PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

DEAR MEMBERS:

The FCBA is exploring how to improve the ways future leaders are identified and recruited. It is important that our leadership track be accessible to those active members who wish to serve in leadership roles, but have been overlooked. We need to ensure the avenues are open to, among others, younger members and minorities, to participate as officers, Executive Committee members and on the Foundation board. Other members who wish to become active for the first time also need to know that our leadership selection process is fair and open.

Our leader recruitment process relies heavily upon presidential appointments. Each spring the incoming President-elect appoints, on a discretionary basis, all of our committee co-chairs and the co-chairs of all of the chapters. The President-elect also appoints six of the 12 members of the Nominations Committee, which, in turn selects candidates for three Executive Committee slots, four Foundation trustee positions, and three positions on the Nominations Committee, all of which are filled through elections. Officer positions normally are filled from the Executive Committee or the Foundation board. But, the leadership entry point in most cases is a committee co-chair appointment or, in a few cases, service on the Foundation board.

Each spring the FCBA advertises for committee co-chairs in the FCBA News. Additionally, incumbent co-chairs are invited to stay on or are asked to identify persons who would be good candidates to fill vacant co-chair positions. The FCBA's staff is consulted since they have first-hand knowledge as to which committees have been active during the previous year. We also try to accommodate some of the unsuccessful election candidates. But this is an imperfect process. Due to the short amount of time the President-elect has to make all of the appointments, which number about 100, and the fact many if not most of the incumbents and other available persons are not personally known to the President-elect, deserving candidates are overlooked. Indeed, we may be failing to spot valuable talent, or worse, discouraging some active members who perceive they are locked out of FCBA leadership.

At the Executive Committee's planning retreat in August, the following suggestions, among others, were made for improvements to our processes for identifying future FCBA leaders:

- Conduct a meeting of committee co-chairs and Foundation trustees in January with the principal purpose of sensitizing these co-chairs and trustees to the importance of identifying future leaders, particularly minorities and young lawyers.
- Ask committee co-chairs and the Foundation board to provide reports as to who should be appointed to co-chair positions or considered for nomination to elected office.
- Maintain data on the positions held and other FCBA activities of our members. (Our new association software will accommodate such record keeping.)
- Insure that the committee co-chair selection process and the nominations process take into account such reports and data.

SAVE THE DATES! October 21 and 28 Homeland Security CLE's

The FCC's Office of Homeland Security and the FCBA will be jointly hosting a two-part CLE on Homeland Security. The series, "Representing the Communications Client in the Era of Homeland Security" will be divided into two evenings, Thursday, October 21 (panels 1 & 2), and Thursday, October 28, (panels 3 & 4), both from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at the FCC in the Commission Meeting Room.

Sessions will cover issues including advising clients in the broadcast and telecommunications industries on industry best practices, security issues that arise in supplier and enterprise client negotiations, homeland security considerations in transactions involving foreign ownership, and other issues, including recent regulatory developments at the FCC.

Look for registration information and a detailed agenda on the FCBA Website and in e-mail announcements soon. Each evening will be worth 2 credits. The FCBA will take separate registrations for October 21 and 28.

December 2-3, 2004: Annual Telecommunications Conference

For the 22nd consecutive year, the FCBA and the Practising Law Institute will co-sponsor an annual Institute on "Telecommunications Policy and Regulation." This year's conference will be held on December 2-3, at The Watergate Hotel, scheduled to coincide with FCBA's Chairman's Dinner on December 2.

The Conference will be keynoted by FCC Chairman Michael Powell, and FCC Commissioner Michael Copps will be the opening speaker on the second day of the program. Additionally, Richard Notebaert, Chairman and CEO of Qwest, will appear as the luncheon speaker on December 2. Other program highlights include a Congressional staff panel, featuring Lisa Sutherland, Senate Committee on Appropriations, and Gregg Rothschild, House Committee on Energy and Commerce, and three subject-matter panels - conducted in a traditional all question-and-answer format - dealing with developments in wireline telephone, wireless telecommunications, and the Internet. The Institute also will feature tutorials by key FCC staff officials: William Maher, Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau; John Muleta, Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau; David Solomon, Chief, Enforcement Bureau; and General Counsel John Rogovin. And Donald Abelson, Chief of the FCC's International Bureau, and Amb. David Gross, Assistant Secretary of State, will participate in a discussion on international issues.

Once again, the Institute's agenda will include a panel discussion on the telecommunications future and a debate - this year, on "The 1996 Act: Time for a Change?" - with Margaret Greene, President of BellSouth, facing off against John Windhausen, President of ALTS, and with Michele Farquhar, FCBA President-Elect, as moderator. FCBA President Harry Martin will open the Institute, and Henry Rivera, Clark Wadlow and Dick Wiley, of the FCBA's Conferences Committee, will serve as overall program chairs. In addition, a number of Association members will moderate various program segments.

A full agenda for the 1 1/2 day seminar, which is always very well-attended, is below. As noted, a registration fee discount is available to Association members. Registration information is on page 15.

Seven Dirty Words in Semifinals

Congratulations to the FCBA Ultimate Frisbee team (known as the "Seven Dirty Words" for the seven players on the team) on an exciting Summer season. After opening with two heartbreaking losses, the crew got its act together and went on a five game winning streak to finish the regular season 5 and 2, earning a berth as the third seed in the league playoffs. Season highlights include a hard fought victory against a surprisingly aggressive Peace Corps and a walloping of the unsurprisingly off-balance University of Florida Alumni Drinking Team. Way to go, 7DW! The season ended in August with a loss in the semifinals to the whizzers of the Washington Post.

For those of you who missed out on the action, the Fall season is starting up soon and new players are welcome. If you want to come out and toss a disc with some of your FCBA colleagues, send an email to Doug Klein at DOUGLAS.A.KLEIN@saic.com

- Have the Executive Committee liaisons to the standing committees address committee meetings to emphasize that leadership at the committee level is a means to move up.
- Make sure Executive Committee members otherwise communicate with committee co-chairs, chapter co-chairs, and Foundation trustees, asking them to identify future leaders and then report their findings to the President-elect and the Nominations Committee.

Over the years the FCBA has had dedicated and effective leaders at all levels. Moreover, our programs and events always have been supported by a large body of enthusiastic volunteers. But we want the volunteers who wish to have a leadership role to see that the path is open to them, and we want to make sure our processes do not exclude or discourage deserving candidates. The initiatives outlined above, and others that will be developed during the year, may help to make the leadership selection process more accessible and fair.

2003-2004 FCBA FOUNDATION ANNUAL REPORT

Having successfully concluded its 13th year, the Federal Communications Bar Association Foundation remains an important vehicle for community service because of the continued support of individual FCBA members and their firms and companies. The Foundation's official mission remains to:

- Support worthwhile educational and communications-related projects, particularly those directed toward students and younger children in the District of Columbia, through financial contributions and volunteer services; and
- Foster greater public awareness and understanding of the development of communications technology, resources and law, and the role of communications law practitioners.

During the past year, the Foundation served these goals in numerous ways. It awarded $104,000 in college scholarships to students from four public high schools in the District of Columbia. The Foundation also awarded stipends to five law students working in summer internships at the FCC. In addition, the Foundation organized volunteers each month to make meals for the homeless at Martha's Table, and to deliver meals to the homeless through McKenna's Wagon. Foundation volunteers also arranged outings with the Martha's Table Youth Group.

TRUSTEES

A Board of Trustees from the FCBA membership governs the Foundation. This year, our Trustees were Paula Boyd, James Coltharp, Diane Davidson, Scott Delacourt, Brian Fontes, Praveen Goyal, Donna Gregg, Cheryl Leanza, Ruth Milkman, Maureen O'Connell, Mark Van Bergh, and Greg Vogt and myself, Tom Van Wazer.

Brian, Donna, Cheryl completed their final year on the Board along with me, and I thank them for their generous commitment of personal time and support. They leave a legacy at the Foundation that I am confident will be carried on by the new Trustees elected by the FCBA membership: Joseph Di Scipio, Dee May, Loretta Polk, and Cara Voth. Greg Vogt will serve as the Board's Chair for the coming year.

Special thanks to Stan Zenor and Heidi Kurtz for providing the Board with dedicated and professional support. Thanks as well to Alexandra Wilson and the FCBA Executive Committee for their support of the Foundation. Finally, my personal thanks go to Tami Smith, my secretary, and Sidley Austin Brown & Wood for the continuous support they provided during my tenure on the Foundation Board.

FUNDRAISING

The Board of Trustees maintained its commitment to fund scholarships each year out of current donations rather than drawing down the Foundation's reserves. As a result, fundraising was at the forefront of this year's agenda. Brian Fontes and Ruth Milkman took the lead in a fundraising effort that resulted in a record level of donations to support scholarships in a single year. Special thanks go to the following organizations for their generous contributions: Verizon ($15,000); Motorola ($12,000); Comcast ($10,000); CTIA the Wireless Foundation ($10,000); Intelsat ($10,000); Microsoft ($8,000); Cingular ($5,000); Verizon Wireless ($5,000) and T-Mobile ($1,000).

FCBA members generously donated nearly $4,500 to our annual giving campaign and contributed nearly $11,000 through the membership dues check-off.

As usual, the Foundation also benefited from its two regular fundraising events - the Chairman's Dinner and the annual Golf Tournament. The 17th Annual Chairman's Dinner honoring FCC Chairman Michael

K. Powell was held on December 4, 2003 at the Washington Hilton's International Ballroom. Over 1,500 FCBA members and guests were in attendance. Special guests included FCC Commissioners Kathleen Abernathy, Kevin Martin, Michael Copps and Jonathan Adelstein. The event generated over $30,000 for the Foundation.

The 8th Annual FCBA Foundation Honorable Robert E. Lee Memorial Golf Tournament was held on Friday, June 18, 2004. The group returned to Bull Run Country Club in Haymarket, Virginia, raising nearly $20,000 for the FCBA Foundation's Scholarship Fund.

The tournament is named in memory of former Federal Communications Commission Chairman, Robert E. Lee, who passed away in April 1993 after serving on the FCC for almost thirty years. Chairman Lee's son, Bobby Lee, played and sponsored a team through his restaurants Mister Days and SoBe in Northern Virginia. The winning Eagle Cup Trophy team was from Wiley Rein & Fielding, LLP. Mike Senkowski, Nancy Victory, Tom Antonucci and Brian Johnson returned as champions after a brief hiatus from first place last year.

Special thanks go to the Golf Tournament planning committee chaired by Alan Campbell and included: Robert Branson, Jonathan Cohen, Joe Cramer, Tom Dombrowsky, Jr., Terri Granison, Laura Holloway, David Lacki, Phil Malet, Dee May, Alison Miller, Larry Movshin, Joy Ragsdale, Glenn Reynolds and Ryan Watts.

The Foundation also continued to assist the Young Lawyer's Committee in conducting the annual charity auction. The 14th annual auction was held on November 20, 2003 and raised over $60,000 for the Spanish Education Center, a non-profit entity that provides educational programs for Spanish-speaking children to help them develop the skills essential to their future educational success, and to develop each child's fluency in English. SED also provides child care for pre-school children in order to allow their parents to work or advance their own education. The Co-chairs of the Charity Auction Committee were Ryan Wallach, Pam Slipakoff, Jennifer Warren, Carolyn Groves, Steve Hitchcock, Yaron Dori, David Don, Scott Delacourt, and Praveen Goyal. Congratulations to the Committee and the countless volunteers who supported the Committee in making the 14th annual auction another smashing success. Thanks as well to Heidi Kurtz for her tireless efforts in support of the Auction.

SCHOOLS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

As noted above, the Foundation awarded eight college scholarships this year to students from four D.C. public high schools. This year's recipients are Jacob Aladejobi from Cardozo Senior High School - $12,000 Motorola Scholarship; Mercedes Burke from Spingarn Senior High School - $10,000 Comcast Scholarship; Sandy Nyunt from Bell Multicultural High School - $8,000 scholarship; Hevert Rios from Bell - $20,000 scholarship; Myo Sabai Aye from Bell - $10,000 Intelsat Scholarship; Olawale Williams from Cardozo Senior High School - $20,000 scholarship; Brandon Thomas from Roosevelt Senior High School - $8,000 CTIA the Wireless Foundation Scholarship; Victor Mwimanzi from Roosevelt - $8,000 Microsoft Scholarship; and Antwonye Kirkpatrick of Roosevelt - $8,000 scholarship. Foundation Board members attended the awards ceremonies at Cardozo, Roosevelt, Spingarn and Bell to present these scholarships in person.

The Foundation's college scholarships are awarded based upon a number of criteria, including the student's academic success, attendance record at school, participation in school activities, service to the community and financial need. Many of the applications tell unforgettable stories of young people who overcame obstacles in their lives to prosper in school and give back to their community. Each year, a group of Trustees interview candidates in person before selecting scholarship winners. Special thanks to Diane Davidson, the head of the Foundation's Scholarship Committee, who oversaw the entire scholarship award process. Following the interviews, Diane effectively became a surrogate mother to a number of this year's winners. Diane was ably assisted by Mark Van Bergh, who participated in all the interviews and worked-up the excellent two-page spread in the June newsletter that introduced this year's winners to the FCBA membership. Finally, Brian Fontes and Cingular Wireless generously provided us with facility to conduct these interviews.

Once again, WBDC-TV, a Tribune Company station in the District of Columbia, provided production assistance to create a special video that featured this year's scholarship winners. The video was shown at the June 24th FCBA luncheon featuring Commissioner Abernathy. Special thanks go to Shannon Days of WBDC, the producer of these videos for the last three years, for her commitment and dedication to the scholarship winners and to Jerry Martin, who was General Manager at WBDC, for generously making his staff available to the Foundation in the last three years. We wish Mr. Martin well in his new assignment as the General Manager of Tribune's stations in Indianapolis.

The Foundation also continued its mentoring program for scholarship winners. Each scholarship recipient was paired with an FCBA member as his or her personal mentor. These mentors are available to help support these students in their transition to college. The program was administered this year by Scott Delacourt. Thank you to all FCBA members who volunteered to serve as mentors this year.

STIPENDS FOR SUMMER INTERNS

As noted above, the Foundation also awarded $15,600 in stipends to five law students who worked as summer interns in various bureaus at the FCC. These awards were made in part from the Chairman Robert E. Lee Scholarship Fund, established in memory of the former FCC Chairman and Commissioner who passed away after nearly thirty years of service at the agency. This year's winners were: Stefanie Zalewski, Ryan Harrington, Ann Lawrence, Anjali Patel, and Marjorie Manne. In addition, Stefanie Zalewski received an additional $600 as the winner of the Max Paglin award, which is given annually to the Foundation's outstanding summer law student stipend winner. The award was established in the memory of Max Paglin, a former FCC General Counsel who founded the Golden Jubilee Commission on Telecommunications that compiled a definitive legislative history of the Communications Act. Special thanks to Ruth Milkman for heading-up the Board's subcommittee that reviewed this year's applications and selected the five winners. Ruth helped persuade the Board to increase the number of stipends awarded from four to five and increase each stipend award to $3,000.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AND VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Continuing a rich tradition, the Foundation sponsored numerous volunteer events for FCBA members over the past year. Volunteers organized by Howard Weiss and Chris Wood continued to make meals for the homeless at Martha's Table each month. In addition, volunteers organized by Cara Voth and Tom Van Wazer continued to deliver meals to the homeless in the District each month through McKenna's Wagon, a mobile soup kitchen operated by Martha's Table. Thanks to the following regular McKenna's Wagon volunteers: Karen Brinkmann (and daughter Lisa), Buz Brinig, Dan Brenner, Jessica Davidson, Matt Perry, Amanda Tyler and John Wester. Matt, Amanda and John are only honorary FCBA members who volunteered through Sidley Austin Brown & Wood. Finally, special thanks to Peggy Greene for her efforts in recruiting and organizing a new group of volunteers from the FCC.

At the luncheon on June 24th, Cara Voth was recognized as the Foundation's Volunteer of the Year. Cara is an active volunteer in McKenna's Wagon and was also recently elected as a Trustee to the Foundation's Board.

CONCLUSION

As I said at the June 24th luncheon, working for the Foundation is, in my view, the best job anyone could have in the FCBA. Meeting with and getting to know our scholarship winners is an unforgettable, uplifting experience. The knowledge that you were a member of an organization that helped these remarkable young people go to college is enormously rewarding. Preparing and distributing food for the homeless provides a sense of personal satisfaction that no legal or regulatory victory can match. I urge everyone in the FCBA make the time to volunteer for Foundation activities to experience first-hand the special satisfaction that comes from helping to make a difference in the lives of people far less fortunate than we are.

Martha's Table Volunteers Needed on September 26

On Sunday, September 26, members of the FCBA will help prepare meals for the homeless at Martha's Table in the District of Columbia. Martha's Table feeds hundreds of hungry, homeless adults and children on the streets of Washington daily, through its mobile soup kitchen. Children and friends are also welcome. We will begin at 10:00 am and work until 1:00 pm. Martha's Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Volunteers are asked to bring sandwich fixings (bread and sandwich meat) with them, as the center often runs out of donated food. Future dates include October 31, November 28 and December 26, so mark your calendars now. For more information, contact Howard Weiss at 703-812-0471 weiss@fhhlaw.com or Chris Wood at 202-939-7903 - cwood@fw-law.com.

Mr. Gallagher most recently served as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy and Counselor to Secretary of Commerce. He was the lead policy advisor to the Secretary and was responsible for the effective coordination of policy initiatives within the Commerce Department and across the Administration.

Prior to joining the Secretary's personal staff, Mr. Gallagher was the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Communications and Information and Deputy Administrator of NTIA. As a leading member of the Bush Administration's technology team, he focused his efforts on bringing the benefits of new and exciting telecommunications technologies to American consumers.

Working closely with the Federal Communications Commission and other federal government agencies, Mr. Gallagher directed NTIA's technical study that led to the Commission's approval of Ultrawideband, a promising new technology that could spur the development of innovative devices that efficiently "underlay" the radio frequency spectrum and could radically improve the ability of the nation's public safety entities to respond to emergencies.

Mr. Gallagher was vice president for state public policy at Verizon Wireless in Bellevue, Washington. From 1998 to 2000, he was managing director for government relations at AirTouch Communications, Inc., also in Bellevue, Washington. Mr. Gallagher served as Administrative Assistant to Congressman Rick White (R-Washington) from 1995 to 1997. Subsequently he established a government relations practice at Perkins Coie, LLP in the Pacific Northwest. Mr. Gallagher received his B.A. from the University of California at Berkeley and his J.D. from the University of California in Los Angeles. He is a member of the Washington State Bar.

Please join us in welcoming Mr. Gallagher on September 23, 2004.
