FCBA SPRING RECEPTION TO BE HELD ON JUNE 20

The FCBA is pleased to announce that it will hold its Spring Reception on Thursday, June 20, 2013, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. at Microsoft Corporation, 901 K Street, NW, Washington, DC. Look for more information on registration and sponsorships in the May newsletter!

FCBA 26TH ANNUAL CHAIRMAN'S DINNER ON DECEMBER 11

The 26th Annual FCC Chairman's Dinner will be held Wednesday, December 11, 2013 at the Washington Hilton, 1919 Connecticut Avenue, NW. Please mark your calendars now!

PRESIDENT'S Message

DEAR MEMBERS:

Every so often it is good to try something new and this spring the FCBA Newsletter is introducing a new feature. Starting this month we are publishing a "Get to Know an FCBA Member" interview. I am delighted that FCBA member and FCC Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel was kind enough to share some personal, as well as professional, insights for the inaugural piece on page 13 and I look forward to interviewing more FCBA members and highlighting their careers and personalities as time goes on. Thanks to the efforts of our Commendations Committee (co-chaired by Doug Bonner and Russell Fox this year), our newsletter profiles members of our profession after death. It just seems to me that there are plenty of interesting current members who add so much to the life of the Association that we should be interviewing some of them for their insights.

Another bit of news is that the FCBA is migrating its webhosting to a different vendor this month. One of the benefits of moving it is that we should have a more flexible platform to introduce new and useful features. See page 10 for information about the upcoming April 24 brown bag lunch where we will be getting interested members talking about what is feasible and desirable in a new design of the website.

I hope many of you are reserving your rooms and anticipating attending the Annual Seminar, which is coming up on May 17-19 at The Hotel Hershey in Hershey, PA. We have not had a seminar there for some years, and for families and kids of all ages, there are many attractions, not the least of which is Hershey Park. The Park will be open Saturday and Sunday and discounted admission tickets are available through the hotel. The Hotel has a complimentary shuttle to and from the Park. For those more interested in spas, The Hotel Hershey has many chocolate-themed treatments; take a look at the offerings and reserve a space soon if you are intrigued. All in all, with the programming, the facilities and cuisine, and the great company of other FCBA members and their families, you could not find a more rewarding and interesting weekend, at least not in May of this year. Karaoke participation is optional, but it is truly a sight to see if not uniformly a treat to hear!

Finally, I want to extend my thanks to Yaron Dori and this year's Nominations Committee, who worked efficiently and well in coming up with a strong slate of candidates for next year's officers, Executive Committee members, Nominations Committee members, and Foundation Trustee candidates. In recent years, we've moved to an electronic ballot, so please be watching for the alert that voting is commencing; that should happen in late April or early May. We want and need participation in this important annual process.

Please "Get to Know an FCBA Member" this month. What you learn will no doubt boost your cocktail chat IQ to new levels by the time of the Annual Seminar!

What to Do & Where to Go

It's all about chocolate in Hershey! You'll find chocolate everywhere you turn; the air even smells like chocolate in Hershey, PA. From chocolate desserts on every menu, to chocolate specialty drinks at the bar, chocolate treatments at the world famous Hershey Spa, Chocolate World, to the chocolate bar they give you when you check into the hotel, you won't be able to forget you are in the town that chocolate built, or as the Hershey folks say, the sweetest place on earth.

Hotel guests will be given free admission tickets to The Hershey Story Museum and the Hershey Gardens when checking in. FCBA members staying at The Hotel Hershey will be able to purchase tickets to Hershey Park at a discounted price from the hotel Concierge at the following prices:

Hershey Gardens

Adult: 1 day - $42.85; 2 day - $75.20;
3 day - $103.55

Youth (3 to 8): 1 day - $32.85; 2 day - $54.70; 3 day - $81.55
55 plus: $23.35

Guests can also enjoy complimentary shuttles to Hershey World and the Park from the hotel front door.

Before leaving the hotel, you may want to enjoy the year-round outdoor ice skating rink, the indoor pool, the expansive sports complex, or one of the many quiet places to relax, visit with friends, or read a book. You can be as busy or relaxed as you want to be during the weekend.

Annual Seminar Ride Share — Room Share Program

The Young Lawyers Committee is once again helping to coordinate carpooling and room sharing for those interested in attending the FCBA Annual Seminar. If you are worried that you won't know anyone else at the Seminar or are interested in helping break up the expenses or share driving duties, please reach out to the YLC for more information. If you are a government employee, you should contact Brendan Carr at Brendan.Carr@fcc.gov. If you are not a government employee, you should sign-up for the YLC's carpool list and/or room share list by emailing Justin Faulb at JFaulb@eckertseamans.com.

Wednesday, April 3, 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. The Production and Distribution of Video Programming: Basics and Advanced Issues

The FCBA Intellectual Property and Video Programming and Distribution Committees will be hosting a CLE seminar on Wednesday, April 3 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. entitled The Production and Distribution of Video Programming: Basics and Advanced Issues. This program will be held at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, 1500 K Street, NW.

The production and distribution of video programming raises many licensing issues, both basic and much more complex. Digital transmission and retransmission of video programming raises new issues. All of these issues will be explored in this CLE session.

The first panel discussion will explore basic licensing issues in video programming. What kinds of rights and clearances need to be obtained to produce a video program? What distribution models are there? What kinds of agreements are used for distribution of video programs? What are compulsory licenses and what role do they play in the distribution of video programming?

The second panel will explore more complex topics in licensing. What is the role of fair use in the production and distribution of video programming?

How are a programmer's rights to control the reproduction of its works implicated in the digital distribution of video programming? Does the Betamax decision still remain valid in a digital world? Should it remain valid? How has digital distribution disrupted traditional distribution avenues for video programming and what implications does it have for agreements for the distribution of programming?

APRIL 29 CLE

In February 2012, Congress enacted The Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, containing landmark provisions to create a much-needed nationwide interoperable broadband network that will help police, firefighters, emergency medical service professionals and other public safety officials perform their critical jobs. The legal framework for this network, which is to be based on a single, national network architecture, is the new "First Responder Network Authority" (FirstNet), an independent authority within NTIA. This CLE program will be presented in two parts: the first portion will focus on the federal participants in FirstNet (NTIA, FCC, DHS), statutory requirements for FirstNet, and the current status of federal efforts. Part two of the program will focus on state and private sector participation in FirstNet. The program will feature official FirstNet and other government representatives, along with public safety experts who are working on various aspects of the FirstNet project.

An Update on the Open Internet Order and Its Impact

The FCBA Broadband Committee will hold a CLE on Thursday, May 2, 2013 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. entitled An Update on the Open Internet Order and Its Impact. This program will be held at Dow Lohnes PLLC, 1200 New Hampshire Avenue, NW.

This CLE will explore the impact of the Open Internet Order after nearly 2½ years. The discussion will cover the status of appellate review and how the process may evolve through oral argument, decision, and possible petition for certiorari. We will also look at application of the Order and rules to market behavior as providers have implemented the rules and sought to fulfill the spirit of the Order. Finally, we expect to debate the implications of change at the FCC as the agency welcomes a new Chair and commissioner.

International Privacy: Working in the Global Cloud and Preparing for the EU's New Privacy Approach

The FCBA International Telecommunications and Privacy and Data Security Committees will hold a CLE on Tuesday, May 7, 2013 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. entitled International Privacy: Working in the Global Cloud and Preparing for the EU's New Privacy Approach. This program will be held at Covington & Burling LLP, 1201 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, 11th Floor.

Cloud storage and computing is becoming an entrenched part of the global landscape. The cloud raises complex privacy and international jurisdiction issues for the practitioner guiding clients through cloud computing agreements. In addition, the privacy landscape that applies to the 27 member states of the European Union is about to make a dramatic shift. These countries have shared a general approach to privacy under the framework of the 1995 Data Protection Directive, but the EU is in the midst of a drastic attic-to-basement overhaul of how it will regulate data. The new Data Protection Regulation, proposed a year ago, would create a new EU-wide regulator, impose a uniform approach on the entire EU, and would increase penalties to up to 2% of a company's global revenue. We will have an outstanding group of experts to enlighten us on these engaging global privacy issues.

From Theory to Reality: Nuts and Bolts of the FCC's Incentive Auction

The FCBA Engineering and Technical and Mass Media Committees will hold a CLE on Thursday, May 30, 2013 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. entitled From Theory to Reality: Nuts and Bolts of the FCC's Incentive Auction. This program will be held at a location to be determined in Washington, DC.

With the FCC hoping to hold an incentive auction of broadcast spectrum next year, economists, engineers and lawyers continue to wrangle over the details of what promises to be the most complicated auction of spectrum in history. In this must-attend CLE, the hottest issues to emerge from incentive auction comments recently filed with the Commission earlier this year will be discussed – including topics such as the FCC's proposed band plan, TDD vs. FDD, and changes to OET-69.

Contact Information Updates

We'd like to remind everyone that if they have any changes to their contact information that they notify the FCBA, wendy@fcba.org. In order to keep a cohesive look to both our online and hard copy directories, we do not allow members to make any changes to their contact information themselves. Also note that we do not include prefixes or titles in any of our member listings. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter. Thank you.

COMMITTEE AND CHAPTER Events

FCBA Website Redesign Discussion

Event: Brown Bag Lunch
Date/Time: Wednesday, April 24, 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
Location: Squire Sanders (US) LLP, 1200 19th Street, NW
Topic: The FCBA is updating and redesigning its website! Please join us for a discussion of the current site, what features you would like to see in a new one, and any suggestions for ways to improve what we currently have.
To RSVP: Click here or go to the FCBA Website – Calendar of Events.

Ad Hoc Telemedicine Committee

Event: Brown Bag Lunch
Date/Time: Friday, April 5, 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
Location: Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, 2300 N Street, NW, Suite 700
Topic: The FCC's promotion of wireless and wireline health technologies has become a key component of the agency's broadband agenda. A variety of recent FCC rulemakings and other activities have generated substantial interest in this area, and that interest is likely to increase as the medical community becomes more reliant on broadband innovation to deliver critical health care services to the public. The FCBA thus is pleased to announce the formation of its Ad Hoc Committee on Telemedicine. Practitioners from both the legal and medical communities are invited to attend. The meeting will focus on setting the Committee's agenda and on discussion of ideas for events and speakers on items of specific interest (e.g., MBANS, experimental licensing, Healthcare Connect Fund) and broader policy matters going forward.
Organizers: Bob Primosch (Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP) and Jeff Mitchell (Lukas, Nace, Gutierrez, & Sachs, LLP)

Engineering and Technical Committee

Event: Brown Bag Lunch
Date/Time: Wednesday, April 3, 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
Location: National Association of Broadcasters, Conference Room A, 1771 N Street, NW
Topic: Updating the FCC's Equipment Authorization Program - Docket 13-44. The FCC's Equipment Authorization Program is a key gateway for billions of dollars of electronic equipment, both intentional emitters like cell phones and unintentional emitters like PCs, on their way to market. Its underlying purpose is to protecting the integrity of the spectrum for both licensed and unlicensed users. Mass marketing of a noncompliant device could result in massive interference and "putting the toothpaste back in the tube" might be very difficult. FCC has proposed major changes to these rules in the Docket 13-44 NPRM. Learn how these might affect both the equipment community and the spectrum user community.
Speakers: Mitchell Lazarus, Fletcher, Heald & Hildreth; Michael Violette, PE Washington Laboratories, Ltd.; Michael Marcus, Virginia Tech

Event: Brown Bag Lunch
Date/Time: Wednesday, May 1, 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
Location: T-Mobile, 601 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, North Building, Suite 800
Topic: Wireline Broadband Technology Advances – Getting a Gigabit to the Home. Throughout the United States wire line broadband providers are deploying new technologies that support higher broadband speeds. While it is tempting to think of wire or cable or fiber "in the ground" as limited in capacity, in many cases the capacity of installed lines can be expanded by using upgraded electronics to increase the efficiency of lines previously installed and improving the efficiency of sunk costs. This panel will feature a discussion and overview of current and future technologies for traditional copper telephone lines, cable, and fiber broadband technologies. Speakers from Verizon, NCTA, AT&T, Comcast have been invited.

In MEMORIAM

Thomas J. Dougherty, Sr. (1925 – 2012)

Thomas J. Dougherty, Sr., a long-time Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel of Metromedia, Inc. (which became part of Fox Television Network) died at 87 in Murrells Inlet, South Carolina. He was Metromedia's representative in Washington – in charge of all regulatory and government affairs, representing the company in matters at the FCC, in the federal courts and before Congress.

During his 26 years at Metromedia, it became one of the leading communications companies, with holdings that included television and radio stations, paging and cellular operations, and outdoor advertising and entertainment, including the Harlem Globetrotters. Dougherty had a key role in one of the seminal cases involving transfers and assignments, helping John Kluge take Metromedia private in a $1.1 billion leveraged buyout. The transaction was remarkable because even though Mr. Kluge held only 3% of the stock of Metromedia, the Commission determined that Mr. Kluge held de facto control and his acquisition of 100% of the stock was not considered a substantial change in ownership.

Tom Dougherty served in the U.S. Navy in the Pacific in World War II. After spending one year at the University of North Dakota, he transferred to the George Washington University where he earned bachelor's and law degrees. He began his long telecommunications career at Dow Lohnes & Albertson. From 1957-1961 he was the Legal Advisor to FCC Commissioner Robert E. Lee, leaving to open the Metromedia office.

His long-time friend and colleague, Preston Padden, recounted: "Tom was a brilliant and innovative lawyer. He was a gifted writer with an amazing command of language. One of his favorite flourishes was to spend several pages destroying his opponent's argument and then adding the Latin phrase, 'Reductio ad absurdum' - in other words, not only is your argument wrong, it is absurd!"

Dougherty is survived by his second wife, Beverly (his first wife and college sweetheart Anne died in 1996); eight children -- FCBA member Thomas J. Dougherty, Jr., Anne Dougherty, Paul C. Dougherty, Scott Dougherty, Craig Dougherty, Diane Chachas, Sharon Dougherty and Melanie Dougherty; and 12 grandchildren.

Get to Know an FCBA MEMBER

FCC Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel

FCC Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel has been an FCBA member for over 15 years. FCBA President Laura Phillips interviewed her and posed to her questions about her career, her life outside the walls of the FCC and elicited some reflections and thoughts on topics beyond communications law and policy. We hope you find this feature interesting and informative.

Q: Tell us what attracted you to the field of communications.

A: I am fascinated by how communications networks inform, power, and enhance just about everything we do in modern life.

Consider a day, any day in your life, and try to imagine it without those networks. From the radio that wakes you, to the calls you make throughout the day, to the Internet searches and broadband capabilities you rely on, to the television you turn on for news and entertainment—they all involve the power of communications networks. They keep us connected and they keep us safe. It's a privilege to work at the Commission and be a part of it.

Q: To the extent you started out with the intention of having a career in this space, have things progressed the way you envisioned?

A: I think serendipity has a role in most things. But for me, my interest in communications law really began with one of my earliest tasks as a young law firm associate. I was on a team charged with preparing a state-owned communications enterprise for private sale. It was a fascinating look into network deployment, operation, and investment.

It piqued my curiosity in communications and in many ways led me down the path to where I am today.

Following my time in the private sector, I spent time down in the trenches at the agency and later up on Capitol Hill. So I have had the privilege of seeing communications policy from a variety of seats. I am grateful to have had such a variety of opportunities and I think it really helps me approach the tasks before the Commission in my current role.

Q: What's a typical day in your life?

A: The typical is atypical. No one day is like any other. There is a lot of reading, a lot of writing, a lot of meeting, and a lot of discussion. Some days that takes place in the office. Many days are on the road, traveling domestically and abroad to discuss how the agency is working to inspire confidence in digital age network investment and confidence for consumers to take advantage of digital age opportunities and services. My office has learned to appreciate my willingness to jump on a plane in short order and head back just as fast on a redeye—or so they tell me!

But when I'm home, I'm an early riser and a mean breakfast cook. I love sitting around the table in the morning with my kids and hearing them chatter about their plans for the school day.

Q: Can you share an interesting story or tidbit about you that is not widely known?

A: I have one sibling, a brother, who is the drummer for the band Guster. So my parents have a rocker and a regulator for children. What were the odds of that?

Q: What are you reading now?

A: I am always reading a few things at once. I bounce between volumes. Right now, on the nightstand I have "Land of Promise" by Michael Lind, which is an economic history of the United States that contrasts the ideas of Jefferson and Hamilton and asks big questions about fostering sustainable growth. I also am reading "Tesla: Man Out of Time" by Margaret Cheney, a biography of the eccentric innovator responsible for the design of alternating current. In addition, I'm quickly making my way through "This is How You Lose Her" by Junot Diaz. His storytelling skill is extraordinary and his writing about modern immigrant life crackles with energy.

Q: What's the most challenging part of your current position?

A: There are only 24 hours in the day. I wish I could take more meetings and engage in more discussions. There are so many interesting things going on in communications and I genuinely learn something from every event and every encounter.

Q: What's surprised or impressed you the most about the people you currently work with and why?

A: I have been pleasantly surprised by the collegiality of my fellow Commissioners. We work well together and though occasionally we evaluate facts differently, the vast bulk of our decisions are unanimous. In large part, that unanimity is made possible by the thoroughness of the public servants throughout the agency. They are uncommonly devoted to their work and true professionals.

Q: Can you share a perspective on pitfalls to avoid or other career advice for those just getting started in communications?

ROSENWORCEL

A: Technology is changing at a breathtaking pace. Laws and regulations struggle to keep up. You will be continually challenged to identify how new services fall within old rubrics. Look at the text of the law, but also look at the policies that inform the law. So on a professional level, it is important to be able to think creatively but also respect the legal frameworks established by Congress. And on a personal level, I think it is obvious, but worth noting, that it is important to treat everyone around you fairly and with dignity.

Q: How long have you been an FCBA member and why would you urge others to join the FCBA; what's the value of membership to you?

A: I first joined the FCBA when I first started practicing communications law. That was more than 15 years ago.

I think the FCBA is a great organization. It provides a non-stop forum for discussion, gathers some of the most interesting speakers on some of the most interesting issues in communications, and fosters a special sense of community within the bar. I am proud to be a member and proud to be a part of it.

A Message from the FCBA Foundation Chair

Spring is upon us, which means at the FCBA Foundation we are reviewing scholarship applications. This year we received applications for 4-year FCBA Foundation scholarships from 37 students attending 11 local high schools. The interview process will begin in just a couple of weeks. The Foundation Board of Trustees and our Scholarship Committee extend our deep appreciation to more than 50 individuals who have volunteered to review applications and conduct interviews.

Spring also is the time when we wrap up our annual fund drive. Our fiscal year ends June 30, so if you have not already done so, please go to our website, call us, or send us an e-mail and indicate your intention to donate to the Foundation this fiscal year. Your contributions are essential for all of our programs, including college scholarships, summer internships (more about them next month), and our graduate scholarship pilot program.

Last year we began a pilot program to fund 3-year scholarships for law students intending to pursue communications law and in need of financial aid. Our first winner, Megan Coontz, attends the University of Colorado at Boulder and is receiving $10,000 per year towards her tuition plus a new laptop from the Foundation. At the start of her second semester, Megan wrote to update us on her progress. We thought you would like to hear how Megan is pursuing her interest in communications law.

Dear FCBA Foundation:

Thank you for the laptop computer! I am honored and it will help me immensely with my studies.

I also want to take this opportunity to extend a heartfelt thank you for the FCBA scholarship. The award has led to incredible opportunities. Last semester I was able to study the issue of receiver performance standards, interference, and the efficiency of wireless spectrum from the perspective of incumbent services through the Fall Telecommunication Challenge. This event afforded me the opportunity to work with students in the graduate engineering program and make connections with important industry professionals.

Additionally, last month I received summer internship offers from both the Hatfield Scholars Program and the Steiger Fellowship; both pertaining to communication law. The difficult decision of selecting between these offers was made easier through the advice of Dale Hatfield, who encouraged me to accept the Steiger Fellowship and pursue an internship at the International Bureau of the FCC through the Hatfield Scholars Program during the summer of 2014. Accordingly, I will be working on issues pertaining to the Communications Privacy Act at the FTC this summer through the Steiger Fellowship and hope to gain important experience working within a federal agency. Both the Hatfield and Steiger Programs mentioned that the FCBA scholarship greatly strengthened my application.

I am enthusiastic about my future in Communications Law and I greatly appreciate all of the support the FCBA Foundation has given.

Sincerely,
Megan Coontz

In the next few months, the Foundation will award a 3-year scholarship to one additional student pursuing communications law at a different law school. As contemplated by the "pilot" nature of this program, the Foundation plans to seek feedback from all Foundation members as to whether, and how, the Foundation should continue to support the graduate scholarship program. Please look for our survey this Summer and give us your thoughts. Your input is essential to the Foundation's development of programs that further our mission and serve our membership.

Every FCBA member belongs to the FCBA Foundation and contributes in some way, and we want to make sure you also see the benefits. Many of you give generously each year to the Foundation's programs. If you haven't done so already, won't you call or e-mail our Fundraising Committee Chair Mark Schneider (mschneider@sidley.com, 202-736-8058) or visit the Foundation website and make a pledge now? If you have pledged, please encourage your colleagues and friends to do so, too. All pledges confirmed in writing before June 30 will be credited to this fiscal year.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees of the FCBA Foundation, many thanks for your continuing support.

17th Annual FCBA Foundation Golf Tournament to be Held Tuesday, June 4

NEW LOCATION, NEW TIME,
NEW (LOWER) PRICES ~
WE'RE ROLLING BACK OUR FEES TO 2003!

If you haven't joined your industry friends and colleagues recently for the FCBA Foundation's annual tournament (or even if you haven't played much golf recently) this is the year to get back out there for this fun event in support of the FCBA Foundation's programs. In response to your suggestions, we have changed things up to make it easier than ever to join us for this great day of fun for a great cause.

First, we have moved this year's tournament to the beautiful and exceptionally convenient Westfields Golf Club, just off Route 66 in Centerville, VA. This Fred Couples designed course is one of best in the area, while still being fun and accessible for the high-handicappers among us. Westfields is also considered one of the best places in the area to hold a golf outing, combining a great course with terrific hospitality.

Second, in order to make participation even more convenient, this year's tournament will be held in the afternoon in order to allow our workaholic friends to get in a few hours at the office (or plenty of time to warm up on the range). Shotgun start will be at 1:00 p.m. followed by a post-round awards reception.

Finally, we are rolling back registration fees 10 years in order to make the tournament accessible to as many players as possible! Hopefully, we can encourage many new participants to come out for this great cause, meet new friends, and get re-acquainted with old colleagues!

See registration details on page 33 of this newsletter and register today! In the meantime, the Golf Committee always welcomes prize donations or those interested in helping out! Contact Glenn Reynolds at greynolds@ustelecom.org if you want to help!

College Scholarship Program Call for Mentors

The FCBA Foundation is looking for FCBA members interested in serving as a mentor to one of the recipients of a 2013 FCBA Foundation college scholarship. As a mentor, you would be asked to initiate a few communications throughout the year with your mentee as they embark upon and pursue their college careers. The scholarship recipients, all of whom come from Washington, DC high schools, will be entering college in the fall of 2013.

In addition to the Foundation's scholarship, the mentoring program provides the students with the vital support network to make the often difficult transition to college life. Historically, very few of the scholarship recipients have had family members who had attended college and who could help them adjust to the new environment and expectations that college presents to a student. It takes little time, but can be very rewarding as you watch

Interested in Hosting an FCBA event?

The FCBA greatly appreciates the support of our members' firms and companies who provide space for our brown bag lunches, committee meetings, and CLE Seminars throughout the year. We are, however, always looking for new locations that can host FCBA events. We will be experimenting with some new presentation technology in future CLE seminars, which require more technical support than we have needed in the past.

In general terms, we need conference rooms that can seat at least 30 (more if possible) people at tables for brown bag lunches and committee meetings and conference rooms that can seat a minimum of 60 for CLE seminars. Firms and companies hosting brown bag lunches provide beverages and desserts; firms and companies hosting CLE seminars provide beverages and snacks. CLE seminars are generally held from 6:00 – 8:30 p.m. Additionally, for CLE seminars we need facilities that can provide technology support for microphones for as many as six speakers on a panel, the ability to tie the house sound system into a teleconference bridge, video projection capabilities for PowerPoint presentations, and access to the internet for Webinar services. If your firm or company has the needed conference room facilities and capabilities and would be willing to host future FCBA activities, please email Stan Zenor, stan@fcba.org, or Kerry Loughney, kerry@fcba.org.

Should you be selected as a mentor, please keep in mind that oftentimes, the mentee may not feel comfortable initiating conversation or asking for help. We will provide you with some conversation topics for when you meet with your mentee. We would also ask that you provide your mentee with your contact info and let them know that they should be making the effort to reach out to you.

Please contact Alison Minea at Alison.Minea@dish.com with your interest, and with any questions you may have regarding the mentoring program. Please let her know by Tuesday, May 21, along with the undergraduate and graduate schools you attended, and if you are willing to attend the FCBA Annual Lunch in early June to meet your mentee. The Foundation also is planning a summer event in July with the mentors and their mentees before the students head off to college.

Thank you for your continued support of the FCBA Foundation and its College Scholarship Program.

Privacy and Data Security Committee to Volunteer at Martha's Table on April 28

On Sunday, April 28, 2013, from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m., the Privacy and Data Security Committee will be preparing and distributing food at the FCBA Foundation's partner charity, Martha's Table. The FCBA has been meeting monthly to volunteer at Martha's Table for many years. Martha's Table feeds hundreds of homeless adults and children on the streets of Washington daily, through its mobile soup kitchen. Martha's Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Volunteers are asked to bring food if possible, (e.g., cold cuts, bread, peanut butter, jelly, vegetables and potatoes) because the center often runs out of donated food.

Please mark your calendars, bring your friends and children, and participate in this great volunteer effort. If you are able to volunteer on April 28 or a future date, please contact Howard Weiss at 703-812-0471, weiss@fhhlaw.com.

The FCBA volunteers on the last Sunday of every month, so mark your calendars now!

Third Annual FCBA and WBA's Mentoring Supper

On Wednesday, February 27, 2013, the Young Lawyers Committee, in partnership with the Communications Law Forum of the Women's Bar Association of the District of Columbia, hosted its third annual evening of mentoring for communications lawyers. Held at the law offices of Hogan Lovells US LLP, the program featured many prominent practitioners in the field of communications law acting as mentors to a diverse group of young lawyers and law students with an interest in practicing in this area.

The program was structured as three series of mentoring sessions with attendees seated at tables for six, with each table including at least two mentors joined by several mentees to discuss their careers and professional development, all while enjoying a delicious dinner and dessert provided by the host firm. The mentors led the discussion, relating the career paths that brought them to their current positions and responsibilities and describing the jobs they held along the way. Attendees were encouraged to ask any questions of the mentors, including those about career development and opportunities for professional growth. After a set period, the mentors moved to another table to continue the dialogue with another group of mentees. This format allowed the mentees to meet and learn from multiple mentors and hear different perspectives about the varied career path progressions available to communications lawyers.

The program also included a panel discussion spotlighting a trio of mentor/mentees to set the stage for the evening. Introduced by FCBA Young Lawyers Committee Co-chair, Justin Faulb, the panelists, Laura Phillips, Patrick McFadden, and Jennifer Oberhausen of Drinker Biddle & Reath, described how their mentor/mentee relationship evolved and how these connections benefited their careers and contributed to their law firm success. This discussion provided an informative and valuable look at mentoring in action and showcased the advantages that mentoring can provide to mentor and mentee alike.

The co-chairs of the FCBA's Young Lawyers Committee – Brendan Carr of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and Justin Faulb of Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott LLC – and the three co-chairs of the WBA's Communications Law Forum – Lynne Milne of the FCC, Laura Mow of The Law Office of Laura C. Mow, and Jennifer Duane of the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) – acted as mentors for the evening's program. These co-chairs very much appreciate the other mentors who volunteered their time to provide welcome career advice to the mentees participating in this program, including Laura Phillips, Patrick McFadden, and Jennifer Oberhausen of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP; Michele Farquhar and Mark Brennan of Hogan Lovells US LLP; Joseph Di Scipio of Fox Television Stations; Kathleen Kirby of Wiley Rein LLP; Matthew DelNero of Covington & Burling LLP; Luisa Lancetti of T-Mobile USA, Inc.; Jane Mago of the National Association of Broadcasters; Mary Beth Richards, formerly of the FCC and Federal Trade Commission (FTC); Krista Witanowski of CTIA – The Wireless Association; Lawrence Sarjeant of Century Link; Monica Desai of Patton Boggs LLP; Natalie Roisman and Bryan Tramont of Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP; Nirali Patel of Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP; Christopher Wright of Wiltshire & Grannis LLP; Anita Wallgren, formerly of the FCC and NTIA, Nese Guendelsberger of the FCC and Angela Kronenberg, Legal Advisor to FCC Commissioner Mignon Clyburn.

The Young Lawyers Committee and the WBA's Communications Law Forum thank the law firm of Hogan Lovells US LLP for graciously hosting this event for the third time. This mentoring program would not have been possible without the additional financial contributions of this program's other sponsors: CenturyLink, Inc., Consumer Electronics Association, Covington & Burling LLP, CTIA – The Wireless Association, DIRECTV, Inc., Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, Frontier Communications, National Association of Broadcasters, T-Mobile USA, Inc., Wiley Rein LLP, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, and Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP.

PANEL INTRODUCTIONS

Anne Swanson, Dow Lohnes PLLC

10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

YOUR LOCAL REGULATORY FORECAST

This panel will dig into the cold, hard truths of the current regulatory environment and examine some of the hottest FCC topics facing your broadcast clients. Has the online public file requirement exposed television stations to any new bone-chilling liabilities? Will this FCC's broadcast ownership ruling survive the inevitable blizzard of court challenges? Will auctions soon yield cold cash instead of spectrum freezes? What mind-numbing sales issues are stations facing now that political leads have gone cold? And will the new IP captioning and emergency information obligations lead to a chilling effect on local station content, including winter storm coverage, or focus new attention on all that broadcasters deliver, whatever the weather? Bank on our contestants -- sorry, panelists -- having a (snow)ball as they shovel through these and other issues.

Moderator:

Bill LeBeau, Holland & Knight LLP, Washington, DC

Speakers:

Matthew Berry, Office of Commissioner Ajit Pai, Federal Communications Commission, Washington, DC

Jennifer Johnson, Covington & Burling LLP, Washington, DC

Kathleen Kirby, Wiley Rein LLP, Washington, DC

Margaret Tobey, NBCUniversal, Washington, DC

11:15 – 12:15 p.m.

EMPLOYMENT ISSUES: AVOIDING A PERPETUAL WINTER OF DISCONTENT

Hiring, firing, recruiting, and avoiding chilly employee relations in the 21st century is about as easy as dodging moguls while blindfolded down a double black diamond. Don't be given the cold shoulder during your next EEO outreach. Join our expert panelists for navigating the icebergs of issues today's broadcasters are confronting, including Facebook and Twitter in the workplace and non-compete contracts.

DEEP FREEZE OR HOT SEAT? PRIVACY ISSUES IN NEW MEDIA & TECHNOLOGY

As broadcasters become increasingly innovative with their digital offerings, they are drifting into new areas of privacy concerns. Join our panelists as they discuss mobile apps, widgets, and other digital services that might otherwise have your clients skating on thin ice. What's the latest on telemarketing and text messaging regulation? Learn what's behind the rising number of class action lawsuits concerning text messaging, mobile apps, and location-based services. In light of the FTC's COPPA Review, what new rules could impact general audience websites, and how do you best insulate your clients regarding children's privacy issues? Our experts will tell you what you need to know so you're not left out in the cold.

Sam Matheny, Capitol Broadcasting Company, Inc., Raleigh, NC

Joanne McNabb, Privacy Enforcement and Protection Unit, California Department of Justice, Sacramento, CA

2:00 – 3:00 p.m.

COPYRIGHT & THE INTERNET: GIVING BROADCASTERS THE COLD SHOULDER?

Television is facing an avalanche of disruptive technologies that threaten to shred current business models. Our experts will discuss the latest developments regarding Aereo, AutoHop, FilmOn, and other video providers. During the last Congress, webcasters faced a distinctly chilly reception from legislators. Will there be a thaw in lawmakers' attitudes towards pending streaming legislation, and how will it affect your clients and their royalty payments? We'll have a flurry of social media issues to examine, as well as updates on the hot and cold relationships with the performing rights organizations (PROs), including settlements, rate-setting litigation, and antitrust lawsuits.

NEWSGATHERING: COVERING GROUND ZERO TRAGEDIES

Aurora and Sandy Hook are just two of the recent tragic incidents that highlight the journalistic challenge of getting a full, accurate story out to the world, without breaching common decency, journalistic ethics, or legalities. This panel will explore the many issues that ensnare newsgathering and coverage of today's mass tragedies and the high profile criminal trials that follow, from real-time crowd-sourced news verification errors, to access to 911 calls, grand jury transcripts and other criminal justice records, to liability for republishing links and other online content, and more.

2013 TPRC: The 41st Research Conference on Communication, Information and Internet Policy September 27 – September 29, 2013

Hosted by George Mason University School of Law, Arlington, VA

TPRC is now soliciting abstracts of papers, proposals for panels, tutorials and demonstrations, and student papers for presentation at the 2013 conference, to be held September 27-29, 2013 at the George Mason University Law School, in Arlington, Virginia. These presentations should report current theoretical or empirical research relevant to communication and information policy.

TPRC is an annual conference on communication, information and Internet policy that convenes international and interdisciplinary researchers and policymakers from academia, industry, government, and nonprofit organizations. Its purpose is to present original research relevant to policy making, share information about areas where research is needed, and engage in discussion on current policy issues. The conference program consists of presentations selected from submitted paper abstracts, student papers, and proposals for panels, tutorials, and demonstrations.

Contributions may be from any disciplinary perspective – the sole criterion is research quality. Topic areas in previous conferences have included competition, antitrust, and other market issues; broadband deployment and adoption; spectrum and wireless application policy; media, old and new; intellectual property, technology, and Internet law; privacy, security, identity and trust; governance and institutions; innovation and entrepreneurship; and distributional outcomes and social goals. The deadlines for submissions is March 31, 2013.

March 31, 2013: Main conference abstracts, and proposals for panels, tutorials and demonstrations. Acceptances/rejections will be provided by May 31, 2013. Complete papers for accepted abstracts will be due to TPRC on August 15, 2013.

April 30, 2013: Student papers. The student paper competition requires submission of completed papers rather than abstracts. Acceptances/rejections will be provided by June 30, 2013.

Full Call for Papers including review criteria is available at www.tprc.org.

Taste of Hershey Tour

How did Milton Hershey go from bankruptcy to brilliance, transforming chocolate from a luxury to an everyday treat? How did he invent a community? Why did he give away his fortune? That is the Hershey story.

The Saturday afternoon tour begins with lunch on your own at Café Zooka, inside The Hershey Story, The Museum on Chocolate Avenue. As a dessert portion of your meal, tour members will share a Countries of Origin Chocolate Tasting, a chance to hone skills as chocolate connoisseurs or simply enjoy tasting warm drinking chocolate, six single-origin samples from fruity African chocolate flavors to Indonesian chocolate with caramel overtones. This is the right predicate for your reserved place in a 45-minute Chocolate Lab class, describing the history of chocolate and exploring the unique qualities of chocolate through playful, hands-on experiences. This participatory class includes molding and dipping chocolate, and is appropriate for adults and children ages four and older. Admission to the Museum Experience at The Hershey Story is included in this tour. Breakthrough technology from start to finish places you inside the imagination of Milton Hershey. After you have had an hour to design your own chocolate bar wrapper and see historic factory machinery at work at the museum, there will be an hour-long History of Hershey Trolley Tour. This expedition takes our FCBA group on a fun and unforgettable trip to Mr. Hershey's birthplace, around the school that the Hersheys founded for underprivileged children, to the mansion that Mr. Hershey built, and around the town, with a guide providing a detailed historical narrative and plenty of chocolate samples.

Leaving the Hotel Hershey at 12:30 p.m., you will drive or car pool to Café Zooka, approximately two miles from the Hotel Hershey, at The Hershey Story museum. After finishing in the Chocolate Lab and touring the museum, at 3:45 p.m., you will drive or car pool to Chocolate World where you will catch the 4:15 p.m. trolley for the History of Hershey Trolley Tour. The trolley will return you to Chocolate World at 5:15 p.m.

The cost of the tour is $20.00 for adults and children over four years old. Children under four are not permitted to participate in the Chocolate Lab experience.

TO RESPOND TO JOB BANK LISTINGS

LAW FIRM / CORPORATE

4.13.1

Attorney – AT&T seeks a motivated, self-reliant attorney to support the company's network security group. This position will be located in Somerset County, New Jersey. The applicant must have at least six years of experience, and possess strong academic credentials, excellent communication, computer and organizational skills. Candidate will possess the ability to work with clients to gather facts quickly, apply the facts to the current state of the law, advise the business as to the immediate challenge, and communicate with leaders of the company effectively. The candidate will also counsel the network security group on plans to defend and limit network attacks, inclusive of network design, cooperation within the industry, with vendors, and among enterprise customers. Qualified candidate will help develop protocols for sharing information with private and public entities and advise and provide insight as to how best to work with relevant federal government agencies. Appropriate security clearance eligibility is required. Overall, the lawyer will work with lawyers and clients to insure compliance with law and company policy.

Resume, writing sample, references and a copy of law school transcripts verifying J.D., grades and class standing required.

Please apply at <http://att.jobs>, click on Job Search & Apply, enter in Job Number "1318139".

Broadcast Associate – Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP seeks a mid-level associate candidate for its top-tier communications and technology practice in Washington, DC. Applicants should possess outstanding academic credentials, superb writing ability, excellent analytical skills, good judgment and client-relations skills, and at least three years' experience in broadcast regulatory and transactional law. We provide competitive compensation and benefits, excellent partnership prospects, and a collegial, entrepreneurial and good-natured work environment.

WBK offers the benefits associated with a dynamic mid-sized boutique combined with the unique opportunities available to one of the largest communications practices in the nation. The firm is consistently involved in cutting-edge legal, policy, transactional and business issues for a broad array of industry-leading communications, broadcast and technology clients. We also have managed to avoid strict hierarchies, thick policy manuals, or a bureaucratic outlook. WBK offers meaningful practice development and leadership opportunities for attorneys at all levels.

If you are a self-starter with a keen intellect, an entrepreneurial spirit and a good sense of humor, there is no better place to practice communications law.

Interested candidates should send resumes, transcripts, and persuasive writing samples to Recruiting@wbklaw.com. Applications must be received by April 30, 2013, but we may begin making interview decisions on a rolling basis prior to that date. All inquiries will be kept in confidence.

Communications Associate – A major Washington, DC communications firm seeks an associate with 1-3 years of relevant experience for its sophisticated and dynamic practice. The firm serves a diverse nationwide clientele comprised of major communications, media, entertainment, online, and technology companies as well as leading financial and higher education institutions. The successful candidate will work closely with partners and other senior attorneys in counseling and advocating for clients spanning all major communications sectors, including broadcast, wireless, wireline, cable, and satellite.

The firm is looking for an individual who is highly motivated, willing to learn and work across many subject areas, detail-oriented, and committed to providing the highest quality legal service to clients. Candidates must have excellent writing, interpersonal, and analytical skills, in addition to a demonstrated interest in communications law. Candidates must be admitted to the DC bar or eligible to waive in. Competitive compensation, training and benefits provided.

To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, law school transcript and legal writing sample to: Kerry Loughney, FCBA, 1020 19th Street, NW, Suite 325, Washington, DC 20036-6101, or email to kerry@fcba.org. Please clearly indicate the Blind Box number to which you are responding.

CHAIRMAN LEE

The tournament is named in memory of former Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Chairman Robert E. Lee, who passed away in April 1993 after serving on the FCC for almost thirty years. Chairman Lee served as a Commissioner of the FCC for 28 years and was instrumental in the early development of color television, among other contributions to federal communications policy.
