PRESIDENT'S Message

DEAR MEMBERS:

Happy holidays from your FCBA! It is a joyous season with reasons to rejoice. Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanza, and other holiday celebrations came early for Project Wait No Longer and the FCBA Foundation, thanks to the most successful FCBA Charity Auction ever! Thanks to your generosity and the excellent leadership and planning abilities of the Auction Committee – led by Micah Caldwell and Mark Brennan – the Charity Auction raised over $130,000 for these wonderful organizations. They deserve all the accolades for their hard work, creativity, and dedication.

The holiday season reminds all of us of the many blessings we enjoy in our professional and personal lives. It is naturally a season to give back – and the Pay It Forward initiative has lots of opportunities to do that. See page 7 for more information. And if you would like to volunteer, just send a note to PayItForward@fcba.org.

Have you ever felt that you're getting lost in 47 CFR? Spending too much time with footnotes from a Wireline Bureau decision from eight years ago? Then we also have a gift to engage your mind at a higher level during these holidays. Our inaugural Distinguished Scholar Speaker Series event will feature Erwin Chemerinsky, Founding Dean of the University of California—Irvine School of Law, for a luncheon discussion on Thursday, December 16 at Hogan Lovells. Dean Chemerinsky, a noted Constitutional scholar and the author of close to 200 law review articles, regularly argues cases in both the U.S. Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court. The Dean will talk about the state of First Amendment regulations in light of the rapidly fading distinctions between traditional media formats, and in true academic fashion, will assign readings for those attending and conduct his discussion in a true classroom style. Be sure to sign up for this event now, as space is limited.

This month, the Pay It Forward spotlight will shine on Matt Gerst, who has demonstrated the Pay It Forward ideals of service, dedication, and generosity of spirit. Matt, who serves as Counsel for External & State Affairs at CTIA – The Wireless Association®, is very active in the FCBA, serving on the Publicity Subcommittee for the Charity Auction where he helped lead the effort, along with Ron Whitworth, to implement the first-ever online auction component. In addition, Matt has participated as a moderator and a panelist in recent events held by the Diversity, Privacy & Data Security, and Professional Responsibility Committees. Also, on Saturday, November 20, he represented Team FCBA Foundation in Fannie Mae's Help the Homeless Walk in Washington, DC. For all of these efforts and his continued commitment to the FCBA, Matt Gerst has been selected to bask in this month's Pay It Forward spotlight!

Also, I look forward to seeing you all at the Chairman's Dinner on December 9 and at PLI on December 9 and 10. As we approach the holidays and look forward to a new year, I want to thank all of you for being members of the FCBA and for contributing so much of your time and energy to make our bar association such a valuable resource – and a reflection of the wonderful people that we practice with each and every day. When the clock strikes midnight on December 31 and we head into 2011, the FCBA will be officially celebrating its 75th anniversary year. Wishing you and yours a peaceful season and a wonderful new year!

Regards,

Bryan Tramont

Wednesday, January 12, 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. Major International Privacy Developments and the Impact on Multi-National and Globally-Networked Environments

Presented by the International Telecommunications and Privacy and Data Security Committees

The International Telecommunications and Privacy and Data Security Committees will co-host a CLE that will address various international privacy laws and policies that affect all multi-national companies and organizations, as well as cross-border services. These entities must navigate a myriad of privacy laws and enforcement regimes, ranging from broad laws in Europe to more patch-worked laws in other parts of the world. Soon, this picture will become more complicated with the implementation of the APEC data privacy framework in the Pacific Rim. The CLE will include two panels: the first will focus on recent developments in data privacy laws and policies in Europe and Asia (including the revision of the EU Data Protection Directive and the implementation of the APEC privacy framework), and the second will examine case studies of specific cross-border privacy problems facing multi-national companies (e.g., human resources data management, outsourcing and third party processors, cloud computing, and tensions between U.S. requirements and EU data protection laws and blocking statutes in internal investigations). Speakers will include representatives from the government, industry experts, outside counsel, and privacy consultants. This CLE will be held Wednesday, January 12, 2011 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m., location TBD. For any questions related to this CLE Seminar, please contact

Karen Henein, Co-Chair, FCBA Privacy & Data Security Committee at khenein@willkie.com or Jennifer Ullman, Co-Chair, FCBA International Telecommunications Committee at jullman@ntgts.org.

Thursday, January 20, 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. A Guide to FCC Regulations and the Standards Setting Process: Tips for Non-Technical Practitioners

Presented by the Engineering and Technical Practice Committee

The Engineering and Technical Practice Committee will host a CLE Seminar on A Guide to FCC Regulations and the Standards Setting Process: Tips for Non-Technical Practitioners on Thursday, January 20 from 6:00 – 8:15 p.m. From IEEE's establishment of standards for RFID and ZigBee to CEA's standards for various consumer electronics, standards setting bodies develop protocols for many technologies regulated by the FCC. While they function independently from the FCC, the standards they set often play a role in FCC rulemaking. Come learn how standards setting bodies function and how they influence the FCC's rulemaking process (and vice-versa). Speakers include Carl Stevenson, WK3C Wireless, LLC (invited); Brian Markwater, Vice President of Research and Standards, Consumer Electronics Association; Mark Richer, President, Advanced Television Systems Committee; William Check, Sr. Vice President, Science and Technology, National Cable and Telecommunications Association; Julius Knapp, Chief, Office of Engineering and Technology; Mary Brown, Cisco Systems; and other speakers TBA. For questions, contact Engineering and Technical Practice Co-Chair Laura Stefani, lstefani@g2w2.com or 202-429-4900.

Interested in Hosting an FCBA event?

The FCBA greatly appreciates the support of our members' firms and companies who provide space for our brown bag lunches, committee meetings, and CLE Seminars throughout the year. We are, however, always looking for new locations that can host FCBA events. We will be experimenting with some new presentation technology in future CLE seminars, which require more technical support than we have needed in the past.

In general terms, we need conference rooms that can seat at least 30 (more if possible) people at tables for brown bag lunches and committee meetings and conference rooms that can seat a minimum of 60 for CLE seminars. Firms and companies hosting brown bag lunches provide beverages and desserts; firms and companies hosting CLE seminars provide beverages and snacks. CLE seminars are generally held from 6:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Additionally, for CLE seminars we need facilities that can provide technology support for microphones for as many as six speakers on a panel, the ability to tie the house sound system into a teleconference bridge, video projection capabilities for PowerPoint presentations, and access to the internet for presentations by speakers. If your firm or company has the needed conference room facilities and capabilities and would be willing to host future FCBA activities, please email Stan Zenor, stan@fcba.org, or Kerry Loughney, kerry@fcba.org.

Given the potential for Smart Grid technologies to improve electric power reliability, increase the ability to tap renewable energy sources, conserve energy, and save money for consumers, the Department of Energy (DOE) has been working to facilitate the transition to a smarter national electrical grid. In this vein, Scott Blake Harris will discuss two DOE reports addressing important foundational Smart Grid policy issues, which were released this fall as a follow-on to the FCC's National Broadband Plan: Data Access and Privacy Issues Related to Smart Grid Technologies and Communications Requirements of Smart Grid Technologies. In a proceeding initiated and conducted under the auspices of the General Counsel's office, these reports were the culmination of a comprehensive public process that included both a public notice and comment proceeding and public meetings. They set forth a series of findings and recommendations for both industry and government – some of which are already being implemented.

Harris was nominated as General Counsel of the Department of Energy by President Barack Obama in March, and was confirmed by the United States Senate in May 2009. He also serves as Co-Chair of the Broadband Subcommittee of the Administration's National Science and Technology Council.

Mr. Harris has practiced law in Washington, DC for 34 years both in the private sector and in government. He has had extensive litigation, telecommunications and technology law, trade law, administrative law, and national security law experience. Prior to joining the Department, Harris was the Managing Partner of Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP, a nationally recognized law firm founded in 1998. He has also been a partner in the law firms of Williams & Connolly LLP and Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, where he headed the firm's communications practice. Harris also served in government from 1993 to 1996, first as Chief Counsel for Export Administration in the United States Department of Commerce, and then as the first Chief of the International Bureau at the Federal Communications Commission. Early in his career he served as a law clerk to the Honorable Gerhard A. Gesell on the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

Harris has also been active in the legal and policy communities, including as a longtime, active member of the FCBA. He has been a member of the Advisory Board of Virginia Tech's Center for Wireless Communications, Chairman of the FCC's Advisory Committee for the 1997 World Radio Conference, Co-Chair of the Council on Foreign Relations Study Group on Information Technology and Foreign Policy, a member of the Executive Committee of the United States ITU Association, a Trustee of the FCBA Foundation, Co-Chair of the FCBA's International, Online, Legislative Practice, and Annual Seminar Committees, and an Adjunct Professor at Georgetown Law Center.

Harris graduated magna cum laude from both Harvard Law School and Brown University, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He has received many honors during his legal career, including the prestigious Marconi-Bell Award from the National Association of Radio and Telecommunications Engineers and the Chairman's Award for Special Achievement at the Federal Communications Commission, and he is regularly ranked among the top lawyers in DC and nationally.

CHAIRMAN'S DINNER

deductible donation to the FCBA Foundation. Full tables and individual tickets are still available and firms and companies may share tables. Please use the registration form on page 30 to order tables or individual tickets.

INVITING GOVERNMENT GUESTS

Pursuant to the Office of Government Ethics regulation on widely-attended gatherings (5 C.F.R. 2635.204(g)(2)), the Chairman's Dinner appears to qualify as a widely attended gathering. The value of an individual ticket to the dinner is $205.00. Most employees of the Federal Communications Commission and the Commerce Department may be directly invited to attend the dinner as guests of individuals and organizations purchasing tables or tickets. In most cases, individuals and organizations may issue invitations to the Chairman's Dinner without the involvement of the FCBA. Some agencies, departments and branches of the Federal Government, however, apply additional stipulations above the regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics. Individuals who have signed the Administration's Ethics pledge cannot accept invitations from most registered lobbying organizations or registered lobbyists. While this event has qualified as a widely-attended-gathering in previous years, each FCC employee is required to obtain individual ethics clearance based on matters they are working on within the Commission. Employees of the Commerce Department are required to obtain individual ethics clearance through the Department's Office of General Counsel. Invitations to Members of Congress, Congressional Staff, and employees of the Department of State must be issued by the FCBA. Contact the FCBA for additional information.

Requests for invitations to be sent from the FCBA must be emailed to Stan Zenor (stan@fcba.org).

A Priceless Way to Give: Paying It Forward

Thanks to all who joined our Pay It Forward kickoff reception at the newly-renovated Arena Stage on November 16. As guests enjoyed the amazing architecture and great food, FCC Chief of Staff Eddie Lazarus expressed the strong support of the FCC for the initiative, and encouraged the FCBA and FCC community to participate actively in the volunteer opportunities. Representatives of our partners in the Pay It Forward program, One Economy and Byte Back, described in detail how our volunteer efforts can make a difference to so many in the world of broadband adoption and utilization. They shared video footage of computer classes full of eager students and other broadband adoption programs that were made possible with volunteer help. And they described the impressive successes of their programs, including the many students who gained enough skill and confidence to find jobs or advance their careers.

FCBA President Bryan Tramont encouraged FCBA members to give their time to the upcoming Pay It Forward broadband adoption programs and mentoring activities aimed at younger members of the communications sector. He also thanked FCBA members who have been instrumental in launching the Pay It Forward program, including Diane Cornell, FCC coordinator Jennifer Manner, Scott Delacourt, Justin Faulb, Chris Fedeli, David Goldman, Grace Koh, Angie Kronenberg, Cheryl Leanza, Alison Minea, Charla Rath, Natalie Roisman, Kevin Ryan, Megan Stull, Brett Tarnutzer, Ryan Wallach, Amy Wolverton, and Stan and Kerry of the FCBA staff.

During the program, representatives of One Economy (Kelly Dunne, CEO and Karla Ballard, Vice President – Social Innovations & Programs) and Byte Back (Kelley Ellsworth, Executive Director) described in detail the many ways that FCBA members can give their time and effort. Attendees were able to talk directly to the organizations' representatives and review literature at booths set up in the lobby to find a volunteer activity that suited their interests and needs.

IF YOU MISSED THIS 4-HOUR SEMINAR, BUY IT NOW!

The new decade brings a host of new laws, increased government oversight and class action lawsuit potential regarding the privacy and security of personally identifiable information for consumers, clients, and employees of communications and media companies.

This year's Symposium opened with a keynote from The Honorable Pamela Jones Harbour, Commissioner of the Federal Trade Commission. Commissioner Harbour provided her perspective on privacy and data security. Three substantive sessions followed. The first covered the government's role in privacy and data security, including the effectiveness of regulatory enforcement mechanisms and self-regulatory regimes. The second focused on requisite contract clauses, due diligence requirements, and insurance coverage to help reduce liability for relationships with third party service providers, behavioral advertising and social networking websites/services, and e-commerce services. The third session provided an overview of domestic state and federal laws, regulations, and guidelines that govern traditional telemarketing and commercial messages and promotional efforts delivered via wireless devices, including nuances regarding text messages, bounceback messages, and wireless emails.

A wealth of written materials is also included on the DVD.

A Letter from the FCBA Foundation Chair

DEAR FCBA MEMBERS,

This is the time of year for giving thanks and for sharing our good fortune with those around us. Even more so in these difficult economic times, the FCBA Foundation is working hard to meet and expand our charitable commitments to the community and to our profession. As you consider your end-of-year giving, please consider making a personal and/or corporate donation to the Foundation's programs, which go directly to serving some of the neediest families in our community as well as future practitioners of communications law. Also, please remember the Foundation as you plan your budget for 2011.

On behalf of the Foundation I would like to extend hearty congratulations and sincere thanks to the Young Lawyers Committee and the Charity Auction Committee for a record-smashing 21st Annual Charity Auction benefitting the Barker Foundation's Project Wait No Longer and the Foundation. The auction raised an astounding $130,000.

The Foundation is proud to participate in the 2011 Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) for the National Capital Area. Federal employees in the nation's capital can now make regular tax-deductible contributions to the Foundation through the CFC, providing funds to support and help expand the Foundation's vital charitable work.

To make a pledge to the Foundation, donors should use the Foundation's CFC code number (#31092) on their pledge cards. Pledge cards can be obtained from your agency's CFC campaign staff. Pledge cards can also be completed and printed out online through the CFC website at www.cfcnc.org. On the website, click "Giving" and "About CFC-e" for more information. Your donations will support the valuable work performed by the FCBA Foundation.

Finally, I encourage you to keep the Foundation in mind as personal giving opportunities arise, such as honoring the achievement of a friend or colleague. We will send an acknowledgment to the honoree. You can also remember the Foundation in your will.

*****

Thank you, as always, for supporting the charitable arm of YOUR FCBA. Without generous FCBA member contributions, the Foundation's programs simply cannot be sustained.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me or any member of the Foundation Board of Trustees. We greatly appreciate your support!

Julie Kearney

21st Annual Charity Auction a Record-Breaking Success!

On Thursday, October 28, 2010, the Young Lawyers Committee and the FCBA Foundation hosted the 21st Annual FCBA Charity Auction. Smashing an all-time record, the Auction raised more than $130,000 to benefit Project Wait No Longer (PWNL) and the FCBA Foundation. PWNL, a groundbreaking program run by the non-profit organization The Barker Foundation, will use its share of the Auction proceeds (80 percent) to strengthen its mission to find permanent homes and the stability of a “forever family” for older children and teenagers who are growing up in the public foster care system. The FCBA Foundation will use the remaining Auction proceeds to support its annual scholarship and internship program.

The Auction was held at the Hamilton Crowne Plaza Hotel, Sphinx Ballroom at the Almas Temple, and drew a large and lively crowd. In addition to bidding at three silent auction tables, the evening included a live auction featuring award-winning professional auctioneer B.J. Jennings. Facilitating the bidding were celebrity emcees Bryan Tramont and Toni Cook Bush. Special thanks from the Charity Auction Committee to both the auctioneer and emcees for their entertaining and effective persuasive efforts!

In MEMORIAM

Joseph A. Marino (1935-2010)

Joseph Anthony Marino, an attorney with the FCC for 37 years, died on October 7, 2010 in Clearwater, Florida, of complications from late-stage adrenal-cortical cancer. He was 75.

Joe was a native Washingtonian. He began his career at the FCC in 1960 upon graduation from the University of Notre Dame, where he earned bachelor's and law degrees and was a member of the law review.

At the FCC, Joe served in a number of different offices, including Chief of the Office of General Counsel's Litigation Division for three years and Chairman of the Review Board for 15 years. He also served in the Office of Opinions and the Broadcast Bureau's Hearing Division. In the Common Carrier Bureau, Joe was Acting Chief and Chief of the Enforcement Division, as well as Managing Counsel of the Bureau's Compliance and Litigation Task Force.

In 1978, Marino argued the Commission's position before the Supreme Court in the well-known "Seven Dirty Words" case [FCC v. Pacifica Foundation, 438 U.S. 726 (1978)], in which the Supreme Court agreed with the Commission that George Carlin's monologue was "indecent" when aired at a time of day when "children were undoubtedly in the audience." It is said that no one at the Commission wanted to argue the case, but Marino agreed to do so as one of the Commission's most-experienced appellate litigators.

Joe is remembered fondly by the junior litigators of the time for the monthly dinner parties held at his home, where he would invite guest speakers to discuss current legal issues and homemade sausage was cooked to Italian perfection.

As Review Board Chairman, Marino presided over hundreds of comparative broadcast hearing, renewal, and revocation cases. Fellow Review Board member Jerold Jacobs fondly remembers their time together on the Review Board as marked by wisdom, kindness, and calmness in the Board's deliberations and decision-making.

Marino served in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve for seven years. He was a member of Ascension Catholic Church in Bowie, Maryland, where he served as director of the Church's religious school program. He moved to Clearwater upon his retirement in 1997, where he was active in his church and in a local soup kitchen, and enjoyed his life-long hobby of golf. Joe is survived by his wife of 39 years, Marian Lucille "Lucy" Marino, their son Nicholas, and Joe's brother Fausto.

BUSINESS ATTIRE

Pursuant to the Office of Government Ethics regulation on widely-attended gatherings (5 C.F.R. 2635.204(g)(2)), the Chairman's Dinner appears to qualify as a widely attended gathering. The value of an individual ticket to the dinner is $205.00. Most employees of the Federal Communications Commission and the Commerce Department may be directly invited to attend the dinner as guests of individuals and organizations purchasing tables or tickets. In most cases, individuals and organizations may issue invitations to the Chairman's Dinner without the involvement of the FCBA. Some agencies, departments and branches of the Federal Government, however, apply additional stipulations above the regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics. Individuals who have signed the Administration's Ethics pledge cannot accept invitations from most registered lobbying organizations or registered lobbyists. While this event has qualified as a widely-attended-gathering in previous years, each FCC employee is required to obtain individual ethics clearance based on matters they are working on within the Commission. Employees of the Commerce Department are required to obtain individual ethics clearance through the Department's Office of General Counsel. Invitations to Members of Congress, Congressional Staff, and employees of the Department of State must be issued by the FCBA. Contact the FCBA for additional information. Requests for invitations to be sent from the FCBA must be emailed to Stan Zenor (stan@fcba.org) and received by Friday, November 19, 2010.

THE 5TH ANNUAL ABA/FCBA PRIVACY & DATA SECURITY FOR COMMUNICATIONS AND MEDIA COMPANIES CLE – MARCH 11, 2010 – DVD Now Available

If you missed this 4-hour Seminar, buy it now!

The new decade brings a host of new laws, increased government oversight and class action lawsuit potential regarding the privacy and security of personally identifiable information for consumers, clients, and employees of communications and media companies.

This year's Symposium opened with a keynote from The Honorable Pamela Jones Harbour, Commissioner of the Federal Trade Commission. Commissioner Harbour provided her perspective on privacy and data security. Three substantive sessions followed. The first covered the government's role in privacy and data security, including the effectiveness of regulatory enforcement mechanisms and self-regulatory regimes. The second focused on requisite contract clauses, due diligence requirements, and insurance coverage to help reduce liability for relationships with third party service providers, behavioral advertising and social networking websites/services, and e-commerce services. The third session provided an overview of domestic state and federal laws, regulations, and guidelines that govern traditional telemarketing and commercial messages and promotional efforts delivered via wireless devices, including nuances regarding text messages, bounceback messages, and wireless emails.

A wealth of written materials is also included on the DVD.

SESSION I – GOVERNMENT'S ROLE FOR PRIVACY & DATA SECURITY PROTECTION

SESSION II - DUE DILIGENCE, CONTRACT, AND INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS
