

2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

The FCBA Foundation is pleased to announce it has selected 26 students from Washington, DC public high schools for merit and need-based awards and college scholarships to be distributed over four years of matriculation. Also, we will award scholarships to seven law school students and stipends to 32 law students who have accepted unpaid public service internships in communications-related agencies for the summer. None of these awards would be possible without the generous support of the FCBA's members and the organizations in which they work. We thank you for your generosity!

2018 COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Under the leadership of the Foundation's college scholarship committee, Justin Faulb, Adam Krinsky, and Aspasia Paroutsas, the Foundation reviewed applications from high school students of diverse backgrounds with an interest in communications-related fields, including media, journalism, technology, engineering, or law. Thirty-nine high school student applicants were interviewed and 26 of these were chosen to receive FCBA Foundation scholarship assistance funded over four years. Our scholarship recipients this year came from 10 local public high schools: Ballou, Benjamin Banneker, Columbia Heights Educational Campus (Bell Multicultural), Duke Ellington, Eastern, E.L. Haynes, McKinley Technology, School Without Walls, Washington Latin, and Woodrow Wilson. All 39 of the applicants who attended interviews will be provided new laptop computers. Software has been made available to each student through the generous donation of Microsoft Corporation. Additionally, the 26 scholarship recipients will be assigned FCBA mentors to help them advance academically and professionally.

The Foundation thanks CTIA for hosting college applicant interviews and the taping of the Foundation video, Mark Van Bergh for photographing the recipients, and Comcast Corporation for sponsoring the production of the video.

2018 LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Foundation's law school scholarship committee, Parul Desai, Davina Sashkin, and Johanna Thompson led the efforts to review applications from current students at law schools across the country who demonstrated merit and need, as well as an interest in communications law and technology and public service. We received applications from students at schools across the country and awarded seven scholarships to law students ranging from $5,000 to $10,000.

2018 PUBLIC SERVICE INTERNSHIP STIPEND PROGRAM

Under the leadership of the Foundation's internship committee, Scott Bergmann and Jordan Goldstein, the Foundation reviewed applications from students at law schools across the country. The Foundation awarded stipends ranging from $500 to $5,000 to 32 students who have accepted public service positions for the summer. One outstanding applicant to the Stipend program received the annual Max Paglin Award, representing an additional stipend of $600.

Congratulations to all of our scholarship and stipend recipients!

The Foundation also thanks the following volunteers for their time and talent, serving as liaisons to participating public high schools, reviewing college and law school scholarship applications, and interviewing high school students: John Bagwell, Erik Beith, Ann West Bobeck, Tiara Bonet, John Burgett, Zac Champ, Elizabeth Chernow, Noah Cherry, Marjorie Conner, Andrew Cooley, Tara Corvo, Elizabeth Cuttner, Emily Daniels, Seth Davidson, Matthew DeTura, Kelly Donohue, Eric Ehrenreich, Kristine Fargotstein, Lisa Fowlkes, Pamela Gallant, Jonathan Garvin, Anna Gomez, Kara Graves, Erin Griffith, Nese Guendelsberger, Kelsey Guyselman, Pamera Hairston, Patrick Halley, Russ Hanser, Kathy Harvey, Dan Henry, Jennifer Holtz, Jesse Jachman, Joy James, Jamile Kadre, Warren Kessler, Erin Kim, Hadass Kogan, Jason Koslofsky, Chris Koves, Luisa Lancetti, Heidi Lankau, Anisa Latif, Sarah Leggin, Jonathan Markman, Patrick McFadden, Aimee Meacham, Chris Meier, Stephanie Minnock, Lynn Montgomery, Genny Morelli, Brian Murray, Courtney Neville, Paul Noone, Jen Oberhausen, Nancy Ory, Tyler Park, Thom Parisi, Lee Petro, Laura Phillips, Kevin Pittman, Jamison Prime, Tajma Rahimic, Radhika Raju, Sean Robinson, Gregory Romano, Kevin Ryan, Mike Saperstein, Kaiti Saunders, Michelle Schaefer, Savannah Schaefer, Mark Schneider, John Scott, Rachel Sher, Angie Simpson, Anjali Singh, Karen Sprung, Joan Stewart, Megan Stull, Robert Stup, Danielle Thumann, Melissa Turcios, Caroline Van Wie, Brenda Villanueva, Ryan Wallach, Jennifer Warren, Rachel Wolkowitz, and Richard Young.

THANKS TO DONORS & MENTORS

Thanks to the continuing generosity of our individual members, law firms, companies, and associations, the FCBA Foundation's fundraising efforts continue to reach amazing levels each year. Thanks to the contributions of many, we've awarded over $425,000! See the end of the handout for a complete list of our generous donors.

The final list of donors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2018 will be included in the Foundation's annual report, in the FCBA newsletter, and on the FCBA Foundation website. To donate, please visit the Foundation's web page: <http://www.fcba.org/foundation>.

FCBA Foundation trustee Davina Sashkin is coordinating the mentoring program this year. FCBA mentors provide advice and encouragement to our college scholarship winners as they transition from high school to college and from academics to careers. They also provide a link back to the Foundation, allowing us to appreciate our students' progress, supported by our members' donations. Thanks to all of our mentors: Kathleen Abernathy, Ann West Bobeck, Elizabeth Chernow,

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

Matthew Collins, Emily Daniels, Mark Denbo, Elizabeth Goldin, Jordan Goldstein, Donna Gregg, Jamile Kadre, Kathy Kirby, Adam Krinsky, John Kuzin, Jonathan Mark, Matt McCormick, Brian Murray, Courtney Neville, Tyler Park, Lee Petro, Melanie Ramey, Rob Schill, Kat Scott, Melissa Turcios, and Sika Yeboah-Sampong.

Your generous donations of time and talent enable the Foundation to do more in our community, and to nurture aspiring communications professionals. Thank you!

It is an honor to introduce this year's scholarship and internship stipend awardees:

2018 College Scholarship Recipient Bios

BETELHEM ASSEFA

CTIA Scholarship ($10,000)

Betelhem Assefa is graduating from McKinley Technology High School where she was captain of McKinley Tech's varsity girls soccer team. Betelhem was part of DC high school athletics' first ever international trip; she went to Spain and competed with two Spanish teams. During the summer of 2017, Betelhem traveled to Guatemala with DCPS Study Abroad on a learning and community service immersion program where she stayed with a host family and helped build a side of a road. Additionally, Betelhem interned with DC Health and Academic Program (DC HAPP), where she learned about the different healthcare professions. In the fall, Betelhem will be majoring in Chemistry at the University of Southern California.

ZOLA CANADY

NCTA – The Internet & Television Association Scholarship ($10,000)

Zola Canady is graduating from Woodrow Wilson High School, and will attend Yale University this fall. At Wilson, Zola served as News Editor and Head of Public Relations for the school newspaper, The Wilson Beacon. She was also Junior and Senior Class President, and a member of the nonprofit organization Operation Understanding DC. It was through a summer course in neuroscience that Zola discovered her interest in the human brain and behavior, and she hopes to explore neuroscience at Yale. In addition to neuroscience, Zola hopes to pursue her interests in economics, social justice, and journalism.

EDGAR CHICA

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Edgar Chica is graduating from Bell Multicultural High School and participated in the Bell NJROTC unit for two years. He also participated in other various after-school programs such as Cyber Security Club, Game Development Club, and Robotics. Edgar has taken seven AP classes in 11th and 12th grade including AP Computer Science, AP English Language and Literature, AP Spanish Lang and Literature, AP 2D Studio Art, and AP Environmental Science. Edgar's main interest is computers because of their potential and their list of benefits. However, he is planning to major in business and accounting at The University of the District of Columbia.

YUANLONG DAI

DISH Network Scholarship ($10,000)

Yuanlong Dai is graduating from School Without Walls High School. He participated in many activities both in and out of school. He co-founded the Chinese Culture Club with his sister during his sophomore year and plays for his school's Ultimate Frisbee team. Outside of school, he is very active in the Asian American LEAD (AALEAD) organization. He served as the organization's first high-school intern and was also a youth council member his freshman and junior year. Being proficient in Mandarin, he helps to translate for people in his neighborhood. Yuanlong will attend Emory University in the fall and plans to major in Human Health, with a minor in East Asian Studies.

PHONG DANH

Young Lawyers and Charity Auction Scholarship ($12,500)

Phong Danh is graduating from Bell Multicultural High School where he participated in many activities during his high school years such as Robotics Club, Will Program (Wilderness Leadership & Learning), FBLA Program (Future Business Leader of America), Asian Club, and Special Olympics. He will be going to Montgomery College this fall to study Mechanical Engineering.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

FATIMA DAVID

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Fatima David is graduating from Washington Latin Public Charter School where she actively pursued her interest in psychology by being one of the only two high school interns at the American Psychological Association. Fatima also participated in the Paideia Institute in Rome studying spoken Latin for three weeks on a full scholarship. She had played an active role on the field playing varsity softball for the three years, as well as varsity soccer and Ultimate Frisbee. Fatima shows her variety of passions in over 200 hours of community service, her classes, awards, and activities such as art shows, the STEM Fair, and being a student ambassador, all which she hopes to continue at Ithaca College in the fall.

DJIBRIL FALL

National Association of Broadcasters Scholarship ($10,000)

Djibril Fall is graduating from Woodrow Wilson High School, where he is a member of the National Honor Society and the Science Olympiad Team. He was a transfer student from Aspen High School in Colorado and began attending Wilson in the 10th grade. Djibril has maintained high academic performance while working as an Explainer for the Smithsonian Air and Space Museum and as a crew member at AMC Theaters. Djibril is a 2018 graduate of the DC Health and Academic Prep Program at George Washington University Medical School, where he worked with a team to publish their original research. He is an avid sports fan and enjoys playing a variety of video games. Djibril will be attending the University of Chicago in the fall, to major in Biology, Pre-Med.

ANTONY GUILLEN

Young Lawyers and Charity Auction Scholarship ($12,500)

Antony Guillen is graduating from Bell Multicultural High School. He was born in a small town in El Salvador and migrated to the United States at the age of 12. Antony participated in Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), where he was the State Treasurer, was on the school robotics team, and was a member of the swim team. Antony was also active in his local church by giving food to the homeless and worked at Columbia Heights Education Campus during middle school and high school. Antony will be attending American University starting in the summer and hopes to major in accounting and minor in business. Antony has always been passionate about businesses and especially interested in building one, so after college he plans to open a music center with his brother.

DEARRA HART

Sinclair Broadcasting Group Scholarship ($10,000)

Dearra Hart is graduating from Eastern Senior High School. Dearra has been a part of the Health Science & Medicine Academy at Eastern since her freshman year, learning different careers as part of the medical field. During her senior year, she interned at a law firm, held the position of Secretary of The Explorer Club, and served as a member of The National Honor Society while maintaining a 4.50 GPA. Dearra is passionate about the improving the health of individuals around the world and will be majoring in Public Health at Temple University.

BRAYAN HERNANDEZ

Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP Scholarship ($16,000)

Brayan Hernandez is graduating from Benjamin Banneker Academic High School, where he is a member of the school's French National Honors Society and National Honors Society. Brayan was born in El Salvador and migrated to the United States at the age of nine. His interest to make a difference has led to an accumulation of 270 community service hours at Barnard Elementary School and Raymond Education Campus. His goal for the future is to improve his community through innovative thinking, education, and community service. Brayan knows pain and adversity and will utilize his experiences to improve social problems and facilitate the lifestyle of minority groups through public service. He takes pride in the mentoring of his three siblings, financial support of his family, and his academic success. Brayan will use his talents and interests to major in the field of education at Catholic University of America.

NATAI JINFESSA

AT&T Scholarship ($15,000)

Natai Jinfessa is graduating from Benjamin Banneker Academic High School and will attend George Mason University, majoring in biomedical engineering and following the pre-med track. In addition to this passion that he has for design and innovation of medical technology, Natai also aspires to work with humanitarian aid organizations in designing and engineering cheap and accessible medical tech that is available to third-world countries around the world like his own, Ethiopia. To fuel his passion for medicine and engineering, Natai has participated in various internships including D.C. Health and Academic Preparatory Program, audited classes at Howard University Department of Architecture and Civil Engineering and more.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

BIYESHI KUMSA

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Biyeshi Kumsa is graduating from Bell Multicultural High School as a valedictorian. As a child born in Galessa, a beautiful, yet desolate region of Ethiopia, Biyeshi lived a life where equality between men and women did not exist. Today, she uses her voice to advocate for women's rights. For Biyeshi, advocacy is more than just a value: advocacy has been ingrained in her life. She has dedicated her academic career to achieving excellence and empowering her community. Biyeshi is also involved in multiple school clubs and extracurriculars like Teen Health Promoters, FBLA, Global Kids, and Tennis. Biyeshi will be majoring in Global Health at Dartmouth College this fall.

RYNEISHA MCKENZIE

Karen Kincaid Scholarship sponsored by Wiley Rein and Karen's Friends ($24,000)

Ryneisha McKenzie will be graduating from McKinley Technology High School with a STEM diploma in Biotechnology. In the summer of 2017, Ryneisha interned at George Washington University of Medicine and Health Sciences. During her internship, she was exposed to the many different health professions and had the opportunity to become CPR/AED Certified along with participating in health simulations. This experience inspired Ryneisha to pursue a medical career as an OB/GYN. She will be attending Drexel University in the fall, majoring in Biological Sciences on a pre-med track.

The Karen A. Kincaid Scholarship

SPONSORED BY WILEY REIN AND KAREN'S FRIENDS

The Karen A. Kincaid Scholarship is an annual award that pays tribute to the late Karen Kincaid, a partner in Wiley Rein's Communications Practice. Karen is remembered by her friends and colleagues for her warmth, intellect, and a deep commitment to her family and her community, qualities that also are demonstrated by the scholarship recipient, Ryneisha McKenzie.

Prior to joining Wiley Rein, Karen served as a Senior Attorney-Advisor for the Private Radio Bureau, at the Federal Communications Commission from 1989 to 1993. She was a law clerk to the Honorable J. Smith Hensley, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and the Honorable Leo Oxenberger, Chief Judge, Iowa Court of Appeals. She received her B.A. from Central College and her J.D. from Drake University.

Friends and colleagues of Karen Kincaid are proud to fund a scholarship in her memory to provide a deserving student assistance toward college tuition.

MARISOL MENDOZA

Google Scholarship ($10,000)

Marisol Mendoza is graduating from Bell Multicultural High School. She was born in Paraguay and moved to the U.S. at the age of eight. During her senior year, she was captain of the Robotics Club and member of the tennis team and the Future Business Leaders of America program. Her passion for understanding how the universe works has prompted her to pursue the fields of physics and mathematics at the University of Rochester, NY. Besides having an interest in STEM, Marisol also wishes to get involved in politics, specifically in the area of education reform.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

ZAKIYA MOSES

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Zakiya Moses is graduating from Benjamin Banneker Academic High School. Zakiya is a proud member of the National Honors Society and Mu Alpha Theta where she applied her academic and social strengths towards her high school career. She was a member of the Yearbook Club and Drama Club. She also dedicated her time to support her community by helping children with their academic skills. With a strong passion for writing, Zakiya spends her time writing poems and short stories. Her plans to major in Communications at Saint Vincent College in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. After obtaining her Bachelor's degree, she plans on pursuing a career in broadcast journalism.

EZECHINYERE NJOKU

Comcast NBCUniversal Scholarship ($15,000)

Ezechinyere Njoku is graduating from Benjamin Banneker Academic High School as valedictorian with a 4.40 GPA. He was an IB Diploma Candidate and will attend Bucknell University. During his high school years, he was inducted into the National Honor Society, National French Honor Society, and National Math Honor Society. He was the president of the Electric Car Club, played a leading role in Banneker's 2017 musical, was a member of the African Student Association, played varsity basketball and track and field, participated in Fitness Club and Men of Strength Club, and completed over 500 hours of community service. He was a member of the Youth Advisory Committee and an intern in the DC Health and Academic Prep Program at the George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences. He will major in Neuroscience and plans to become a neurosurgeon.

AUREL BRONDON NPOUNGNONG

T-Mobile US, Inc. Scholarship ($15,000)

Aurel Brondon Npoungnong is graduating from Bell Multicultural High School and will be attending American University in the fall with an intended major in Computer Engineering and Physics. He is the first generation in his family to go to college. Aurel moved to the United States seven years ago and is trilingual, speaking English, Spanish, and French, and he is working on his fourth language, Japanese. He was the Commanding Officer of the Bell Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps and former President of the Washington, DC chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America. He has participated in national level competitions, has been to 3 different countries, his favorite color is orange, and he loves to play soccer.

DIANA ORTIZ

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Diana Ortiz is a graduating from Benjamin Banneker Academic High School, where she is a member of the National Honors Society, the National French Honors Society, the Mu Alpha Theta, varsity volleyball team and the Yearbook Club. She's also worked for the Department of Health and the Young Women's Project as a Peer Educator and Youth Ambassador as advocate for sexual health. Diana also volunteered her free time to the Higher Achievement program as a summer intern and a school year volunteer. This past summer, she spoke to Senators as to why the summer education is important and is where she discovered her passion of advocating for others. She plans to attend Trinity Washington University to study Political Science. After college, she wants to pursue a career in law to eventually become a family lawyer.

MIKA ROBINSON

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Mika Robinson is graduating from Washington Latin Public Charter School. Mika was a leader on her school's community council, a student ambassador, and a student tutor. She was the only student last year to receive The Student Citizenship Award, an award for an exemplary student and inspiration for the class. In addition to these accomplishments, Mika competed in her school's sports teams such as the varsity volleyball, softball, and this year, track and field team. By participating in such activities, she has developed leadership skills and strong confidence. Mika brings a light to her school's community and hopes to cultivate her light and her skills further at Ithaca College.

IAN SIMON LUC TALUSAN

Verizon Scholarship ($15,000)

Simon Talusan is graduating from Benjamin Banneker Academic High School. He was born in the Philippines and came to the United States three years ago. He is involved in the Robotics Club and the Electric Car Club. Outside of school, Simon tutored for E.L. Haynes Public Charter School and participated in the Asian American LEAD (AALEAD) program. He worked as an intern for the National Institutes of Health last summer under the High School Scientific Training and Enrichment Program (HiSTEP) and will be returning this summer for the HiSTEP 2.0 program. Simon will be attending the University of Washington in the fall where he plans to major in Computer Science.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

team. She is the first in her family to graduate from high school and also the first in her family to attend college. Katherine is the secretary for her senior class, where she assists in fundraising activities and planning outside activities. Katherine is an honor roll student, having maintained that position since her freshman year. She will attend the Montserrat College of Art in Beverly, Massachusetts, concentrating in Illustration.

DEMI TATE

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Demi Tate is graduating from E.L. Haynes Public Charter School and maintained honor roll every year. She found her passion as an editor in her school newspaper and also found interest in law when she spent three weeks at the University of Chicago. Demi currently holds an internship through Urban Alliance at the Economic Clubs and plans to major in Criminal Justice at American University in Washington, DC.

MICHELLE VASQUEZ

Sidley Austin LLP and the Sidley Austin Foundation Scholarship ($10,000)

Michelle Vasquez is a senior at the Duke Ellington School of the Arts where she majors in classical piano and organ studies. Michelle will be the first college bound scholar in her entire Latino family to go to college. She contributes to her community in many ways by performing at church services and at Arnold & Porter LLP, as well as regularly performing at Leisure World of Maryland and the DC Veterans Affairs Hospital. Michelle is also the Vice President of her senior class. She is a founding member of her school's Teen Court Restorative Justice Program where they train and work on finding creative and alternative ways to solve school related violations. In the future, Michelle wants to become a lawyer and advocate for minorities. Her goal is to help her community and become a leader of this generation.

MALIK THORNTON

Cox Enterprises, Inc. Scholarship ($10,000)

Malik Thornton is graduating McKinley Technical High School. He transferred to McKinley during his sophomore year; it was not an easy switch, but he recognized that this decision would be best in terms of pursuing his next level of education. Since the transfer, Malik has managed to earn Honor Roll every quarter, and he has remained heavily involved within extracurricular activities. At McKinley, Malik has been exposed to numerous study abroad opportunities as well as internship opportunities. He is currently interning at the National Museum of African American History and Culture and will be attending Morehouse College in the fall. He plans to study cyber security in order to focus on many aspects within global safety, and he also intends to serve as a role model, showing other students of color how much of a resource education can be when capitalized upon.

LUCIE WARGA

FCBA Foundation Scholarship ($8,000)

Lucie Warga is graduating from Washington Latin Public Charter School. After spending a semester at the Conserve School in Wisconsin, she became an engaged leader in her school's environmental clubs. Her favorite part of the club was maintaining the hydroponic garden towers and cooking with the harvests. Lucie loves to play Ultimate Frisbee. She also mentors and tutors several students at Latin and hopes to take courses in education in college. Lucie will be attending Yale University in the fall, and is excited to explore new interests to discover a major.

KATHERINE TIRADO

Consumer Technology Association (CTA)™ Scholarship ($10,000)

Katherine Tirado is graduating the Duke Ellington School of the Arts. She is a member of the National Honor Society, and has also been part of the White House Holiday book design

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

ANWA WRENN

21st Century Fox Scholarship ($20,000)

Anwa Wrenn is graduating from Ballou Senior High School. He took AP and honors classes since entering high school and was able to maintain his GPA while participating in football, baseball, swimming, and track. Anwa is also a member of the Young Men on the Rise Mentoring Program and Men of Strength Program where he mentored male youth in middle school. Anwa loves swimming and has been a lifeguard since the age of fourteen with the Department of Parks and Recreation. This fall Anwa will be attending the University of Toledo where he will start his journey in Mechanical Engineering.

2018 Law School Scholarship and Internship Stipend Recipients

EMILY BIENIEK

Internship: FCC, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau

Emily Bieniek is a rising 2L at The George Washington University Law School with a background in media and anthropology. After graduating from The University of Notre Dame in 2013, Emily spent a year working as a producer and DJ at KNOM Radio Mission in Nome, Alaska, where she collected modern oral histories for her award-winning series, Story49. She has since served as the Digital Media Director at the Comparative Constitutions Project and as a corporate paralegal at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz. Her debut novel, On the Great Land, was published by Ward Street Press last year.

TIARA BONET

Internship: FCC, International Bureau, Telecommunications and Analysis Division

Tiara Bonet is a rising 3L at American University Washington College of Law. She is currently the Vice-President of the Communication and Media Law Society. She also serves on the executive board of the Information Security and Privacy Law Group and ADVANCE, a first-generation law school mentoring group. She is a graduate of CUNY - Hunter College where she received in a B.A. in Studio Art and Media Studies. Her coursework during her time at Hunter College led to her interest in telecommunications.

SAVANNAH BORDERS

Internship: FCC, Media Bureau, Policy Division

Savannah Borders is a rising 2L at the University of Virginia School of Law. She attended the University of Virginia undergrad as well, where she majored in English and minored in Economics. After graduation, she worked as a Campaign Communications Director on a successful Senate campaign in her home state of Georgia, and then moved to DC to continue public affairs work. She became interested in communications while working at CTIA, the premier trade association for the wireless industry, where she served as a public affairs coordinator.

LILY BULLITT

Internship: FCC, International Bureau

Lily Bullitt is a rising 2L at the George Washington University Law School, focusing her studies on international law and policy. After receiving a B.A. in International Studies from Kenyon College, Lily moved to Kenya to work with a community organization providing essential services to the informal settlements of Nairobi. Her interest in international law led her to a position with a non-profit organizing international pro bono projects. Throughout these experiences, Lily saw the importance of information and communication technologies to international development efforts.

FRANCESCA CAMPIONE

Internship: FCC, Media Bureau, Industry Analysis Division

Francesca Campione is a rising 2L at Indiana University Maurer School of Law. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Stony Brook University's School of Journalism where she studied written and broadcast news production. She has interned at NBC News, NY1 News and the Queens Ledger. Francesca entered law school with the intention to expand her knowledge of communications and media law and policy. She will serve on the editorial board for Indiana's IP Theory journal, as well as on the executive board for the Intellectual Property Association this coming fall. During her

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

1L year she served on the Dean's Advisory Council and as the 1L representative for the Women's Law Caucus and Latinx Law Student Association.

NICOLE CHAMMAS

Internship: FCC, Wireline Competition Bureau, Pricing Policy Division

Nicole Chammas is a 2019 J.D. Candidate at the Antonin Scalia Law School George Mason University. Before entering law school, she earned her B.B.A. from the George Washington University in Business Economics and Public Policy. She spent last summer in Geneva, Switzerland participating in both lectures and assimilations at the World Trade Organization (WTO) and the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). During her time at Antonin Scalia Law, she has been a Research Assistant for Professor Ilya Somin, participated in the Intellectual Property Saul Lefkowitz Moot Court Competition, and has clerked at numerous firms. Upon graduation, she hopes to pursue a career in telecommunications policy advising developing countries on how to enhance their telecommunications infrastructure.

JASON CHUN

Internship: FCC, Media Bureau, Policy Division

Jason Chun is a rising 2L at American University Washington College of Law, where he is a staffer on the Administrative Law Review. Before attending law school, Jason graduated from the University of Illinois with a B.S. in Journalism. During his undergraduate years, Jason worked as a reporter and editor for the independent student newspaper on his campus and spent summers interning at multiple law firms. He covered breaking news and local crime as a reporter and served as a news editor. Jason's time interning and working in a newsroom inspired him to pursue a legal career in media and communications law.

RISHELE ELLISON

Internship: United States Copyright Office, Public Information and Education Office

Rishele Ellison is a rising 3L at Howard University School of Law in Washington, DC pursuing her interest in Entertainment and Intellectual Property law. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Bowie State University in Communications with a concentration in Broadcast Journalism. This past academic year, Rishele served as a Student Attorney for Howard's Intellectual Property and Trademark Clinic where she provided representation to clients seeking to secure federal trademark registrations with the United States Patent Trademark Office. Additionally, Rishele is the President of Howard's Fashion Law Society, and Vice President of Howard's Sports and Entertainment Law Student Association. This summer, Rishele will be a Law Clerk at the United States Copyright Office.

AMANDA FARENTHOLD

Internship: FCC, Office of Legislative Affairs

Amanda Farenthold is a rising 3L at Vanderbilt Law School. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Vanderbilt University in 2015, where she double majored in Political Science and Child Development. She is a staffer on the Journal of Entertainment and Technology Law, Secretary of the Intellectual Property Association, and Vice President of Events for the Entertainment and Sports Law Society. Amanda became interested in communication policy while working as a Google Policy Fellow at the R-Street Institute, where assisted with research projects on telecommunications and technology issues. She continued to study administrative law, technology law, and communications law during her 2L year and is looking forward to getting hands on experience with the FCC's Office of Legislative Affairs this summer.

ERIC FELLAND

Internship: FCC International Bureau, Global Strategy and Negotiations Division

Eric Felland is a rising 3L at The George Washington University Law School, where his interests have included international, regulatory, and space/telecommunications law. He combines these areas this summer with an internship at the FCC International Bureau, Global Strategy and Negotiations Division involving international research and assisting the US's preparation for the fall 2018 ITU Plenipotentiaries Conference. Eric graduated from Northwestern University where he studied social science, spent his junior year in Europe, and worked as a newscaster and Operations Director for campus radio station WNUR-FM. Before law school, he worked as a market researcher in Chicago for clients in the energy, telecom, and consumer finance sectors. Eric has also held an amateur radio Extra Class license since 2001.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

CONNOR GLISSON

Internship: FCC, Office of Commissioner Carr

Connor Glisson is a rising 2L at the George Mason University School of Law, as well as a policy advisor at Oliver Strategies, a Washington based government relations firm. In his role there, he advises clients on technology related issues. Prior to law school, he served on Capitol Hill for nearly two years in Senator David Vitter's Office covering issues related to technology, telecommunications and cyber security. Connor is the Vice President of George Mason's Communication Law Association. Upon graduation, he plans to continue in the telecommunications industry.

ALEXANDER HADDAD

Amy Zoslov Scholarship

Alexander Haddad holds a B.A. in Political Science from Denison University, Magna Cum Laude, and currently is a rising 2L at the Case Western Reserve University School of Law where he is a member of the Mock Trial team. Before entering law school, Alex interned for a congressman on Capitol Hill where he assisted the legislative staff in preparing communications and legislative research. In the spring of 2016, Alex studied international politics at Arcadia University in London and interned for MP Paul Maynard in the U.K. House of Commons. In the summer of 2016, he worked at the International Trademark Association as an External Relations Assistant for Latin America. Alex enjoys traveling, volunteering with non-profit organizations, and fostering relationships with people from all backgrounds.

SLATE HERMAN

Internship: NTIA

Mr. Herman is a rising 2L with an interest in cybersecurity and its application in an ever-changing, global internet landscape. Slate has accepted an internship with the National Telecommunication and Information Administration. Additionally, he has an undergraduate degree in Business Intelligence and has spent time interning for two U.S. Senators. He has also been accepted into the D.C. Summer Scholars program with Silicon Flatirons as well as the Blackstone Legal Fellowship.

The Amy Zoslov Scholarship

Amy J. Zoslov lost her battle with breast cancer in August 2000 at the age of 42. Known to members of the communications industry as a dedicated public servant, Amy spent nearly her entire career with the Federal Communications Commission. Amy earned her B.A. from Boston University in 1980 and her J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 1983.

The scholarship fund was established in Amy's memory by her family and friends, the FCC staff, and telecommunications industry donors. Until 2013, the Amy Zoslov Scholarship program was administered by CTIA's Wireless Foundation; in 2013, The FCBA Foundation assumed the privilege of administering the program. Amy Zoslov scholarships currently are awarded annually to deserving students who exhibit the same personal strengths and professional promise that Amy demonstrated. Alexander Haddad was selected for this year's scholarship.

KAITLYN HOLZER

FCBA Foundation Scholarship

Kaitlyn Holzer is a rising 2L at the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law, where she is pursuing her interests in Cybersecurity and Crisis Management law. She graduated cum laude from The Ohio State University with majors in Arabic and Political Science. At Ohio State, she served as a legislative intern with the Ohio House of Representatives and a Virtual Student Foreign Service Intern with the U.S. State Department. As a 1L, she was elected to serve as the President of the Student Bar Association. This summer, Kaitlyn will complete a full-time internship with the Office of the General Counsel at the Department of Homeland Security, where she will research cyber infrastructure topics with the National Protection and Programs Law Division.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

WILLIAM HUPP

Internship: FCC, Wireline Competition Bureau

William Hupp is a rising 2L at the University of Virginia School of Law. William is an Arkansas native and graduated in 2015 from Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. William studied history and philosophy and spent his junior year as a visiting student at the University of Oxford. Before law school, William worked for two years as a legal assistant at Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP. At UVA Law, William is an articles editor for the Virginia Environmental Law Journal, a member of the moot court team, and the video director for the Law School's annual law revue show. In his free time, William loves to cook and enjoys hiking.

ALLEN MAGNUSSON

Internship: FCC, Office of Engineering and Technology

Allen Magnusson is a rising 2L at the University of Colorado Law School. Before attending law school, he received a degree in physics from New York University Abu Dhabi. After spending his undergraduate career outside of the country and then spending a year devoted to national service in New Hampshire through AmeriCorps, Allen was excited to begin his legal education back in his home state of Colorado. Allen is particularly interested in public policy issues that lie at the nexus of scientific and legal inquiry and he looks forward to engaging with a number of spectrum allocation projects during his internship this summer.

ANDREW KENNEDY

Internship: FCC, Media Bureau, Policy Division

Andrew Kennedy is a rising 3L at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law where he was recently named a Howard M. Squadron Fellow, awarded to Cardozo students dedicated academically and professionally to communications law and policy. Before joining the FCC for the 2018 summer, his recent legal internships include a semester with the FTC's Consumer Protection Bureau and the NYC Mayor's Office of Media and Entertainment. His interest in communications law was sparked by professional experiences before law school with the Future of StoryTelling, an event examining the evolution of storytelling in the digital age, and a virtual reality content development team at Viacom. Andrew received his undergraduate degree from Columbia University where he majored in history.

JULIA MALETTE

Internship: FCC, International Bureau, Satellite Division

Julia Malette is a rising 3L at the George Washington University Law School. She is an active member of the Space Law Society and the Moot Court Board and is focusing her studies on space and telecommunications law and policy. She represented GW Law at the 2018 Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court competition where her team received second place. Before attending law school, Julia received her bachelor's degree in Linguistics from the University of Michigan, graduating with highest honors. She is the lucky parent of a seven-year-old daughter and lives in Baltimore.

BRIAN LEWIS

FCBA Foundation Scholarship

Brian Lewis is a rising 2L at Rutgers Law School-Camden, where he is the President of the Intellectual Property Society and Vice-President of the Black Law Student Association. Before entering law school, he worked in Washington, DC and Baltimore, MD as a paralegal. He is interested in Communications and Technology Law. Brian received his undergraduate degree from Columbia University, where he majored in Chemistry.

JUSTIN MCCUEN

Internship: FCC, Office of Chairman Pai

Justin McCuen is a rising 2L at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law. He will also be receiving an M.A. in Public Policy and Management from The Ohio State University John Glenn School of Public Affairs. He attended The Ohio State University for his undergraduate degree, where he received a B.A. in Political Science and Psychology with a minor in Sociology. Throughout his undergraduate career Justin worked in the Ohio Senate and the Ohio Facilities Construction Commission dealing intimately with communications policy at the state legislative level. This summer Justin will have the opportunity to work on a wide variety of communications issues before the FCC, particularly spectrum allocation and bridging the digital divide.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

McKENSIE MEADOWS

Internship: FCC, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau

McKensie Meadows is a rising 3L at the University of Illinois College of Law. Before attending Illinois Law, McKensie attended Millikin University where she earned her bachelor's degree in Philosophy. Last summer, McKensie was a legal intern at the Immigrant Legal Resource Center in Washington, DC, where she focused on legislative advocacy and immigration policy. At Illinois Law, she is a member of the Illinois Cyber Security Scholars Program. During McKensie's 2L year, she competed in New York University's Cyber Security Awareness Week Law & Policy Competition and was chosen as a Finalist. McKensie has served in several leadership positions with both the Public Interest Legal Foundation and the Immigration Law Society. She has also volunteered with a mentorship program in the Champaign-Urbana community, where she mentored a young girl at a local elementary school. Upon graduation, McKensie hopes to work on effectuating strong policy regarding cybersecurity and telecommunications.

class on the Student Bar Association. He has strong interest in communications law and started developing that interest when he was a writer for the student newspaper during undergrad. Mustapha hopes to explore this interest further during his internship this summer.

GALEN POSPISIL

Internship: NTIA, Office of Spectrum Management

Galen Pospisil is a 3L at Colorado Law. After graduating from Dartmouth College with a degree in Government and Public Policy, he served as a law and regulatory policy research assistant at NCTA and worked on issues including competition, spectrum policy, net neutrality, and cybersecurity. During the summer of 2017, Galen worked as a legal intern for Zayo Group on both regulatory and contractual matters. At Colorado Law, Galen worked as a student attorney in the Technology Law and Policy Clinic and served as a research assistant for Dale Hatfield and Pierre de Vries at the Silicon Flatirons Center. This fall, he joins the Colorado Technology Law Journal for a second year as Executive Editor. From Alaska, Galen enjoys hiking in the Rockies and also holds a private pilot certificate.

KIMIA NIKSERESHT

Internship: FCC, Office of General Counsel

Kimia Nikseresht is a rising 2L at George Mason University. She was born in Iran and immigrated to the states with her family. Her interest in communications law stems from her passion for self-expression and story telling. She hopes to dedicate her career to expanding access to information and unheard voices throughout the country. Prior to this position, Kimia studied sociology and Spanish at the University of Virginia, where she served as the intern to the Board of Visitors and the student editor of Iris Magazine.

JORDAN REGENIE

Internship: FCC, International Bureau, Satellite Division

Jordan Regenie is a rising 2L at the University of Colorado. After receiving his undergraduate degree in Political Science and History from Duke University, he managed digital mapping operations teams in Colorado with Microsoft and Uber for five years before starting at CU Law. With a keen interest in space law, he quickly became engaged as a Research Assistant for the Silicon Flatirons' Co-Director of the Spectrum Policy Initiative where he analyzed commercial NGSO communication satellite spectrum allocation and licensing procedures. Moreover, Jordan is the current President of the Silicon Flatiron Student Group that aims to enhance student engagement in the intersection of law, technology, and entrepreneurialism.

MUSTAPHA NYALLAY

Internship: FCC, International Bureau, Telecommunications and Analysis Division

Mustapha Nyallay is a rising 2L at The George Washington University Law School. He graduated from the University of Houston-Downtown with a B.Sc. in Political Science and a Minor in International Relations. Mustapha became the Student Body President and led numerous volunteering and sustainability projects both on campus and in the community. In law school, Mustapha was elected to represent his

MARIELENA REYES

FCBA Foundation Scholarship

Marielena Reyes is a rising 3L at American University Washington College of Law, where her primary focus is data, privacy, cybersecurity, and telecommunications law. Marielena was born and raised in Broward County, Florida and is a proud Florida Gator, graduating from the University of Florida in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in Political Science. This past year, Marielena worked at Keller and Heckman LLP as a telecommunications law clerk, where she drafted and published the firm's "Telecom Business Alerts" and worked on issues related to broadband deployment, wireless licensing, and relevant FCC regulatory proceedings. Lastly, her hobbies include cooking, hiking, spending time with her family, and cheering on her favorite football team, the Florida Gators.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

LOGAN SAMUELS

Internship: FCC, Enforcement Bureau, Investigations and Hearings Division

Logan Samuels is a rising 2L at The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law. She graduated cum laude from Hood College with a B.A. in Communication Arts and English Literature. She became passionate about telecommunications after taking a Communications Law class as part of her journalism curriculum. Logan is a member of the Law and Technology Institute at CUA and served as the 1L representative for the Law and Technology Student Association. During her 2L year, Logan will serve as Communications Director for the American Constitution Society, Auction Chair for SPIL (students for public interest law), and the Alumni Relations chair of Phi Alpha Delta. She is excited to dive into work at the FCC to pursue her interest in communications law and policy.

DONALD RIOS

FCBA Foundation Scholarship

Originally from Los Angeles, CA, Donald Rios received an undergraduate degree in Communications with an emphasis on Public Relations from California State University, Fullerton. He currently attends Thurgood Marshall School of Law at Texas Southern University where he is the President of the Intellectual Property Law Society and SBA Career Services Chair. Donald interned as a 1L at John Deere Headquarters and worked exclusively with the Intellectual Property team. Some of his projects involved patent prosecution, trademark prosecution and enforcement, legal research, brand management, international trademark assignment, and trademark dilution work. As a 2L, Donald was a member of the Federal Bar moot court team at TMSL. Currently, he is interning at the USPTO in the trademarks division. Donald is married, and he and his wife have three small children. When he's not studying or working, Donald is either on the road to Austin, TX with his family or creating music.

ARIEL SAN MIGUEL

Internship: FCC, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau

Ariel San Miguel is a rising 3L at Tulane University Law School in New Orleans, Louisiana. He attended the University of Texas at Austin for his undergraduate degree, where he received a B.A. in Government and History. During his 2L year Ariel served as Diversity Representative for the Tulane University Law School Student Bar Association. Additionally, Ariel writes for the Tulane Environmental Law Journal and will serve as the Senior Business Editor in his 3L year. Ariel spent last summer at the Texas Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division. His interest in communications law began in his administrative law and constitutional law classes where communications law cases were often studied that demonstrated the intersection between regulatory, constitutional, and election law.

JACLYN ROSEN

Internship: FCC, Wireline Competition Bureau, Competition Policy Division

Jaclyn Rosen is a rising 3L at Boston College Law School. After graduating magna cum laude from the University of Florida, Jaclyn worked in research and business development at a start-up media company within Sony Music Entertainment in New York. Last summer, she developed her interest in telecommunications law working for the FCC's Administrative Law Judge, Richard L. Sippel. As a 2L, Jaclyn researched economic and competition policy in high-speed broadband and the over-the-top video market, and will be working for the FCC's Wireline Competition Bureau this summer.

MORGAN SCHICK

Internship: FCC, Wireline Competition Bureau, Pricing Policy Division

Morgan Schick is a rising 2L at the University of North Carolina School of Law. She is a member of the Carolina Intellectual Property Law Organization, and has been recognized with a grant from the UNC Center for Media Law and Policy. Prior to law school, Morgan graduated cum laude from Wake Forest University in 2017 with a B.A. in political communication and minor in journalism. Morgan developed an interest in communications law while working as the marketing coordinator for a cybersecurity startup in her hometown of Oklahoma City. Morgan is an identical twin, and enjoys running and playing tennis.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

MASON SHEFA

Internship: FCC, Wireline Competition Bureau

Mason Shefa is a native of Los Angeles, California, and a rising 3L at William & Mary Law School in Virginia. A first-generation American whose father emigrated from Afghanistan, Mason received his B.A. in History at Yale University in 2015. While at Yale, he interned at Atlantic Records' Licensing Department, and TBWA\CHIAT\DAY's Broadcast Division. In between college and law school, Mason wrote, compiled, and published a 248-page book of original sacred choral music. At William & Mary, Mason was appointed Senior Articles Editor of the William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal (the No. 3 constitutional law journal in the Nation), and President of the school's Legal History Society. Mason's summer 2017 internship at the FCC's Media Bureau, Policy Division inspired him to pursue a career in communications law.

MICHELLE SISTI

Internship: FCC, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, Mobility Division

Michelle Sisti is a rising 3L at American University Washington College of Law. Michelle has interned with the Department of Justice and the FCC. She also worked as a student attorney in the Janet R. Spragens Federal Tax Clinic and was a research assistant for Professor Benjamin Leff. Prior to attending law school, Michelle worked in the tech industry in Southern California while she earned her bachelor's degree in Sociology from California State University, San Marcos. Her interest in technology began in 2006 when she began her tenure at Sony Entertainment Interactive. Her interest grew to include cellular technology when she joined u-blox San Diego, a cellular research and development facility for the Swiss semiconductor developer, u-blox AG. Michelle had a rewarding experience at the FCC in the fall of her 2L year and looks forward to working on a variety of interesting assignments this summer.

THOMAS SIU

Internship: FCC, Pricing Policy Division, Wireline Competition Bureau

Thomas Siu is an incoming 1L at the University of Virginia School of Law. He graduated summa cum laude from Patrick Henry College, where he majored in Government. While there, Thomas competed in moot court and mock trial, winning the undergraduate moot court national championship and placing fourth at an international human rights moot court competition for law students. He has had nine articles published at the undergraduate or graduate level on topics in public policy and legal history, and he helped draft an amicus brief in an educational rights case before Brazil's Supreme Federal Court. Thomas has also served as a clerk to a probate and juvenile court judge, with a focus on juvenile delinquencies and complex probate litigation.

MATTHEW SNEED

Internship: FCC, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau, Cybersecurity and Communications Reliability Division

Matthew Sneed is a rising 3L at Syracuse University College of Law where he is a member of the University's Communications Law Curricular Program. Prior to law school, Matthew graduated cum laude from Seattle University, majoring in Business Management and minoring in Communication Studies. During the fall semester of his 2L year, Matthew worked for the Multicultural Media, Telecom and Internet Council, a non-profit that promotes equal opportunity in broadband, media, and telecommunication industries. When he returns to Syracuse this fall, he will work as a Research Assistant for the director of the University's Communication Law Curricular Program. In his free time, Matthew enjoys playing soccer with his friends and rowing. Matthew is excited to learn more about the technical components of the telecommunications industry and looks forward to spending his summer internship at the FCC.

MARIO TRUJILLO

FCBA Foundation Scholarship

Mario Trujillo is a rising 3L at Georgetown Law. He is working as a summer clerk at the non-profit the Electronic Privacy Information Center. Mario graduated from the University of New Mexico and worked as a reporter in DC for four years before starting law school.

FCBA Foundation 2018 AWARD RECIPIENTS

OLIVIA VEGA

FCBA Foundation Scholarship

Olivia Vega is a rising 2L at Northwestern University's Pritzker School of Law, where she is on the board of the Arts and Entertainment Law Society and member of the Moot Court team. Before attending law school, Olivia graduated with highest honors from the University of Florida with a degree in journalism. While at UF, she wrote numerous articles for The Alligator, her school newspaper, and the Gainesville Sun. She also worked alongside a media law scholar and helped him edit his articles about current First Amendment issues. Aside from her interest in media, Olivia loves music and performed with the UF marching band. Olivia is currently interning with the FCC's Office of General Counsel, and she hopes to pursue a career in communications law.

LAUREN WEISS

Internship: FCC, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau

Lauren Weiss is a rising 2L at George Mason University School of Law. Prior to attending law school, she was a policy analyst at the Homeland Security and Public Safety Division of the National Governors Association where she worked with state homeland security advisors on issues ranging from cybersecurity to emergency preparedness. Lauren also served as the policy assistant to the Chief of Staff of the Transportation Security Administration and interned for the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Homeland Security. Lauren graduated from the College of William & Mary with a degree in International Relations. She is interested in the intersection between cybersecurity, privacy, and national security issues.

JONATHAN WEYAND

Internship: FCC, Enforcement Bureau

Jonathan Weyand is a rising 2L at The George Washington University Law School where he is an active member of the Moot Court Board and the Corporate & Business Law Society. Prior to attending law school, Jonathan graduated magna cum laude from The Wharton School with a B.S. in Economics and concentration in Finance. Jonathan was honored as a Rosenthal Fellow for his commitment to public service through Wharton's Public Policy Initiative; serving at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the Federal Trade Commission, and now the Federal Communications Commission. With a background in consumer protection, Jonathan is excited about working on public safety issues; especially, the unlicensed operation of pirate radio stations, which interferes with local law enforcement, the FAA, and the Emergency Alert System.

Honorary Degrees (Organizations)

Inspired by the Foundation's mission to support educational and professional pursuits, organizations and their collaborative individuals' donations, this year so far, have been recognized with the following honorary degrees:

DEGREES ALL THEIR OWN

($10,000 and above)

21st Century Fox, AT&T, Comcast NBCUniversal, Consumer Technology Association (CTA)TM, Cox Enterprises, Inc., CTIA, DISH Network, Google, National Association of Broadcasters, NCTA – The Internet & Television Association, Sidley Austin and the Sidley Austin Foundation, Sinclair Broadcasting Group, T-Mobile US, Inc., The Karen Kincaid Scholarship Fund sponsored by Wiley Rein and Karen's Friends, The Young Lawyers and Charity Auction, Verizon, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP

MASTERS OF MEDIA

($5,000 - $9,999)

Mintz Levin Communications Section, Time Warner Inc., Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP

BACHELORS OF BROADBAND

($2,000 - $4,999)

Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, Deutsche Telekom, Inc., Jenner & Block LLP, Latham & Watkins LLP

We would also like to thank the following companies and firms for their donations:

Cooley Soda Fund, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati Foundation

Gems (Individuals)

Individual donations this year that will be going to support the Foundation's public service programs have been recognized at the following "birth stone" levels:

DIAMOND

($1,000 and above)

Karen Brinkmann, Seth Davidson, Barry Ohlson, Diane Griffin Holland, Megan Anne Stull, Gregory Romano

EMERALD

($500 - $999)

Kathleen Collins, Darah Franklin, Charla Rath, Roger Sherman

PEARL

($250 - $499)

David Don, Joseph Godles, Jack Goodman, Stephanie Kuhl, Carol Matthey, Ari Moskowitz

RUBY

($100 - $249)

James Barnett, Jonathan Blake, Diane Cornell, Jordan Goldstein, J.G. Harrington, Karis Hastings, Frank Jazzo, Katherine King, Luisa Lancetti, Jennifer Manner, Edward O'Connell, Glenn Reynolds, Harold Salters, Gina Spade, Melodie Virtue

SAPPHIRE

($99 and below)

Evan Carb, Kenneth Hardman, Julie Laine, Aimee Meacham, Susan O'Connell, James Schlichting, Royce Sherlock, Jeffrey Steinberg, Scott Tollefsen, Mark Van Bergh, K. Michele Walters