PRESIDENT'S Message

DEAR FELLOW MEMBERS:

It has been a great honor to serve as FCBA President over the past 12 months. Last year, outgoing President Julie M. Kearney handed over a healthy, vibrant organization, and it has been my main goal to continue this long-followed tradition for incoming President Joshua S. Turner.

The bittersweet exchange of the gavel will occur on June 19, 2019, at our Annual Lunch. First, we will have the distinct privilege of hearing from FCC Commissioner Geoffrey Starks about his first five months as a Commissioner. The FCBA Foundation will also play a prominent role by introducing us to the recipients of their College and Law School Scholarships and Law Student Summer Stipends. FCBA Foundation Co-Chairs Johanna Rose Thomas and Rebecca Murphy Thompson, along with the Foundation Board: Justin Faulb, Patrick Halley, Scott K. Bergmann, Megan Brown, Darah S. Franklin, Jordan B. Goldstein, Aspasia Paroutsas, Thomas C. Power, Joy Ragsdale, and Davina Sashkin, worked tirelessly on these much-needed programs.

On June 25th we will gather again to present the 12th Annual Excellence in Government Service Award to Kris Anne Monteith, Chief of the FCC's Wireline Competition Bureau. Held at Microsoft's Innovation and Policy Center, the Summer Reception is an excellent time to honor Kris' outstanding government service, and share vacation plans with your friends.

I have a mile-long list of people to thank for their invaluable assistance over the past year. This year's FCBA Executive Committee, led by officers Joshua S. Turner, Natalie G. Roisman, Anna Gomez, Megan Anne Stull and Barry J. Ohlson, and members John B. Branscome, Karen Brinkmann, Rudy N. Brioché, Russell P. Hanser, Diane Griffin Holland, Julie M. Kearney, Kathleen A. Kirby, Roger C. Sherman, Angela M. Simpson, Sean Spivey, Anne Swanson and Krista Witanowski contributed countless hours ensuring that the FCBA programming and services were exceptional. I'd also like to thank the co-chairs of our standing and ad-hoc Committees, along with our chapter co-chairs and representatives Robyn R. Polashuk and Timothy G. Nelson, for producing substantive and informative programming – 17 CLEs, 60+ monthly Brown Bag lunches in the past 12 months! Additionally, Bob Branson returned to FCBA Service to chair the Nominations Committee.

Two other groups deserve special recognition – the Young Lawyers Committee, led by Rachel Nemeth, Elizabeth Cuttner, and Thom Parisi, and the Annual Seminar Committee, led by Chair Scott Deutchman, along with Ann Bobeck, Erin Griffith, Brooks Harlow, Scott Blake Harris, Anisa Latif, Lynne Milne, Genny Morelli, and Megan Anne Stull. The YLC's Annual Charity Auction raised more than $90,000 for New Endeavors

Monday, June 10, 3:00 – 5:15 p.m. Robocalling Enforcement: Procedures and Penalties

The FCBA Enforcement and Wireline Committees will sponsor a CLE on Monday, June 10 from 3:00 – 5:15 p.m. entitled “Robocalling Enforcement: Procedures and Penalties.” This program will be held at Jenner & Block LLP, 1099 New York Avenue, NW, Suite 900.

To register, click here or go to the FCBA Website – Calendar of Events or use the form on page 22.

Agenda

3:00 – 3:05 p.m.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

Michael Saperstein, Co-Chair, FCBA Enforcement Committee, USTelecom – The Broadband Association

3:05 – 4:00 p.m.

ROBOCALLING ENFORCEMENT AND OUTLOOK

In this first panel, the discussion will focus on the FCC’s robocalling enforcement framework, with an emphasis on the agency’s record-setting fines against platform providers for spoofed robocalling campaigns. The panel will review how industry and the Federal government are currently working together to improve enforcement against illegal robocallers, through mechanisms such as industry traceback. The panel also will discuss how the implementation of call authentication tools like SHAKEN/STIR will aid industry traceback efforts of illegal robocalling campaigns.

Moderator:

J. Bradford Currier, Associate, Kelley Drye & Warren LLP

Speakers:

Kristi Thompson, Chief, Telecommunications Consumers Division, Enforcement Bureau, FCC (invited)

Kevin Rupy, Partner, Wiley Rein LLP
Patrick Halley, Senior Vice President, Policy & Advocacy, USTelecom – The Broadband Association

4:00 – 4:10 p.m.

BREAK

4:10 – 5:15 p.m.

ROBOCALLING REGULATIONS AND REFORM

During this second panel, our experts will address the FCC’s changes to its regulations in the area of robocalls, to include recent adoption of rules for a reassigned number database, expansion of the ability of voice providers to block suspected illegal robocalls, including recent FCC action, and reforms to its TCPA framework. The panel also will discuss how the FCC assesses harm to consumers and service providers from illegal spoofing, while maintaining the use of spoofing for legitimate services, and provide predictions on where the FCC may go regarding robocalling enforcement.

Moderator:

Glenn Reynolds, Head of Government and Industry Relations, iconectiv

Speakers:

Mark Stone, Deputy Bureau Chief, Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau, FCC (invited)

Dan Ball, Senate Commerce Committee Majority

Linda Vandeloop, AT&T

Rebecca Murphy Thompson, Head, Communications Policy, Global Public Policy & Government Affairs, Twilio

Monday, June 24, 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. FCC Year in Review

The FCBA Judicial Committee will sponsor a CLE on Monday, June 24 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. entitled “FCC Year in Review.” This program will be held at Wiley Rein LLP, 1776 K Street, NW.

To register, click here or go to the FCBA Website – Calendar of Events or use the form on page 22.

Agenda

6:05 – 7:10 p.m.

OVERVIEW OF FCC AND COMMUNICATIONS PRECEDENT

This part of the program will feature Richard Welch and Jacob Lewis from the FCC General Counsel’s Office, who will discuss major decisions from the past year affecting the FCC and the communications industries.

Speakers:

Richard Welch, Deputy Associate General Counsel and Deputy Division Chief of the Litigation Division, Federal Communications Commission

Jacob Lewis, Associate General Counsel and Chief of the Litigation Division, Federal Communications Commission

7:10 – 7:20 p.m.

BREAK

7:20 – 8:15 p.m.

PDR NETWORK, THE HOBBS ACT, AND THE FUTURE OF DEFERENCE TO THE FCC

This panel discussion will focus on the Supreme Court’s pending decision about when the Hobbs Act requires district courts to accept the Federal Communication Commission’s legal interpretation of statutes and how that case will shape judicial deference to the FCC’s decisions.

Speakers:

Ashley Johnson, Partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

Kwaku Akowuah, Partner, Sidley Austin LLP

Additional Speakers to be Announced

Kris Anne Monteith is the Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau, which works to ensure that all Americans have access to robust, affordable broadband and voice services, through universal service programs; a competition policy framework that protects consumers and fosters competition; and policymaking informed by comprehensive data about communications services, including broadband. In her over twenty-two years with the Commission, Ms. Monteith has served in a number of senior leadership positions, including Chief of the Enforcement Bureau; Acting Chief of the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau; Deputy Chief and Chief Data Officer of the Media Bureau; Deputy Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau; Deputy Chief of the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau; and, Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau's Policy Division. Ms. Monteith also served as the Designated Federal Officer to the North American Numbering Council.

Before joining the Commission in 1997, Ms. Monteith practiced telecommunications law with McDermott, Will and Emery and Keller and Heckman in Washington, D.C.

Ms. Monteith received her J.D. from the George Washington University and her B.A. from the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Get to Know an FCBA MEMBER

Justin Faulb

By: Laura Phillips

Justin Faulb is currently a Legal Advisor in the front office of the Wireline Competition Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission, but he has had a varied career in wireline, media and broadcast law and policy. Over the years, he has also been extremely supportive of the work of the FCBA Foundation. He previously co-chaired the FCBA Young Lawyer's Committee and now serves as a trustee. I was delighted to have the opportunity to talk to Justin about what he is doing and get some insights to share about how to approach a career in communications.

Q: What attracted you to the field of communications?

A: I was a communications major in college. As an undergraduate, I spent the summer in London preparing a marketing campaign for Pepsi. It was striking to me then how much I was drawn to the legal and policy issues that bubbled up over the course of that campaign. That provided me with the insight that I might be well served to look seriously at becoming a communications lawyer. Once I began investigating communications law programs, I found a strong one at the Catholic University of America law school. Once enrolled, I joined the Communications Law Institute and I dove right in. I was President of the Institute during my third year and I was deeply involved in the NATEL moot court competition. I also joined the FCBA as a student and volunteered at the FCBA Charity Auction. Then following law school, I became a communications associate, concentrating mostly in broadcast matters. So I'd say once I started down the path of communications, I was hooked.

Q: Have things unfold in your career more or less the way you planned?

A: I had no real plan for my career except to say the initial plan was to find a promising starting position after I graduated from law school in 2008, an extremely challenging time indeed. I did the best I could with that challenge and knew that to build a career would mean taking some calculated risks. I also knew that at some point I would enjoy working at the FCC. I based that on my experience at the FCC as an intern while in law school with then Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein. But of course, as with anything, there had to be the right opportunity at the right time. So I spent a good bit of time over the years practicing communications law at a couple of law firms and a trade association, extending my portfolio from broadcasting to wireless and some broadband work.

The FCC opportunity I had envisioned presented itself about three years ago. I joined the Pricing Policy Division of the Wireline Competition Bureau and it was a terrific experience. In December of last year I moved to the front office of the Bureau as a Legal Advisor. While there are plenty of meetings internally and externally on a wide range of issues, I am happy to say that most of what I do is connected with broadband law and policy and other issues within the Bureau.

Q: What's the most interesting or challenging thing that occupies you in your current position?

A: Life in the front office of the Bureau tends to present many challenging, but fun, issues. A recent challenge is that I was recently appointed Federal Designated Officer for the reconstituted Broadband Deployment Advisory Committee. I have to say also it's been particularly useful and interesting in my role in the Bureau to interact with people from well outside the Beltway who we don't always see or hear from much on how important legal and policy issues affect them.

Q: What something or someone has surprised or impressed you during your career and why?

A: When I think back I have to say I'm very lucky to have had talented, caring, and patient mentors at lots of points along my way. They've each individually and collectively had a positive impact on my life outlook and in enhancing my career prospects. I think it's important that they listened and were willing to provide their insight and took time to reassure me sometimes that my ideas were not so crazy.

Q: What do you enjoy reading?

A: I'm a nonfiction guy and have tended more recently toward science fiction as I find it to be a great distraction from daily life. As a parent of young children I would also recommend for "But Not the Hippopotamus" by Sandra Boynton. Maybe not as eternal as the Iliad or Odyssey, but the New Yorker once called it a "masterpiece" and it's quite entertaining as a children's bedtime story.

Q: Can you share a perspective and pitfalls to avoid or other career advice for those who are just getting started in the communications field?

A: It's possible that as a young professional you start working and just assume that things should work out for you well and easily. That assumption can lead to disenchantment. But I'd suggest that a better path would be to assume that plum assignments and expanding career projects prospects will not be simply handed to you; you have to work for them.

My other advice would be to always try new things and be open to changes you may not expect. There is no single path to a rewarding career, so be open to the possibilities and don't believe that success looks the same for everyone. Finally, I recommend getting to know people within whatever organization you're in. Find a natural way for you to network. The FCBA of course is a good venue for learning how to network and don't be afraid to get out there and talk to people at various FCBA events. If you don't know anyone, I'm always willing to chat.

Q: What is something interesting about you that people are not generally aware of that you're willing to share?

A: My daughter's name is inspired from a character on the Bravo reality TV show, Southern Charm, and my son's name is inspired from a character on a Netflix series.

Q: How long have you been an FCBA member and what is the value of FCBA membership?

A: I've been an FCBA member since the second year of my law school career. The FCBA's been extremely valuable as I progressed in my career. Some of the relationships I made within the bar led me to internships and job opportunities that I might not otherwise have ever known about; so that is a key benefit. I've also found Brown Bag lunches and CLEs to be incredibly informative and easy ways to jumpstart learning about new areas of communications law.

My time with the Young Lawyers Committee and now with the FCBA Foundation has been very fulfilling. The Annual Charity Auction is a wonderful event that I have been a part of for ten years. The year I chaired the Charity Auction Committee we set the fundraising record, $140,000, which still stands. It was a testament to the great people who volunteered to help that year! I also get great personal satisfaction from knowing that FCBA members, through donations to the Foundation, are able to offer such generous scholarships to high school students who often would not otherwise be able to attend college. We awarded nearly $300,000 to these worthy students this last year alone.

Interested in learning more about another FCBA member? If there is a member you'd like to know better, please contact Laura Phillips at laura.phillips@db.com.

Interested in Hosting an FCBA event?

The FCBA greatly appreciates the support of our members' firms and companies who provide space for our brown bag lunches, committee meetings, and CLE Seminars throughout the year. We are, however, always looking for new locations that can host FCBA events.

In general, we need conference rooms that can seat at least 30 people at tables for brown bag lunches and committee meetings and conference rooms that can seat at least 60 people theatre style for CLE seminars. Firms and companies hosting brown bag lunches provide beverages and desserts; firms and companies hosting CLE seminars provide beverages and snacks. Brown bag lunches are generally held from 12:00 – 1:30 p.m. and CLE seminars are generally held from 12:00 – 2:15 p.m., 3:00 – 5:15 p.m., or 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. Additionally, for CLE seminars we need facilities that can provide technology support for microphones for as many as six speakers on a panel, the ability to tie the house sound system into a teleconference bridge, and video projection capabilities for PowerPoint presentations. If your firm or company has the needed conference room facilities and capabilities and would be willing to host future FCBA activities, please email Kerry Loughney, kerry@fcba.org.

To Update Your Membership Contact Information

We'd like to remind everyone that if you have any changes to your membership contact information, please contact Elizabeth Hagerty (elizabeth@fcba.org). In order to keep a cohesive look to both our online and hard copy directories, we do not allow members to make any changes to their information themselves. Also note that we do not include prefixes or titles in any of our member listings.

LAW FIRM/CORPORATE

6.19.1

Associate – Klein Law Group PLLC, a DC- based telecom and litigation boutique, is seeking an associate to join our growing national practice. Great full or part-time opportunity for intelligent, motivated individual to work with some of the top wireline, cable, wireless and IP providers, in a collegial environment. While regulatory or litigation experience is preferable, intelligence, determination, analytical ability, attention to detail, and superior writing skills are of paramount importance. Given national practice scope, some flexibility concerning specific bar membership and location requirements. Please send resume and writing sample to Admin@KleinLawpllc.com.

6.19.2

Communications Regulatory Associate – Hogan Lovells's Communications, Internet, and Media practice group seeks a mid-level regulatory associate, preferably with 3-5 years of communications regulatory experience. Our Communications, Internet, and Media regulatory practice consistently ranks as among the nation's best in expertise, legal ability, client service, and business understanding. We are looking for the same qualities in a new associate. Our practice supports all major industry sectors, including wireless, broadband, media, satellite, and Internet economy. Duties include legal research, writing, and oral advocacy before the FCC, NTIA, FTC, Congress, and other government agencies. The associate will also have a high degree of responsibility in supporting attorneys and counseling clients on legal, policy, commercial, compliance and technology matters.

Strong academic credentials, excellent research, writing, and oral communication skills, and a demonstrated ability to perform effectively in a law firm environment are essential. Membership in or eligibility for the D.C. bar is required. Experience working on communications-related litigation, commercial, or compliance matters—particularly, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA)—is a plus. Please include two communications or advocacy-oriented writing samples.

To apply please complete the on-line application, attaching a resume and law school transcript addressed to: Suzanne Hudgens, Regional Lateral Associate Recruitment Manager, DC Region, Hogan Lovells US LLP, 555 13th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20004 or at JoinHoganLovellsDC@hoganlovells.com. Hogan Lovells is an Equal Opportunity Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, age, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, genetic information or protected veteran status.

Government Relations Counsel – Crown Castle is seeking a Government Relations Counsel to reside in either Canonsburg, PA (metro Pittsburgh), or Lombard, IL (metro Chicago). The GRC provides legal analysis and advice to internal clients regarding right-of-way access rights, utility infrastructure access rights, permitting, private easements, project deployment and network operations, and advocates, negotiates and educates as an external advocate working with public sector attorneys and officials. The appropriate candidate will work well in a team environment and have a thorough understanding of local government permitting processes and procedures.

Key Qualifications include: (1) A minimum of four (4) years proven experience working in a planning, zoning, land use or implementation capacity directly for a utility, telecommunications provider, government entity or in private legal or consulting practice serving such entities; equivalent in a comparable industry or relevant military experience; (2) Experience presenting and speaking in public and/or before governmental entities, including presenting complex material at a level appropriate to the particular audience; (3) Sound, reasoned business judgment; comfortable "being an owner" and making strategic decisions considering both legal and business factors; and (4) Admitted to practice law in state where office is located, or able to gain admission or comply with applicable in-house counsel registration requirements. The candidate will provide legal support to Crown Castle's permitting, deployment, operations, regulatory and legislative efforts for small cell and fiber networks within an assigned geographic region. The GRC serves as an external advocate and resource on federal and state telecommunications law, and is called upon to interface with municipal attorneys' offices, municipal staff and legal audiences regarding legal matters related to municipal codes and procedures, and to provide effective communications regarding Crown Castle's right to occupy the right-of-way.

Candidates should apply at <https://www.crowncastle.com/careers/>, Requisition # GOVER01666.

Technology Transactions & Privacy Associate Attorney – Midlevel – The Washington, D.C. office of Perkins Coie LLP is seeking a mid-level associate to join its expanding Technology Transactions & Privacy practice and Communications Industry group. The ideal candidate will have at least 5 years of experience advising telecommunications (e.g., wireless or other spectrum, fiber, etc.) and technology companies on a variety of regulatory, policy, transactional, and litigation matters before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and Department of Justice (DOJ). Experience advising on international regulatory requirements in the telecommunications, law enforcement, and privacy fields is a plus. Additionally, some experience handling technology transactions such as licensing, cloud services and outsourcing, internet and e-commerce transactions, and related intellectual property issues in connection with joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, and financing transactions is required. Candidates with experience at an AmLaw 100 law firm and excellent academic credentials are preferred. To apply, please click on the link below and attach your cover letter, resume, and law school transcript.

Commissioner Starks has a long career of public and private sector experience. These experiences inform his commitment to working to ensure that no American is left behind in this era of transformative innovation. Most recently, Commissioner Starks served as Assistant Bureau Chief in the FCC's Enforcement Bureau, where he focused on protecting consumers, promoting network security, and preserving the integrity of the Commission's Universal Service Fund programs. Previously, he served as Senior Counsel in the Office of the Deputy Attorney General at the U.S. Department of Justice where he provided advice on domestic and international law enforcement issues, including civil, criminal, and national security matters. At DOJ, he received the Attorney General Award for Exceptional Service—the highest award a DOJ employee can receive. Prior to his entry into federal public service, Commissioner Starks was an attorney at the law firm Williams & Connolly, clerked for the Honorable Judge Duane Benton on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 8th Circuit, served as a legislative staffer in the Illinois State Senate, and worked as a financial analyst.

Commissioner Starks is a native of Kansas and was born in Kansas City, Missouri. Commissioner Starks earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Harvard College and a law degree from Yale Law School. He lives in Washington, D.C. with his wife, Lauren, and their two children.

Are you a member who can add to our programming as a speaker? Do you know someone who is? Can you think of a topic that should be the subject of an event?

The FCBA invites you to send your ideas! Our committees are always looking for potential speakers from diverse backgrounds. The Diversity Committee is compiling a database of FCBA members who want to add to the conversation on substantive topics as speakers and moderators. If you are interested, please send an email to Janeen Wynn, janeen@fcba.org, with your name, affiliation, and topics about which you have knowledge with the subject line "FCBA Speakers Bureau." The Diversity Committee will compile this database on a rolling basis and make it available to all committee co-chairs. FCBA committee co-chairs should feel free to use the Diversity Committee as a resource when identifying speakers or moderators for other events.

The FCLJ is Looking for Articles

The Federal Communications Law Journal (FCLJ) editorial board at The George Washington University Law School is seeking article submissions for potential publication in the upcoming issues of the FCLJ. Interested members may submit articles to the Senior Articles Editor, Katherine Krems (fcjarticles@law.gwu.edu). Articles may also be submitted through ExpressO. For general inquiries about the FCLJ, please contact the Editor-in-Chief, Stephen Conley (fcj@law.gwu.edu).
