPPORT THE SHOW? We're available on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, on the FCBA website - https://www.fcba.org/products-services/podcast, and at https://www.buzzsprout.com/1458427. Please tune in, leave a review, and tell the world about the show on Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and Twitter!

CAN I BE ON THE SHOW? If you have ideas for topics or guests, or would like to be on the show yourself, send Kelly an email at kellydonohue@fb.com. The suggestion box is open!

Do one thing for your career today – join the FCBA Speakers Bureau!

26th Annual FCBA Foundation Golf Tournament

The 26th Annual FCBA Foundation Robert Emmet Lee Memorial Golf Tournament was held on Tuesday, September 20, 2022. This year’s tournament was held at one of the premier courses in the area, Westfields Golf Club in Clifton, VA, and raised $8,000 for the FCBA Foundation – the most in over 10 years!

The tournament is named in memory of former Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Chairman Robert Emmet Lee, who passed away in April 1993 after serving at the FCC for almost 30 years.

We had a record number of Eagle Club teams competing to win the vaunted Eagle Cup Trophy. Unseating the 2021 championship team “Slicers and Hookers” was the Wiley team comprised of Henry Gola, Steve Merlis, Brian Corrigan, and Hawkins Thomas. The other Eagle Club teams were: AT&T, ACT | The App Association, Cox Enterprises, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, JSI, Slicers and Hookers, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, and Wireless Infrastructure Association.

Winners of the following contests were:
- Longest Drive – Men: Alex Damato, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP
- Longest Drive – Women: Mary O’Connor, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP
- Closest to the Pin: Tim House, Wireless Infrastructure Association

We also had a record number of Hole Sponsors this year: AT&T, JSI, Technology & Communications Law, PLLC, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, and Wireless Infrastructure Association.

Special thanks go to those who donated prizes: AT&T, Comcast NBCUniversal, Cox Enterprises, Fox Corporation, JSI, Telecommunications Law Professionals PLLC, Guy Benson, and Arturo Chang.

The Tournament planning committee was comprised of: Guy Benson, Arturo Chang, Zenas Choi, Jonathan Cohen, Joe Cramer, Henry Gola, Steve Goodman, Jesse Jachman, Alex Moyer, Lee G. Petro (chair), Glenn Reynolds, and Larry Walke.

Please reach out to Lee G. Petro (Lee.Petro@PillsburyLaw.com) with any feedback for this year’s tournament, or if you are interested in participating on the Committee for the 2023 Tournament.

10.22.2 Communications Attorney – Foster Garvey is searching for a Communications Attorney with 5+ years of experience in broadcast law to work in a robust broadcast practice with a specialty in public broadcasting. Experience working with non-profit entities preferred. The ideal candidate must demonstrate a passion for the practice; build and maintain relationships with clients, FCC staff, and industry professionals; possess the ability to manage multiple projects; and meet deadlines with consistently high-quality work product. Strong public speaking and writing skills are required along with the ability to communicate clearly and persuasively. A book of business is not required but is welcome.

The Communications, Telecom & Media group at Foster Garvey explores communications law through new and familiar terrain. The team proudly represents broadcast, Internet, and telecommunications companies, and works with clients to explore new areas of communications law, including digital media, podcasting, ATSC 3.0, and broadband ventures. In this position, you will advise commercial and noncommercial educational broadcasters, trade associations, American Indian Tribes, technology companies, and broadband and e-commerce providers on a wide array of matters before the FCC, including licensing, spectrum auctions, rulemakings, program content, forfeitures, and consent decrees.

The successful candidate will have:
■ 5 or more years of experience in Communications Law background (and, specifically, experience with TV and radio broadcast law)
■ Background in administrative law/federal regulatory agencies
■ Excellent research, writing, analytical, and communication skills
■ A client-oriented approach to practice
■ Ability to work collaboratively in a team environment, including with legal support staff
■ Demonstrated interest in giving back to the communities in which we live and work
■ License to practice law in any state
■ Partial book of business is preferred, but not required

Interested candidates who meet the qualifications should submit their resume, cover letter, reference sheet, and writing sample through our Careers Portal webpage. If you need assistance with the application process or have questions about the position, please contact Georgia Woodruff, Director of Legal Talent and Professional Development, at georgia.woodruff@foster.com.

Foster Garvey values diversity and is an equal-opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, citizenship, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, physical or mental disability, political ideology, familial relationships, or status in any other legally protected group.

The Federal Communications Law Journal

The Federal Communications Law Journal has long been an important source of legal scholarship on communications issues, and the FCBA is proud to offer the journal as a benefit to our members. FCBA members may now decide how they would like to receive the journal. The FCLJ itself will continue to be published in hard copy, however, rather than receiving hard copies as a default, we’ll be distributing electronic links to the content.

For those of you who would like to receive the FCLJ electronically, you don’t have to do anything. We will email you a link when a new issue is published. You may also visit http://www.fclj.org/volumes/ to view archived volumes. For those of you who would like to receive the FCLJ in hard copy format, you should sign up for this option by following the instructions below. You must log in to your membership account and select the FCLJ subscription. Note that the hard copy journal is free, but it must be ordered through our website.

To log in to your account, click here or go to www.fcba.org and click the Log In button.

- Click on the link to the “Online Store” on the left side of the page.

- Click on the link to the “Federal Communications Law Journal Annual Subscription”. You may also type the word Journal into the Search Bar, if needed.
- Click on “Add to Cart”.
- Click on “Check Out”.
- Click on “Purchase Now”, and you’re done!

Note that we will also send out an email reminder to members about the opt-in process before each issue is published.

If you have any questions, please send an email to Elizabeth Hagerty (elizabeth@fcba.org).

BUSINESS ATTIRE

Pursuant to the Office of Government Ethics regulation on widely-attended gatherings (5 C.F.R. 2635.204(g)(2)), the Chairman’s Dinner appears to qualify as a widely attended gathering. The value of an individual ticket to the dinner is $195.00. Most employees of the Federal Communications Commission may be directly invited to attend the dinner as guests of individuals and organizations without the involvement of the FCBA. However, individuals who have signed the Administration’s Ethics pledge cannot accept invitations from registered lobbying organizations or registered lobbyists. Some agencies, departments and branches of the Federal Government may apply additional stipulations above the regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics. While this event has qualified as a widely-attended gathering in previous years, each FCC employee is required to obtain individual ethics clearance based on matters they are working on within the Commission. Employees of the Commerce Department are required to obtain individual ethics clearance through the Department’s Office of General Counsel. Invitations to Members of Congress, Congressional Staff, and employees of the Department of State must be issued by the FCBA. Contact the FCBA for additional information. Requests for invitations to be sent from the FCBA must be emailed to kerry@fcba.org by Friday, November 18. Invitees will be placed at the discretion of the FCBA.
