Annual Seminar at Nemaconlin Approaches

It's Not Too Late to Sign Up!

The 2007 FCBA Annual Seminar is fast approaching! Join your colleagues and friends at this year's Annual Seminar, which will be held on May 4-6 at the beautiful Nemaconlin Woodlands Resort in Farmington, Pennsylvania. This year's Annual Seminar theme, "Ch-ch-changes," will highlight the fast-paced technological, business and regulatory changes that affect nearly every aspect of the communications industry.

The Annual Seminar will, as always, feature a variety of programming and a range of activities for industry professionals and their families and guests.

20th Annual Chairman's Dinner to Honor FCC Chairman Kevin J. Martin on April 10, 2007

Reserve Your Table Now!

The 20th Annual FCBA Chairman's Dinner will be held on Tuesday, April 10, 2007 at the Washington Hilton, 1919 Connecticut Avenue, NW. Don't miss this annual FCBA event! Use the form on page 31 to register.

Please remind your guests that the location of the reception has changed from previous years. This year the reception will be held in the Crystal Ballroom which is on the Ballroom level of the hotel, the same level as the dinner. The reception begins at 6:00 p.m. and the dinner will begin at 7:30 in the International Ballroom.

If you find that you need additional seating at a particular table, we can add up to two (2) additional places per table, at a cost of $180.00 per person. There are still a few tables available if you determine that another table is needed. The deadline for adding additional seats to existing tables or adding additional tables is COB, Thursday, April 5th. Please contact Stan Zenor if you have any questions regarding the dinner.

FCC Chairman Martin

PRESIDENT'S Message

DEAR MEMBERS,

One of the many benefits of FCBA membership is its networking opportunities. Last month's Welcome Reception for the 110th Congress provided us with another one of those opportunities – as you can see from the event photos on page 18, many of us were there to enjoy the evening.

As you all know, successful events don't just happen; they are the result of significant time commitment and personal efforts of our volunteers. I would like to thank the Legislative Committee Co-Chairs — Paula Timmons, Amy Levine and Chris Moore — for taking a fresh look at this bi-annual event, so as to find the perfect recipe for success. For example, we expanded the event to include staff from the Commerce, Judiciary, and Homeland Security Committees of both Chambers. In addition, we reached out to several trade associations with active FCBA members – CTIA, NAB, SIA and TIA — to join us in co-hosting the evening. Through these changes, we were able to create a more diverse and well-attended event for both our honored guests and members. I'd like to thank these Associations for their tremendous support, as well the sponsorship by many of our member law firms! I also want to acknowledge Mark Van Bergh for his fabulous photographs which capture the spirit and fun of the evening.

The annual publication of the FCBA Directory is always eagerly awaited. It is an important tool for us all. However, over the past few months, there have been a number of mergers of law firms and corporations that have affected the contact information of a significant number of our members. Therefore, we have delayed the release of the Directory to capture these changes, so that we could provide you with a more useful membership tool. You can anticipate receiving the updated Directory no later than the first week of May.

Finally, I look forward to seeing you all on April 10th at the Annual FCBA Chairman's Dinner, our largest event at which we honor the Chairman of the FCC. While this too is a wonderful networking opportunity, it is sometimes easy to forget that it is much more than that – it is an opportunity for us as the communications community to contribute to the future education of children in the DC Metropolitan area. Your generosity, through the sponsorship of Dinner tables, provides the FCBA Foundation with monies to annually fund an ever-increasing number of scholarships to local high school students. Last year, through donations to the FCBA Foundation, 18 local students were given the opportunity to pursue their collegiate dreams. Your continued commitment as a community to the Foundation is always impressive, and I have no doubts that this year will demonstrate the same support.

Thank you,

Jennifer A. Warren

Rocky Mountain Chapter

April 9, 2007 Law and Entrepreneurship: The Art of the Deal Regional Differences in Representing Growth Companies

To be held at The University of Colorado School of Law

The entrepreneurial spirit knows no geographic boundaries. But the founders, managers, and the lawyers who advise them operate in vastly different atmospheres. Innovation depends on multiple actors, including law firms, venture capital funds, universities, and other institutions. Corporate governance rules and the regulatory environment also spur or inhibit growth. Silicon Valley lawyers, for example, are said to operate in a looser environment, providing as much value through deal coordination and networking contacts as through technical legal advice. Is this a model we should replicate in Boulder? Is Boulder more like the West Coast or East Coast? What should we aspire to? What are the legal, institutional, and regulatory factors that encourage innovation?

The aim of the conference is to explore these questions of regional differences from descriptive, theoretical, and practical perspectives. The first panel will focus on the descriptive: what are the regional differences? Professor Victor Fleischer (Colorado) will moderate a discussion among VCs and lawyers with experience in both Silicon Valley and Boulder. The second panel will focus on how political economy affects regional advantage: Professor Vik Khanna (Michigan) will present a paper on corporate governance reforms in India and how legal change has affected growth there. The third panel, led by Professors Fleischer and Scott Peppet (Colorado), will focus on practical and ethical issues unique to representing growth companies.

Representing Your Local Broadcaster

Journey to the Legal Center of the New Media World

Over the past several years, the annual Las Vegas seminar on Representing Your Local Broadcaster has become one of the preeminent broadcast law programs in the country. The reason is a renewed focus on the practical, daily issues facing stations and their lawyers. For our 26th year, we will look at the major issues facing our industry from a unique perspective. We've staffed panels on Regulatory Compliance, Advertising, Privacy, Intellectual Property and Newsgathering with a sensational group of in-house and outside experts to walk through the critical issues in each area in a fast-paced, intense program, supplemented with extremely valuable background material. The luncheon program features timely discussion of the ongoing battle over indecency, the FCC and the Courts.

The day promises to be spirited, practical, penetrating and relevant — the makings of an excellent seminar program:

There will be an opportunity to network with attendees from noon to 12:30. Lunch will begin at 12:30 p.m. with an address by John Payton, who is a partner at WilmerHale and prominent diversity proponent.

The Diversity and Young Lawyers Committees invite all young lawyers to meet and have lunch with senior communications attorneys from Congress, major law firms, the FCC, and communications companies. Young lawyers will have the opportunity to network and discuss career questions. The Mentoring Luncheon is intended to facilitate collegiality and friendships between senior and junior level attorneys within the FCBA and communications industry. Attorneys at all levels of seniority are encouraged to attend.

Please contact Colin Sandy, csandy@neca.org or (202) 682-2496, should you have any questions.

The luncheon cost is $25.00. Please use the form on page 26 to register.

The IEEE Symposium on New Frontiers in Dynamic Spectrum Access Networks April 17 - 20, 2007 • Dublin, Ireland

Presented in Association with the FCBA

The DySPAN 2007 symposium is sponsored by the IEEE (International Electrical and Electronics Engineers) Communications Society with participation from Motorola, Nokia, NSF and other government and industry giants. In addition to IEEE Communications Society, the general sponsor, the symposium has the following technical co-sponsors: IET, OMG and NATRE; and is being presented in cooperation with the FCBA. All FCBA members will receive IEEE member registration rates.

The Internet, ad-hoc networking, cellular networking, spectrum policy and global mobility, will converge at a worldwide global policy and technology symposium taking place at the Burlington Hotel in Dublin on April 17-20, 2007. An unprecedented gathering of scientists, activists, technology companies, journalists and policy-makers from around the world will gather to discuss and design the intelligent mobile communications devices that we will carry in our pockets and our dashboards five years from now.

The Dynamic Spectrum Access Networks, (or DySPAN) symposium (<http://www.ieee-dyspan.org/>) will provide a global policy discussion and demonstration of scientific collaboration and technology development for X-generation mobile communications.

The DySPAN symposium focuses on a new world of developing technologies where spectrum is accessed opportunistically. In the dynamic spectrum model, spectrum policy and spectrum availability is "known" by the communications device. It can sense whether it should transmit or change frequency, waveform or protocol first. An "aware" handheld device can morph from a police radio to a cellular telephone, to a bio-sensor, to a wi-fi receiver, because it "learns" to operate in its spectral environment, adheres to regional policies concerning the rights to access airwaves in that environment, and understands its user's need for priority or non-priority access on the fly.

This new world of wireless technology, known as "cognitive radio" promises to alleviate spectrum scarcity, and limitations on user's mobility and capabilities. "Smart" radios will transform the command and control model for allocating spectrum, while making the airwaves freely available to users without fear of interference.

Keynote speakers at DySPAN include: Dr. Joseph Mitola II, Consulting Scientist, The MITRE Corporation. Dr. Mitola is an internationally recognized expert on software and cognitive radio systems and technologies who addresses critical DoD communications and information processing challenges. David Cleevely is Chairman of the Communications Research Network. He co-founded the Internet-based antibody company, Abcam, and has been a prime mover behind Cambridge Network. Bruce Fette, Ph.D, is Chief Scientist in the Communications Networking Division business area of General Dynamics C4 Systems in Scottsdale, Ariz. Peter Cochrane was Head of BT Research from 1993 - 99, in 1999 he was appointed Chief Technologist. In November 2000 Peter retired from BT to join his own startup company – ConceptLabs.

The general chair of DySpan 2007 is William Webb of OfCom in the United Kingdom. The Technical Program Committee Chairs are Friedrich Jondral, of the University of Karlsruhe Germany and Preston Marshall from DARPA, in the United States. The Policy Program Committee Chairs are Martin Cave of Warwick University, UK and William Lehr, MIT, USA.

Broadband Policy Summit III: Broadband Full Steam Ahead

June 7-8, 2007
The Ritz Carlton
Pentagon City,
Arlington, VA

Rep. Rick Boucher (D-VA), FCC Commissioner Robert M. McDowell and NTIA head John M.R. Kneuer are slated to keynote the Broadband Policy Summit III - the preeminent Washington forum where industry leaders discuss and debate the swirling forces of technology change, legislative leadership shifts, policy changes and evolving business models in the broadband space.

Register at <http://www.broadbandpolicysummit.com/registration.htm> to reserve your seat at this essential forum. Early bird rates end April 17th. Group and government rates are also available.

WHAT WILL BPS III COVER?

The latest inside information on broadband and IP communications business, legislative and regulatory trends, and how policy makers are grappling with the unprecedented pace of broadband-related service advances. Sessions will include:

- Regulatory Outlooks: New Hopes or New Hoops
- The New Legislative Agenda: Forward, Back, or Idle?
- Net Neutrality: Still on the Front Burner
- State & Local Roundup
- Emerging Applications & IP: Looking for Paradigms that Pay
- Broadband Deployment Update: The U.S. & Beyond
- Wall Street Watch: Money Talks, But What Does It Say?

SPECIAL BONUS

Summit attendees will receive a complimentary copy of Pike & Fischer's Broadband Business Outlook. This valuable mid-year report – slated for publication in June 2007 - will detail Pike & Fischer's latest projections about developments in the broadband services market. A $599 value!

CLE ACCREDITATION

Pike & Fischer will once again apply for CLE accreditation for the Summit in all states requested. 2005 & 2006 Summit attendees were approved for CLE in all states in which credit was requested. Approved credits have ranged from 8.75 to 13.0.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Pike & Fischer welcomes sponsors who seek greater recognition among and contact with top-tier executives and officials whose decisions are shaping the future of the broadband industry.

Sponsors receive prominent acknowledgement not only at the event itself, but also via email, print and web advertising leading up to the Summit. For more information, visit <http://www.broadbandpolicysummit.com/sponsorships.htm> or contact our Vice President of Business Development, Randy Cochran at rcochran@ioma.com or 212-576-8740.

Wednesday, April 11 Economic Analysis and Telecom Policy

Presented by the FCBA and the Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research (SIEPR)

Location: Hogan & Hartson LLP, 555 - 13th St., NW, 13th Floor, Washington, DC

Join us on Wednesday, April 11, 2007 from 12:00 – 3:00 p.m. for the second annual conference on Economic Analysis and Telecom Policy. The FCC and Department of Justice rely heavily on economic analysis in addressing public policy issues. Economic analysis is particularly important in determining the “public interest” in FCC and Department of Justice decisions that shape the structure of the marketplace, policies to facilitate efficient market entry and exit, and decisions on when and how to eliminate regulation and rely on market-driven competition.

This conference will examine how the FCC utilizes economic analysis and the role of the Department of Justice in promoting competition in communications. We will consider how the agencies ought to approach important short-term and long-term economic issues, and how they should choose between competing economic models and approaches presented by opposing parties.

Michelle Connolly, the FCC’s Chief Economist and Dennis Carlton, Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Economic Analysis at the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, will make presentations, joined by other leading economists in academia, government, and private practice. The conference, hosted and moderated by Greg Rosston of SIEPR and David Sieradzki of Hogan & Hartson LLP, will cover the application of economics and competition analysis to critical policy issues now under discussion at the FCC. Please use form on page 30 to register.

Agenda

11:45 – 12:00

REGISTRATION AND RECEPTION

12:00 – 12:10

WELCOME

Greg Rosston, Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research

Wednesday, May 16 Regulating for Innovation

Presented by the Engineering and Technical Practice Committee

The FCBA Engineering and Technical
Practice Committee will sponsor a CLE
Seminar from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, May 16, 2007, on Regulating for Innovation. The program will be held at Skadden, Arps,
Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP,
Conference Center, 700 14th Street,
NW, Washington, DC.

Does the FCC have the engines or the brakes? The Internet, Wi-Fi, and countless other technologies got a big boost from far-sighted regulatory policies. But when a new technology does not quite fit the rules, FCC approval can take years. And, once in the market, disruptive new technologies can challenge old policy assumptions, forcing Congress and the FCC to rethink what it means to regulate in the public interest. What principles guide the FCC in fostering innovation? How can practitioners best serve their technically creative clients?

Thursday, May 31 Counseling Communications Companies in Financial Trouble: Legal Issues and Operational Considerations

Presented by the Transactional Practice Committee

The FCBA Transactional Practice Committee will present a CLE Seminar on Thursday, May 31, 2007 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. on Counseling Communications Companies in Financial Trouble. The program will be held at Wiley Rein LLP, 1776 K Street, NW, Washington, D.C.

Communications companies that are having financial difficulties face unique challenges under the Communications Act and the FCC's rules and policies. However, with effective and thoughtful counseling, and advance planning, companies should be able to navigate these waters effectively.

Please look to the FCBA website and upcoming newsletters for further information. Please use form on page 30 to register.

Agenda

6:00 – 6:05 pm

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Christine Crowe, Neil Dellar and David Turetsky

6:05 – 7:05 pm

PART 1 – OPERATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

The speakers will discuss the operational issues that arise when companies have financial troubles, such as obligations regarding the continuation of service, temporary discontinuance of service, construction requirements and implications for license renewals, the ongoing obligation to comply with regulatory mandates, and the impact of red light status with the FCC.

BREAK

7:15 – 8:15 pm

PART 2 – FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS/CONTROL/BANK RUPTCY

The speakers will analyze more complex issues including the ramifications of defaults under installment payment financing arrangements, and issues relating to changes in management of the entity (the role of restructuring officers, trustees and receivers; the impact on control over the company when such individuals are introduced into management). The speakers also will address the consequences of bankruptcy proceedings, including the FCC filings and approvals that are required when entering and exiting bankruptcy proceedings, implications on bankruptcy protection on ongoing regulatory and financial obligations, sales of assets under the auspices of the bankruptcy court, and settlement agreements with the FCC in its role as creditor.

Stewart Block – Office of General Counsel, FCC

Robert Irving, Jr. – Senior Vice President and General Counsel, Leap Wireless

James Barker – Partner, Latham & Watkins LLP

Evan Blum – Principal, Blum Advisors LLC

In MEMORIAM

Martin Jay Gaines (1933-2007)

Martin J. Gaynes passed away on March 6, 2007. He had idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis.

Marty's communications law practice was principally with Cohn and Marks (1960-78) and Wilkes, Artis, Hedrick and Lane (1984-94). He also worked in the field of health care law. During the last decade of his life, his practice shifted primarily into the latter specialty.

During Marty's entire career, he combined law practice with an active teaching and writing schedule. He lectured on communications law at the law schools of Catholic University, Georgetown University, George Washington University, and Temple University Law School in Philadelphia. Until shortly before his death, he was still teaching health care law at Catholic University.

Marty began the first communications law course at Howard University Law School, on a pro bono basis to encourage diversity in the bar. He taught that course for a number of years and in 1974 received from the FCBA a special award for his service at Howard, which he proudly displayed on the wall of his home office.

He and his colleague in the Communications Law Institute at Catholic University, Harvey L. Zuckman, co-authored a book titled Mass Communications Law. It was published by West, first in 1982 and then republished in several later editions. It was written as a basic text for law students confronting their first communications law course, and for print and broadcast journalism students interested in the law governing their chosen professions.

Marty was a native New Yorker. He graduated from the Bronx High School of Science, the University of Michigan, and New York University Law School.

He attended NYU on a full room, board and tuition scholarship based on academic achievement. He served on the editorial board of the NYU Law Review and was Editor of the Annual Survey of American Law published by that Review.

He first came to Washington, D.C., to clerk for Judge Warren E. Burger (later Chief Justice of the United States) at the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. Upon completing his clerkship, he began his career in communications law at Cohn and Marks, where in 1970 he was made a partner.

A dedicated family man, Marty is survived by his widow, Barbara, of Chevy Chase, MD; by two children, Dr. Bradley Gaynes of Chapel Hill, NC, and Lisa Gaynes of New York City; and by two grandchildren.

FCBA CONGRESSIONAL Reception

Successful FCBA Congressional Reception held March 14

The FCBA Congressional Reception honoring the 110th Congress held on March 14 was a huge success. Joining the FCBA as co-hosts of the reception this year were CTIA, NAB, SIA, and TIA. Members and staff of the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science and Transportation, the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, the House Committee on Energy and Commerce, the House Committee on the Judiciary, and the House Committee on Homeland Security attended. The reception provided an opportunity for FCBA members to meet and talk with committee staff and congressional staff, as well as with Senators and Representatives from the various committees who stopped by for the reception.

Thanks to the co-hosting associations – CTIA, NAB, SIA, and TIA – and the Legislative Committee Co-Chairs – Amy Levine, Chris Moore, and Paula Timmons who helped make this such a great event!

And a Chance to Win! This year, every person who reserves a room at Nemacolin before April 4, 2007, and attends the Annual Seminar will have a chance to win free lodging (room rate plus tax) for a single or double room at the Chateau, Lodge, or a Townhouse for Friday, May 4, and Saturday, May 5. One individual will be selected at random to win this terrific prize, which has a cash value of over $500.

Don't Delay...Reserve Today!

Use the form on page 29 to reserve your room now.

Transactional Practice Committee

The FCBA's Transactional Practice Committee provides members with an active forum to analyze and discuss legal, regulatory and public policy issues that are essential for handling complex domestic and international transactional matters in the telecom industry. The Committee invites government enforcement officials, private practitioners, in-house corporate counsel, members of the financial community, and the public to share perspectives on these issues.

The Transactional Practice Committee is co-chaired by Neil A. Dellar of the Transaction Team of the FCC, David S. Turetsky of LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae LLP, and Christine M. Crowe of Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP. Since soliciting member views about possible programs during the Committee's kick-off meeting on September 14, 2006, the Committee has organized a variety of events, with more ahead.

The Committee's October 12 brown bag lunch focused on issues associated with communications companies accessing the capital markets—the forms of financing discussed by Tara Giunta of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, Rebecca Arbogast of Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Inc., and Mark Johnson of the Carlyle Group, included angel, VC, mezzanine, private equity, traditional loans, and public offerings.

On December 5, the Committee organized an evening CLE event that drew more than 90 attendees, focusing on how investors and lenders address FCC issues in transactions involving FCC-regulated companies, including attribution, de jure and de facto control, debt versus equity, and foreign ownership. The two panels featured Thomas Carroccio of Bell, Boyd & Lloyd LLC,

Tom Davidson of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld, LLP, Howard Liberman of Drinker Biddle & Reath, LLP, Lawrence Movshin of Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, and Charles Wiebe of BIA Digital Partners, LP.

In January 2007, the Committee's monthly brown bag lunch featured Jonathan Spencer of Shenendoah Telecommunications and Glynna Christian of LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae LLP, discussing the negotiation and drafting of domestic and offshore outsourcing transactions.

The Committee's February brown bag lunch featured Gay Hartwell Sills, Staff Chair of CFIUS and Joel Winnik of Hogan & Hartson LLP discussing how to navigate the CFIUS process with a transaction.

In March, the Committee's brown bag lunch featured Jim Bird, Leader of the FCC Transaction Team and Senior Counsel to the General Counsel of the FCC, and Hillary Burchuk, a senior attorney in the Telecommunications and Media Enforcement Section of the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, discussing their views as to best practices when presenting or opposing transactions before the FCC and the DOJ.

Before summer beckons, the Committee has two more programs scheduled: on May 31, the Committee will host an evening CLE event addressing the special challenges companies in financial trouble face regarding Communications Act and FCC compliance. Speakers will include Stewart Block from the Office of the General Counsel of the FCC, Robert Irving, Jr. of Leap Wireless, James Barker of Latham & Watkins LLP, Evan Blum of Blum Advisors LLC, and Gerard Catalanello of Thelen Reid Brown Raysman & Steiner LLP. On June 7, the Committee plans a brown bag lunch with presentations by Mark Stachiw, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Metro PCS, and Carl Northrop, Partner at Paul Hastings Janofsky & Walker LLP, on advising companies that are in the process of going public.

We are always interested in hearing from you about areas you would like the Committee to address. Please email your suggestions or questions to Neil Dellar (neil.dellar@fcc.gov), David Turetsky (dturetsky@llgm.com), or Christine Crowe (CCrowe@wbklaw.com).

Florida Chapter

On Friday, March 16 the Florida Chapter of the FCBA sponsored a seminar in Orlando entitled "Convergence of Broadband Communications and Real Estate". The audience included representatives from major cable television operators, incumbent local exchange carriers, alternative providers and real estate developers. The seminar included two panels. The first panel discussed the issues surrounding the provision of bundled broadband communications services to existing MDU developments and the second panel focused on greenfield developments. The panels included representatives and counsel for cable providers, alternative carriers and real estate developers. The group discussed both state and federal regulatory developments effecting the provision of bundled broadband communications in Florida.

The Florida Chapter has plans for three additional seminars this year. The next seminar will focus on recent developments on communications issues in the Florida Legislature and will be scheduled sometime in the second quarter following completion of the Florida legislative session.

Volunteer Outreach for Martha's Table – April 29

Many of us are stretched for time these days, but why not consider spending a few hours on a Sunday to help the FCBA Foundation's partner charities? For several years now, the FCBA has been providing volunteers to Martha's Table and McKenna's Wagon. These organizations rely on the good work of our members each month, so grab a friend, colleague or family member and join your fellow FCBA volunteers!

Martha's Table feeds hundreds of hungry, homeless adults and children on the streets of Washington daily, through its mobile soup kitchen. Children and friends are also welcome. We will begin at 10:00 am and work until 1:00 pm. Martha's Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Volunteers are asked to bring food if possible, (e.g., cold cuts, bread, peanut butter, jelly, vegetables and potatoes) because the center often runs out of donated food.

The FCBA volunteers on the last Sunday of every month from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m., so mark your calendars now. For more information, contact Howard Weiss at 703-812-0471, weiss@fhhlaw.com.

McKenna's Wagon Seeking Volunteers for April 22

McKenna's Wagon is a mobile soup and sandwich wagon that goes "on location" to deliver food to the needy. For those who have volunteered, it has been a wonderful experience and a great way to help the needy in the D.C. community. This is an especially good experience for the teens and pre-teens among us who do not have a full appreciation of the many privileges they enjoy. Community service credits are also available.

The Wagon is a white van that is loaded up with sandwiches, snacks and soup. We meet at Martha's Table at 4:45 pm in comfortable clothes and shoes. Martha's Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available.

Upon arrival we get assignments (some of us will distribute snacks and sandwiches, others will serve soup), and put on aprons before we depart in the van to 5th and New York Ave., NW (near the new Convention Center). We are driven by one of our experienced volunteers and the trip to distribution location takes about 10-15 minutes.

We serve about 30-75 people per visit including a few mothers who come for food for their families. The area is well patrolled by police. The food distribution is conducted in an efficient, calm and orderly fashion and many of the people we serve are quite appreciative of our efforts. Once we serve all of the food, we do a clean up of the immediate area. Total time for the distribution takes about one hour and we usually return to Martha's Table by or before 6:30 pm.

We would love to have you join us on one of our upcoming food runs which are always on the 4th Sunday of the month. If you are able to volunteer on April 22nd or for a future date, please contact Marlo Go at MGo@ctia.org or Tom VanWazer at tvanwazer@sidley.com.

11th Annual Golf Tournament Friday, June 15th

Registration for the 11th Annual FCBA Foundation - Robert E. Lee Memorial Golf Tournament is now open. Look for the registration form on page 27 of the newsletter. After 10 years in Virginia, this year's Tournament will be held at Worthington Manor Golf Club in Urbana, Maryland, on Friday, June 15, 2007. Worthington Manor is regularly rated as one of the Mid-Atlantic's premier daily-fee golf clubs, and is a frequent U.S. Open Qualifying site—particularly appropriate since the Tourney takes place on the Friday of the U.S. Open, allowing players to do their best Tiger Woods imitation before coming off the course to see who is (or isn't) making the cut at the real deal.

As in previous years, a scramble (Captain's choice) format will be used and the event is designed to ensure a fun day no matter whether your handicap is three, thirty or somewhere in between. All Eagle Sponsor Foursomes compete for the coveted Eagle Trophy, and many, many other prizes will be awarded thanks to the generosity of our corporate sponsors. Registration includes round, driving range, light breakfast and barbeque lunch — plus a list of acceptable excuses not to return to the office on a pleasant Friday afternoon.

Most importantly, all proceeds go to the FCBA Foundation to support tuition grants for deserving District of Columbia High School graduates. As Stub Estey, one of the original organizers of the tournament would say, "What a great concept: Do good and have fun at the same time."

TO RESPOND TO JOB BANK LISTINGS

If the employer is listed, send the information requested directly to the employer. ## Annual Seminar Scholarship Opportunities Available

Due to cancellations, there are two annual seminar scholarship slots to fill. Please fax in the application on page 32 and return to the FCBA no earlier than 9:00 a.m. Wednesday, April 4. These will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

The Annual FCBA Seminar provides a unique networking and educational opportunity for industry professionals. All Annual Seminar attendees benefit from the participation of a broad and diverse range of professionals at the event. To facilitate broad attendance, the FCBA is offering 10 scholarships to cover the registration cost (approximately $200) of the Annual Seminar for government employees and full-time academic professionals. Additional information about the scholarship program and instructions on how to apply can be found below.

FCBA ANNUAL SEMINAR SCHOLARSHIPS

Information and Application Instructions

- 1) Scholarships are available to all federal government employees and full-time academic professionals.
- 2) To apply, please fax a completed registration form along with a copy of your ID card from your federal government agency or academic institution.

- 3) Applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis.
- 4) Scholarships may be applied only toward the registration fee for the 2007 FCBA Annual Seminar. (Individuals receiving scholarships are responsible for the other costs of attending a seminar, including travel and lodging expenses).
- 5) Preferences for two of the ten scholarships will be given to applicants who have never attended an FCBA Annual Seminar.

Scholarship applicants are urged to apply at the earliest possible time permitted under these rules.

Please fax the application found on page 32 no earlier than 9:00 a.m. on April 4, 2007 to: FCBA Annual Seminar Committee, Fax: 202-293-4317

CANCELLATION POLICY

All registration fees must be received by April 15, 2007. Cancellations will be accepted and FCBA registration fees refunded (less a $50.00 cancellation fee per person) if notice is received no later than April 15, 2007. No refunds will be granted after this date. If for any reason FCBA cancels this seminar, it is not responsible for any travel, hotel accommodations, or other costs incurred by the registrant. Registration for the event may be transferred to another person upon written request to the FCBA office.

The Annual Seminar Registration Fee includes attendance at all of the CLE Seminars; Friday evening's family dinner; Saturday evening's reception and banquet; Saturday evening's Kids Banquet and activities; and breakfast buffets on Saturday and Sunday. Meals and activities not included in the Annual Seminar Registration Fee and not sponsored by FCBA (e.g., golf and tennis tournaments, Kids Camp, Fallingwater tour, paintball and lunch on Saturday) are the responsibility of attendees.
