The 16th Annual FCC Chairman's Dinner

The FCBA will hold its 16th Annual FCC Chairman's Dinner on Thursday, December 12, 2002 at the Mentoring Program Kickoff

The FCBA is now accepting applications for the 2003 Mentorship Program. The program has been revised to include both individual mentor/mentee match-ups, as well as "corporate/organizational mentors" that will advise small groups of mentees interested in a particular communications specialty. A kickoff reception is planned for Thursday, January 23, 2003, at the law offices of Shook, Hardy & Bacon, LLP.

December 12 - 13, 2002: Annual Telecommunications Policy and Regulation Conference

The 20th Annual Institute on "Telecommunications Policy and Regulation", co-sponsored by the FCBA and the Practising Law Institute, will be held on December 12-13 at The Ronald Reagan Building & International Trade Center. For more information: www.pli.edu

CLE Seminar - Spectrum Policy Task Force Report: Review and Reaction - December 4th

Recently, the Spectrum Policy Task Force issued the much-anticipated report of its findings and recommendations for spectrum policy reform. Billed as a starting point for a long-term review of spectrum policy, the report makes a variety of recommendations that implicate virtually all forms of spectrum used today. Individual topics include recommending new ways to manage interference to examining innovative ways to more intensively use the radio spectrum. This CLE will provide an overview of the principal recommendations of the Task Force report by members of the Task Force, as well as reaction to the report's recommendations from prominent members of the industry. Panelists include: Brian F. Fontes, Vice President, Federal Relations, Cingular Wireless, Peter J. Hadinger, Director, Transformational Communications and New Ventures, TRW Space & Electronics Peter Pitsch, Director, Communications Policy, Intel Corporation, Edmond J. Thomas, Chief, Office of Engineering and Technology, Federal Communications Commission, and Laura Phillips will moderate. Please use form on page 9 to register.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

DEAR MEMBERS:

As we enter December, I want to wish you and your families a healthy and happy holiday season and best wishes for the year ahead.

As a former Chair of the Young Lawyers Committee, I am particularly pleased to report that the 13th Annual Charity Auction held Thursday, November 21st was a tremendous success. The FCBA and FCBA Foundation raised over $50,000 for this year's beneficiary, College Bound/Beacon House partnership, a non-profit organization that provides educational opportunities, community support and outreach to D.C.-area youth. Representatives from these organizations, including some of the kids, enjoyed the auction festivities firsthand.

Raising this amount of money in a down economy is a true testament to the hard work and excellent organization of the planners. In a first for the FCBA, a U.S. Senator, Conrad Burns of Montana, appeared as a guest auctioneer. Senator Burns, an experienced cattle auctioneer, was so good that people had difficulty keeping up with his rapid-fire delivery—a fact that likely contributed a few attendees bidding against themselves. Toni Cook Bush and Melissa Newman, both Charity Auction veterans, tag-teamed for the second live auction. Dick Wiley, a master of driving up the bids, also returned to lead the way for all auctioneers. John Kamp returned this year and joined Dick for the third live auction session. My sincere appreciation goes to the Auction Committee Co-Chairs - Yaron Dori, Ryan Wallach, Jennifer Warren, Carolyn Groves, Cheryl Leanza, Scott Delacourt and Pam Slipakoff, the members of the Young Lawyers Committee, Bryan Tramont, Heidi Kurtz, and all of the Foundation volunteers for their hard work and dedication in making this year's event successful. I know that many of you will enjoy trips, golf, games and other auction and raffle prizes in the coming months.

We are currently putting the final touches on the FCBA's 16th Annual FCC Chairman's Dinner, which will be held on Thursday, December 12, 2002 at the Hilton Washington & Towers, 1919 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. The FCBA will once again honor FCC Chairman Michael K. Powell. I know that many of you look forward to the opportunity to mingle with 1400 of your closest friends! Once again, FCBA members and their clients and colleagues from all areas of the country will join us for an evening of fun.

I also want to highlight the successful Midwest Chapter Luncheon featuring Commissioner Michael Copps. Approximately 60 FCBA members attended this event and enjoyed the opportunity to visit with the Commissioner and his Senior Legal Advisor, Jordan Goldstein. I know that many of the Chapters are planning Commissioner visits for the winter and spring months, so stay tuned to future newsletters for information about those dates. Once again, I want to thank Chairman Powell and Commissioners Abernathy, Copps and Martin for their continued support of our Association. Each has expressed a willingness to visit with one or more of our chapters in the remaining months of this fiscal year, and your Chapter Representatives, Suzanne Toller and Ruth Bahe-Jachna are helping me coordinate those visits.

Almost halfway through my term as President, I can report that I have enjoyed working with so many of you in this active Association. I would like to thank my Executive Committee members and Chapter Representatives for their dedication and hard work so far this year. I think we have a great deal of momentum heading into the new calen-

13th Annual Charity Auction Raises $50,000 for College Bound/Beacon House

The 13th Annual Charity Auction held on November 21 was another smashing success thanks to the committee and subcommittee co-chairs, the auction sponsors, the countless volunteers and FCBA member and local business support.

The beneficiary of the auction proceeds is the College Bound/Beacon House partnership, a non-profit organization that provides educational opportunities, community support and outreach to D.C.-area youth. Beacon House, which has partnered with College Bound since 1999, works to empower, enhance, and assist at-risk children and families in enriching their lives and their community through creative multi-cultural partnerships.

Thank you to this year's Auction Committee co-chairs, Yaron Dori, Ryan Wallach, Jennifer Warren, Carolyn Groves, Cheryl Leanza, Scott Delacourt and Pam Slipakoff. Also to the subcommittee co-chairs, Bryan

Tramont, Aspa Paroutsas, Chris Bjornson, Denise Coca, David Kirschner, Chuck Keller, Steve Hitchcock, Jason Groves, Amal Abdallah, Rudy Baca, Ray Rothermel, Pete Belvin, Greg Vadas, Jason Scism, Vin Paladini, Kevin Goldberg, Artie Lechtman, and Billy Layton.

There were also countless volunteers the night of the auction, and they will be recognized in a PowerPoint slideshow at the Chairman's Dinner on December 12.

COMMITTEE AND CHAPTER NEWS

MENTOR PROGRAM

Individual Match-Ups: Persons interested in mentoring or being a mentee should fill out the Mentoring Form included in this newsletter on page 10, and return it to the FCBA. The Diversity Committee will be pairing mentors and mentees on a rolling basis, and will work to create matches based on the preferences indicated on the form.

Corporate/Organizational Mentorship Sessions: The Diversity Committee will organize a series of brown bag lunches at various organizations that will focus on careers in different areas of practice within the communications industry. The lunches will be limited to 15-20 attendees, and will feature 3 to 4 attorneys from the organization who will discuss their career paths and offer advice. Currently, Black Entertainment Television, Inc. and the Cellular Telecommunications and Internet Association have agreed to set up lunches for mentees interested in media and wireless, respectively, and we thank them for their commitment to diversity. The details of these events will be announced in the near future. The Diversity Committee strongly encourages other corporations and organizations to volunteer as well.

January 23, 2003 Kickoff Event:

Please save the evening of Thursday, January 23, 2003, for a mentoring kickoff event to be held at the law offices of Shook, Hardy & Bacon, LLP, located at 600 14th Street, N.W., in the Penthouse Suite. More details will follow.

For information regarding the mentoring program, please contact any of the Diversity Committee Co-Chairs: Monica Desai at 202/418-7419 (mdesai@fcc.gov); Edgar Class III at 202/639-5639 (eclass@shb.com); or Harry Wingo at 202/418-1783 (hwingo@fcc.gov).

Law School Outreach Events

The Diversity Committee and Young Lawyers Committee are planning several student outreach events to be held at law schools early in 2003. The events will provide law students with information about careers in communications law. More details to follow.

If you have questions or suggestions concerning these events, or would like to volunteer to participate, please contact Diversity Committee Co-Chair, Harry Wingo at 202/418-1783 (hwingo@fcc.gov), or Young Lawyers Committee Co-Chair, Ryan Wallach at 202/303-1000 (rwallach@willkie.com).

A Few Good Men, Women (and Possibly Their Children) Wanted as Volunteers for McKenna's Wagon Mobile Soup Kitchen

In case you haven't heard, FCBA volunteers work on Martha's Table's mobile soup kitchen, McKenna's Wagon, on the 4th Sunday of each month. McKenna's Wagon is a mobile soup and sandwich wagon that goes "on location" to deliver food to the homeless. The food we serve is prepared earlier in the day at Martha's Table. For those who have volunteered, it has been a wonderful experience and a great way to help the homeless and the D.C. community.

Volunteering for McKenna's Wagon is very accommodating for those of us who have been meaning to volunteer but do not always have time in our schedules to volunteer on a consistent basis. In fact, you can sign up to volunteer for McKenna's Wagon on one Sunday in the near (or distant) future. We currently have slots available for the next six months for FCBA volunteers and we encourage you to bring a friend. Also, if any FCBA members have children looking for community service opportunities, look no further. We have had several "FCBA families" volunteer on McKenna's Wagon and have found it to be an excellent way for families to spend some time together on a Sunday afternoon. (Children should be old enough to not require immediate supervision at all times since we do get busy with handing out food). We can also accommodate groups up to six volunteers for one of the dates listed below. We encourage law firms, legal departments and even FCC divisions to volunteer for a session. We will provide the publicity and challenge your peers to do the same.

If you are interested, please send an E-mail to csheppardvoth@yahoo.com identifying yourself and the date(s) that you are interested in volunteering. If you are not sure about a date but want to be included in our regular monthly e-mail list of volunteers, we will be happy to add you to the list. The FCBA is scheduled to staff Martha's Wagon on the following Sundays: November 24; December 22; January 26, 2003; February 23, 2002; March 23, 2003; and April 27, 2003.

If you have not yet volunteered for McKenna's Wagon, and want to find out what happens during an afternoon on the wagon, read on ...

First, the wagon is really a big, white van that is loaded up with sandwiches, snacks and soup du jour. We typically meet at Martha's Table at 4:45 p.m. in comfortable clothes and shoes. Martha's Table is located in a yellow building at 2114 Fourteenth Street, NW, in the District, near the intersection of 14th and U Streets. On-street parking is available. Upon arrival we have enough time to get our assignments (some of us will distribute snacks and sandwiches, others will serve soup), and don our aprons before we depart in the van to our location at 5th and NY Ave., NW (near the new Convention Center). We are driven by one of our experienced volunteers and the trip to NY Ave. usually takes about 10-15 minutes.

We serve anywhere between 30-75 people per visit including mothers who come for food for their families. The area is well lighted and well patrolled by police. The food distribution is conducted in an efficient, calm and orderly fashion and the people we serve are typically quite appreciative of our efforts. After we have served all our local customers, we drop off any leftovers to a nearby woman's shelter. Total time for the distribution takes about one hour and we usually return to Martha's Table by 6:30 pm. If you have more questions about McKenna's Wagon, please contact Cara Sheppard Voth (csheppardvoth@yahoo.com) or Tom Van Wazer (tvanwazer@sidley.com).
